Lyceum: The 21st Century -- When is it going to get here?

The Lyceum will be meeting this week, despite what anyone may have told you. As usual, we'll be meeting in the McNamara Room in Powell at 3:20 p.m. on Friday.

This week our topic will be:
The 21st Century -- When is it going to get here?

For years we've read about fascinating upcoming developments in the 21st century. Now that we've arrived, where's the world peace, flying cars, an end to sickness and hunger, and vacations on the moon?

Come on down to obey the turtle and feed your brain!

Become a Tour Guide! Show off AU!

Do you have a dynamic personality? Do you love talking about all the great things AU has to offer? Do you want to be an integral part of the recruiting process? Then apply to be a tour guide!

When we ask incoming freshmen why they chose Alfred, many say "I knew I wanted to come to AU after my campus tour - it just felt right!" We in Admissions know that a great campus tour with an excellent tour guide is critical to our success. We will be hiring tour guides for the 2008-09 academic year.

If you are interested, please fill out the attached application and return it to the Admissions Office receptionist, Vicky, in the lobby of Alumni Hall by Tuesday, March 18. This can be either a work-study or non-work-study job. We look forward to meeting you!

***Faculty: Please encourage your most engaging students to apply!***

Summer School Registration Begins March 17

Summer School registration will begin Monday, March 17. The Summer School Schedule Booklet including course information, registration instructions, housing contract and other details will be available at the Student Service Center, the Mail Room and the Office of Summer Programs by Friday, March 14. This information, including a PDF version of the Booklet, can also be found on the Summer School Web site.

Summer School consists of two six-week sessions along with special one, two, three or four-week short-term courses. Summer Session I will begin Monday, May 19. Summer Session II starts Monday, June 30.

A preliminary summer course list is attached, but please understand that additional courses will be added and course changes will be made before Summer School begins. The purpose of this list is to provide you with early information so you can begin planning your summer.

Complete summer course information is accessible in Banner.

Questions concerning Summer School registration may be directed to the Student Service Center (871-2123) or the Office of Summer Programs (871-2612, summerpro@alfred.edu). If you have questions about art courses, please contact Beth Woodworth at 871-2412, whritebr@alfred.edu.

Book Signing for Haps and Mishaps

Carol "CB" Burdick, part-time faculty member in the AU English Department, has published a paperback, "Haps & Mishaps," a collection of many of her columns which have appeared in The Alfred (NY) Sun.

CB will be signing copies of her book at Hair Care, 15 N. Main St., Alfred, on Friday, March 14, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m., and Saturday, March 15, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Profits from book sales will go to the Alfred Food Pantry. Visitors are also asked to bring an item for a food basket.

Rob Price, editor of the Bath (NY) Courier, writes, "These finely chiseled essays offer vivid representations of Carol Burdick's natural world, ranging from a reedy beagle in search of a free lunch to an antique bed loaded with memories; from a doomed road trip through Naples (NY) to the ups and downs of operating a wood-burning stove."
