'The Importance of Being Earnest' On Tonight!

"The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde romps through the silly behaviors of the late 19th century English upper class, where they hide their identities, carelessly tell secrets, and foolishly and occasionally leave a baby in a hand basket at Victoria Station.

The play runs Wednesday - Saturday, April 14 - 17, 8 p.m. nightly in CD Smith III Theatre. For tickets / reservations, please visit the Performing Arts Box Office (link below), e-mail performs@alfred.edu or call 607.871.2828.
