Alfred in Florence

Drawing Florence: City as subject

This course will invite you to investigate the historic background and contemporary significance of Florence in relation to its art, architecture and culture. This five-week, mixed-media drawing course will teach students how to explore this extraordinary location as a subject, placing themselves simultaneously in a historical, geographic, and experiential context, through sensory observation and the development of a visual and written travelogue. Each student will engage in the production of a series of drawings that will reflect their individual experiences and research of Florence.

Instructor: Angie To

This study abroad opportunity can be used as studio credit to fulfill your Upper-level drawing requirement.

Application Deadline: March 1

Study Art in Florence

May 15-June 26

Alfred University and American University In cooperation with SACI

For applications or more information e-mail: pvisscher@alfred.edu

Coursework includes a three-credit studio elective

Class Rings for Sale!

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 19 & 20, 2008, from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. a Balfour representative will be available in the Powell Campus Center Lobby for purchase of official class rings.

The rings, both traditional style and signet, are uniquely symbolic of Alfred University and a classy way to show pride in your AU connection.

The traditional style ring has a purple stone circled by Alfred University 1836. The Fiat Lux is on one side of the ring and the Steinheim is on the other. The signet style bears our seal, the Fiat Lux on the top.

Both rings can be personalized with class year, degree, engraving on the inside band and choice of metals and finish.

Eligibility for acquiring the ring includes second semester sophomores through graduate students and alumni.

Rings will be presented at the Official Ring Presentation Ceremony on April 27, 2007 at 3 p.m. at the Fasano Welcome Center. Family and friends are welcome to attend.

The rings are on display in the Alfred University Bookstore.
