Important Dates for Fall Semester Bills

All Student Account Bills for Fall 2009 semester will be available on CASHNet during the first week of July. Bills will no longer be mailed to your home address! As soon as the Fall 2009 bill is produced, you and the authorized users that you set up in CASHNet will be notified by e-mail. E-mail is the official form of communication for all activity, so please keep your e-mail account cleaned out over the summer so you'll receive the billing notice.

The due date for your Fall '09 Tuition Bill is Wednesday, Aug. 5, 2009. Put this date on your calendar! Holds will be placed on unpaid balances after that date, and unless you have made previous arrangements with the Student Accounts Office you will not be allowed to make registration changes, receive a transcript, or return to campus until the balance is paid.

For more information on the CASHNet system, click on the link below:

AU students 'in the LOOP'

Alfred University is participating (for the third year in a row) in the LOOP Video Art Festival in Barcelona, Spain. LOOP is the annual meeting point for video art professionals based on the triple format of Festival, Fair and discussion Panels. LOOP Festival presents the work of over 800 artists at many different venues in Barcelona's city center and was first held in 2003 in response to the need to define the current status of videoart, but also in order to explore possible future steps that would help establish this new discipline.

The screening will take place May 28th at noon.

Participating students include: Chris McDaniel, Colleen

Keough, Elena Grajek, Gia Michael, Jason Bernagozzi, Joe Bigley, Lauren Graves, Moyi Zhang, Stephen Rooney, Terese Longva, and Woody Packard.

This year's selection was curated by: Nicole Rademacher, new media artist (MFA 2008); Stephanie McMahon, assistant professor (BFA 1998); and Victoria Bradbury, new media artist (MFA 2009).

Family Concert: Sing a Story-Read a Song with Nan Hoffman

Saturday, May 16 at 10:30 a.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library in Wellsville

Nan Hoffman treats us to a concert for all ages to celebrate our creativity and the warm spring world. Music, particularly folk music, can give us clues to our past, nature and the environment, and the many ways people live, work and play. Be ready to stimulate your imagination and participate in this family concert.

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to everyone.

'I Could Stay ... Forever, ... Arlington National Cemetery'

Speaker: Craig Braack, Allegany County Historian
Tuesday, May 19 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville

The grounds of Arlington National Cemetery are considered among the most sacred, honored, and revered soils in America. Join Craig Braack in this illustrated program as he discusses how its creation is one of the most ironic and tragic stories in American history. The library-sponsored lecture is free and open to everyone.
