Campus Smoke Test

On Tuesday, June 8 the village will be conducting a smoke test for the campus sewer system. It is possible that smoke may be seen on campus grounds and in buildings.

It is also possible that a smoke alarm in a building may be activated. If that occurs, please exit the building as you normally would and contact the Heating Plant.

Thank you for your cooperation during this test.

Village Hall Piano Dedication Recital

Come enjoy a musical afternoon to celebrate the successful conclusion of the Piano Project. On Sunday, June 13, the Sunday of AU's Alumni Weekend, the Piano Project will have the official inauguration of the 1900 Strick and Zeidler piano. The musical program will start at 4 p.m.

Performers include Steve Crandall who has agreed to sing and play Irving Berlin's "I Love a Piano" as well as another piece or two. Soprano Jewel Buckwalter will sing an aria and a contemporary piece. Michaela Stone will play a beautiful flute solo by Faure accompanied by Laurel Buckwalter. Pianists Anna Grossman, Diane Straight, Lois Dungan, Peter O'Connor, and Bernie Nordoff will perform ragtime, classical and jazz pieces. It should be a wonderful afternoon of music, complete with refreshments.

The dedication plaque designed by Craig Prophet will be unveiled, and the generous donors who raised the $17,000 needed for rebuilding, refinishing, shipping and tuning the piano will be thanked. Slides of the restoration process will be shown; refreshments will be served.

It is not too late to join the fun. Contact the Chair of the Piano Project Laurel Buckwalter at 587-8090 if you are interested. Any style is acceptable: classical, ragtime, sacred, jazz, popular. Solo or ensemble is great.

Allegany County Office for the Aging Needs Advocates

An Ombudsman Training sponsored by the Allegany County Office for the Aging will be held in Belmont, at Saint Philip's Episcopal Church on Tuesday-Thursday, June 22, 23, 24, and Monday-Wednesday, June 28, 29 and 30, 2010 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Those who wish to become state-certified Ombudsmen must attend all training sessions.

Ombudsmen are needed as advocates for the frail elderly living in Adult Care Homes and Nursing Homes in Allegany County. Through friendly visits with residents, Ombudsman Volunteers make sure that resident concerns are heard, investigated, and resolved.

Ombudsmen assist residents with concerns regarding care, finances, food service, administrative policies, medical services, suspected neglect, mistreatment or abuse, and personal problems.

The NY Certified Training Program will help you understand the role of the Ombudsman and the needs of the elderly in long-term care facilities. Highlights of the training include programs on complaint handling by Deana Prest, NYS Ombudsman; Understanding Alzheimer's Disease and Dementias by Julie Schoenecker of the Alzheimer's Association; the role of the regulator, Don Guglielmi, NYS Department of Health; the survey process by Richard Scafetta, NYS Department of Health; criminal prosecution of patient abuse and neglect by Tom Scheif, Office of the NYS Attorney General; as well as local presenters and tours of local facilities.

There is no charge for the training and lunch and snacks will be provided. If this program sounds interesting to you, please call Lynn Oyer at the Office for the Aging at 866-268-9390. You may attend the training without being obligated to serve as a volunteer. After the training, Lynn will meet with you to determine your interest and whether or not this is a good volunteer job fit.
