We have scheduled Myers and Seidlin for 9 a.m. and Kruson for 11 a.m.. The duration of each shutdown is estimated to be two hours, however unforeseen problems could extend or shorten this shutdown.

Jewish High Holy Days

Soon it will be the season of the Jewish High Holy Days. Rosh Hashanah begins Wednesday evening, Sept. 8 and runs through Friday, Sept. 10. Yom Kippur is Friday evening, Sept. 17 and Saturday, Sept. 18.

Some observant students may not attend classes. Some students may wish to go home for the holidays and might ask for some concessions. Professor Greil, adviser to Hillel, will advise students to observe the holidays according to their conscience. He will advise them to request any special consideration in advance, to be responsible for the days' work, and to make arrangements to complete any work missed.

Professor Greil hopes his colleagues will accommodate the students in this conflict of calendars. These arrangements are consistent with University policies regarding religious observances for students, faculty, and staff.
