Former art instructor Cirillo opens exhibit in Maine
10/10/19

Sandi Cirillo, who previously taught undergraduate and graduate classes in Alfred University's School of Art and Design, has opened an exhibition at River Arts in Damariscotta, ME.

The exhibition, “Diversity: A Collection of Fiber Art and Solar Plate Etchings,” opened this week at the West Gallery and will remain on view through Thursday, Oct. 16.

Story on the exhibition opening.