Help define the future of Western New York

The Western New York Regional Economic Development Council has been charged by Gov. Andrew Cuomo and Lt. Gov. Robert Duffy with developing a development plan for the Western New York region, which includes Allegany, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Erie, and Niagara counties.

President Edmondson, who is a member of the Council, will host a community meeting at 6 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8, in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center. The public is invited to make suggestions about the elements of the regional development plan being prepared by the Council.

The Council is also conducting an on-line public participation survey to obtain residents' opinions about how we want to define the course of economic recovery in the region. If you wish to offer your opinion, please fill out the survey. (Link below.)

It is important for the Council to hear from a wide cross-section of the region, so your participation in the meeting and/or the survey is important.
