Public Speaking: Overcome your fears

For the vast majority of people, giving a speech is in the top five of major fears. Here's your chance to learn how to deal with your nerves, create an organized speech, and gain some advice on how to deliver with confidence. The Gift of Gab: A Workshop on Presentation Skills will be offered at the Women's Leadership Center on Thursday April 29th from 2:30 to 3:30. The event is free and open to the public. The presenter is Dr. Julia Overton-Healy, director of the WLC, who taught public speaking and presentation skills for over 15 years.

SUNY Lifesaver CPR-AED Training

Tuesday, April 20, 2010 9:20 a.m.-12:10 p.m. Howell Hall - Upstairs

Limit: 6 participants per session

Fee: Students - $7 to cover the cost of the face mask; the course is free to all faculty and staff.

If you already have a face mask, bring it to the session. You may also wish to bring a pillow or blanket to kneel on.

We are inviting volunteers to attend and become certified in adult and child CPR and AED use. If you have already taken the course, now is a good time to recertify and refresh your skills.

This program is designed to comply with enactment of the State's AED Legislation and to train

University faculty, staff, and students in the skills of CPR and use of an AED.

This CPR/AED certification program has been approved by the NYS Department of Health. It is the equivalent to the American Red Cross and American Heart Association CPR/ AED programs.

For a schedule of training sessions please visit the EH&S Web site.

To pre-register or obtain more information please phone x3020 or e-mail perrydr@alfred.edu at the EH&S office in 117 Myers Hall.

You may download a copy of the CPR-AED training manual from our training Web page <http://people.alfred.edu/...>; just follow the instructions available online for unzipping the file.

Soliciting Nominations for Support Staff Council

The Support Staff Council is now accepting nominations for the 2010-11 school year in all areas. Anyone working as Support Staff is eligible to serve on the Council. Representatives and alternates are needed in all areas.

Deadline for nominations is Friday, April 16. Nominations are to be submitted to Lisa Sanford at sanford@alfred.edu. Please do not nominate current members whose terms are unexpired: Lisa Sanford, Janet Lynch, Mariann Freiner, and Jane Brown.

Once a slate of candidates has been formulated, ALL Support Staff will be asked to vote for a representative in their respective areas. Voting concludes on Friday, April 23.

The purpose of the Support Staff Council is to act as an advisory group to the University administration when the expertise of the Council members is sought to review and react to certain University policies which affect all support staff on the University's payroll (statutory and non-statutory), and to act as a liaison between those same support staff and the University administration.
