Bergren Forum at Alfred University to Focus on 'Higher Education'
4/24/00

Alfred, NY -- Joe Gow, director of the Communication Studies Program at Alfred University and associate dean of AU's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, will talk about education and electronics at the next Bergren Forum on Thursday (April 27).His talk concludes the 1999-2000 season for the forum. "The Radical Potential for Higher 'E-Ducation'" is his topic.A graduate of Penn State University (bachelor's and doctorate) and the University of Alabama (master's), Gow concentrates his teaching in media theory and criticism.His awards include an Outstanding Faculty Leader Award from the Omicron Delta Kappa leadership honor society; two AU Ruth Berger Rubenstein Memorial Excellence in Teaching Awards, and a PA Association of Broadcasters Education Grant.The Bergren Forum, which is free and open to the public, is at 12:10 p.m. every Thursday in Nevins Theater in Powell Campus Center. The audience is encouraged to bring lunch; coffee and tea are free. The weekly event, sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, will resume in the fall.