NYC show exhibitors announced

I am pleased to announce the graduates who will be exhibiting their work in Profile 2010: The School of Art & Design at Alfred University, to be held June 9-16 at 300 W. 22nd St. in New York City, thanks to the generosity of Trustee Michele Cohen and Marty Cohen. Gallery hours each day, except Sunday, June 13, will be 11 am. -6 p.m.

An opening reception will be held from 6-9 p.m. Wednesday, June 9.

MFA degree recipients include: Giselle Hicks and Brian Tyler, ceramics; Jason Bernagozzi and Moyi Zhang, electronic integrated arts; and Sarah Hoitsma and Joanna Manousis, sculpture.

Our BFA graduates who will be exhibiting are: Laura Bettina, Allison Craver, Alexander Contino, Katherine Coughlin, Maxwell Davis, Amanda Fazzino, Olivia Getkowski Arthur Guilford, Elizabeth Helfer, Anne Mills, Sarah Nikitopoulos, James Pastore, Amelia Patsy, Sondra Perry, Steven Randall, Sarah Roberts, Jonathan Sudler, Kaye Waltman, Alex Williams, and Thomas Wulf.

I want to express my sincere appreciation to the faculty of the School of Art & Design for helping us to make the difficult decisions about the work to be included in Profile 2010. As the name implies, we intend the show to be a sampling of some of the fine work done by all our graduates this year. Our selections reflect the range of art practice within the School, and were selected to be representative of the quality our students produce.

I want to thank the exhibitors for allowing us to show their work in New York City, and I again want to express my sincerest appreciation to Michele and Marty Cohen for their generous support that allows us to showcase the work of our graduates to a broader audience.

-- Dr. Mary Drach McInnes, interim dean, School of Art & Design

Concert: Seneca Junction Chorus - Barbershop Singing

Thursday, June 3 at 7 p.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville

The Seneca Junction Chorus (SJC), founded in 1998, is a 25-member men's a cappella group based in Salamanca. The SJC has performed at a variety of events around the Twin Tiers. Although its primary focus is on music in the "barbershop style," th group also sings a repertoire from a wide variety of genres, including religious/spiritual, patriotic, classic show tunes, and contemporary music.

Also performing will be the chapter quartet, 22nd Time. The Chorus belongs to the Seneca Land District of the Barbershop Harmony Society, and it recently placed second at the fall convention.

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to everyone.
