Right-to-Know Training (Hazcom)

All employees need to attend one session of Right to Know training (Hazcom) each year. Next session: Friday, March 28, 9-10:30 a.m., Nevins Theater, PCC. One more session has been added to this year's schedule: May 16.

All employees have the right to know the properties and potential safety and health hazards of substances to which they may be exposed. Such knowledge is essential to reducing the risk of occupational illness and injury.

Must preregister - call 2196 or 3020; or e-mail cartella@alfred.edu or perrydr@alfred.edu

Women of Influence: Women in International Trade

Join us in welcoming Deborah Wilkinson, Global Business Development Manager for Broward County Office of Economic Development, as she presents "Keeping Your W.I.T. About You: Lessons Learned from Women in International Trade".

Thursday, March 27 at 4 p.m., at the WLC.

As women move forward in the globalization of the U.S. and the world, support for women leaders internationally is essential. Substantive professional development, career enhancement, and networking are critical. Through her experiences in the world of international trade, Ms. Wilkinson has met women leaders from across the globe, including Ghana, India, Vietnam, China and Canada. She feels strongly that each of us has an important role to play in creating opportunities for women in our global economy. Come hear her views and learn from her experiences.

Film Screening with Accompanying Talk

"Alligator on the Zipper": Film screening with accompanying talk by the Producer and Director. Saturday, April 5 at 6:30 p.m. in Nevins Theater in the Powell Campus Center.

Women truck drivers aren't usually thought of as American folk heroes, yet the seven women portrayed in this documentary evoke the qualities of modern day cowboys. Courageous, tough and with a fierce love of freedom, they heed the call of the road that speaks to their independent spirit. The film is followed by a brief talk by Jessica Chornesky (Producer) and Ivo Stainoff (Director). Made possible by a generous contribution from Silk Road Transport, Arkport, NY.

Help Us Start a New Student Chapter of the CEC at Alfred U!

The Education Department is starting a new student chapter for the Council of Exceptional Children. The Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) is the largest international professional organization dedicated to improving educational outcomes for individuals with exceptionalities, students with disabilities, and/or the gifted.

CEC advocates for appropriate governmental policies, sets professional standards, provides continual professional development, advocates for newly and historically underserved individuals with exceptionalities, and helps professionals obtain conditions and resources necessary for effective professional practice.

We will be holding an organizational meeting on Wednesday March 26 at 6:30 p.m. in room 228 in Meyers Hall.

If you have any questions or would like more information, you can visit the CEC Web site at the link below, or e-mail eml3@alfred.edu. All interested are invited to attend - we are looking forward to seeing you!

Women's Leadership Academy - Apply Today

Join Us on A Journey!

Leadership is a journey. Few of us are born leaders, and the Women's Leadership Academy is not intended for those few who have (or think they have) mastered the skills of leadership.

The Academy is a learning community where through collaboration and common effort we explore the meaning of leadership, investigate ways in which gender may or may not influence leadership, and create opportunities to enhance our leadership skills.

Interested? First-Year and Sophomores apply by Monday, April 7. Contact us at wlc@alfred.edu or 607.871.2971 if you have questions or would like an application. The application is also linked below.

WLA is more than a series of events, it's a network of women who help each other succeed!

AAA Offered to AU Employees

AAA is being offered to Alfred University employees as an option when booking business travel arrangements. Employees are not required to use this service, and it should be noted that there are no membership fees involved when booking University-related travel.

Please take a look at the attachment of the AAA overview. Please note that these are informational sessions so come during the hour slot - you don't have to be there at the beginning of the hour.

In an effort to explain the role AAA can take when making travel arrangements, University employees are invited to attend any of the four (4) informational sessions that will be held on Tuesday, March 25. These sessions will take place in the Kenyon-Allen-Davis room located on the second floor of the Powell Campus Center. Each session will last approximately one hour with sessions beginning on the hour at 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. Informational handouts will also be available during the sessions.

If you are unavailable on the 26 to attend one of the sessions but are interested in learning how the AAA travel program may be of assistance to you, please contact Sue Peck at 871-2260.
