Friday Night Hikes

Something new for faculty, staff, and students who love the outdoors and moderate to vigorous exercise, we will meet at the Career Development Center this Friday, Jan. 14, at 5 p.m. Headlamps and snowshoes are not required, but are strongly recommended.

This week we will hike the Pine Hill Trails which should take less than 60 minutes. Future hikes will be in and around Alfred on State and private (with permission) lands.

Tai Chi Workshop

Tai Chi Master Kai Hu from China University of Geosciences (Wuhan) is coming to Alfred in the spring semester and will have a two-month workshop of Tai Chi. It will explore the traditional Chinese exercise of Tai Chi and provide for the development of basic skills and techniques that lead toward an integration of the mind-body-spirit trilogy.

The workshop will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. every Monday and Tuesday starting Jan. 17 at the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center. It is open to the public and it is free.

What's on your AU experiences 'bucket list'?

A recent mainstream movie popularized the idea of having a "bucket list" of things to see and do before you die. Well, we're not going to go quite that far, but we're looking for your ideas to pass along to new and current AU students about experiences they should have and places they should go before leaving campus.

Several current students are working on their own list to pass along to incoming freshmen but we thought alumni, faculty/staff would provide a complementary perspective.

Please send your lists to Debbie Clark at clarkde@alfred.edu by Monday, Jan. 24, 2011.
