Protect Personal Information by Using New Form

In an on-going effort to protect employees' sensitve, personal informaton and maintain internal control measures, we have changed our Student/Summer Payroll Authorization Form. The use of a Social Security number is no longer allowed; instead always use the Banner Student ID number to identify the employee.

The new version can be found on our Web site below; please destroy old copies and replace with the new updated form.

Summer School Registration Begins March 16

Summer School registration will begin Monday, March 16. The most up-to-date summer course information is accessible in Banner.

The Summer School Schedule Booklet including course information, registration instructions, tuition rates, housing contract and other details is available at the Student Service Center, the Mail Room and the Office of Summer Programs.

This information, including a PDF version of the Booklet, can also be found on the Summer School Web site.

Summer School consists of two six-week sessions along with special one, two, three or four-week short-term courses. Summer Session I will begin Monday, May 18. Summer Session II starts Monday, June 29.

Questions concerning Summer School registration may be directed to the Student Service Center (871-2123) or the Office of Summer Programs (871-2612, summerpro@alfred.edu). If you have questions about art courses, please contact Cathy Johnson at 871-2412, johnsonc@alfred.edu.

Exploring AU's Online Library Databases

The next installment of ITS's Topics in Information Technology and Digital Media will focus on AU's online library databases.

The presented infomation will include general searching tips for the Web and article databases, differences between article databases and Internet search engines, and an overview of AU's article databases and their features.

Brian Sullivan from Herrick Library will be leading the workshop.

This session will be presented on Tuesday, March 17 from 12:20 to 1:10 p.m. in the Banner Training Center in Howell Hall. All students, faculty, and staff are welcome.

If you have any questions, please contact Meghanne Freivald at 871.2363.

Reminder: Campus Tour Guide Applications due Friday, March 13!

Do you have a dynamic personality? Do you love talking about all the great things AU has to offer? Do you want to be an integral part of the recruiting process? Then apply to be a tour guide!

When we ask incoming freshmen why they chose Alfred, many say "I knew I wanted to come to AU after my campus tour - it just felt right!"

We in Admissions know that a great campus tour with an excellent tour guide is critical to our success. We will be hiring tour guides for the 2009-10 academic year.

If you are interested, please fill out the attached application and return it to the Admissions Office receptionist, Vicky, in the lobby of Alumni Hall, or e-mail the completed form to Andrea Lichtman (Lichtman@alfred.edu), by Friday, March 13.

This can be either a Work-Study or non-Work-Study job. We look forward to meeting you!

Faculty: Please encourage your most engaging students to apply!

Program on Civil War Medicine

The next meeting of Baker's Bridge Historical Association will be held March 16 at 7:30 p.m. Our speaker will be Dr. Spencer Anabel on "The Practice of Civil War Medicine in 1864".

Dr. Anabel is a noted Civil War Historian and re-enactor. Much of the presentation will be done as a Civil War re-enactment of a local Doctor that served in the Civil War and was noted for his surgical proficiency in handling many casualties suffered by the soldiers.

The meeting will be held in our building, "The Meeting House", 5971 Hamilton Hill Road. President Laurie McFadden will preside over a short business meeting before the program and refreshments and fellowship time will follow.

The program is free and open to all; parking is at the rear of the building.
