Global Awareness Roundtable - Japan

Date: Wed., Feb 10

Time: 7:00 p.m. - 8:00pm

Place: Knight Club

Sayaka Matsue, an exchange student from Ristumeikan University, Kyoto, Japan, will join us in talking about "Shukatsu"("job hunting" in Japanese) in Japan

While Sayaka talks about college women's job hunting in Japan, Dr Yatani will talk about "Japan in the 1980s and the first decade of the 21st century": in other words, the country of "a rising sun" around when our current college students were born and the country of "the lost 20 years" during which it faced the serious economic downturn. Although its economic aspect of the country is "negative" as best symbolized by the current Toyota trouble, some of the cultural aspects have been rather "blooming" in the us as best represented BY Anime, Manga, Haiku, Tea and Tea Ceremony, Zen, among others.
