Dr. Cormack to step down as engineering dean

With sincere regret, and a great appreciation for his service to the University, I have accepted Dr. Alastair N. Cormack's resignation as dean of the Inamori School of Engineering at Alfred University, effective June 30, 2009. Dr. Cormack, who has served as dean of the School of Engineering for the past six years, is stepping down from his administrative position to devote more time to his teaching, research and scholarship.

-- Dr. Suzanne Buckley, provost

Off-Campus-Living Forum

For students who wish to move off campus next year and have met the 3-year residency requirement, there is a mandatory meeting.

The meeting is on Tuesday, Feb. 10 from 5:15 p.m. until 6:15 p.m. in Olin 302.

Come find out the "ins and outs" of looking for off-campus housing, as well as tips on Citizenship and becoming a new member of the Alfred community.

A video will be shown featuring a panel of experts including a local realtor, residents, and community leaders. The Dean of Students will be on hand to answer questions.

'Drawing With Chalk' Screening with Filmmakers

Film synopsis:

Jay and Matt were once wide-eyed, would-be rock stars, eager to leave their hometown and head for the big city and never look back. After 15 years of struggling to get a record deal in NYC, they find themselves back in their small working class hometown, dreaming of what might have been. Now, at 40 years old, they're out to give it one more shot. While Matt struggles with personal demons and a fear of being too old, Jay is ultimately faced with having to make a choice between his artistic dreams and his responsibility to his wife and 5-year-old son.

Some scenes filmed in Hornell with local actors

There will be a Q&A after the screening

Nevins 8 p.m. Saturday 2/7
