Arms on the Darkest Day

When Alfred meets St. Lawrence at Canton in this week's gridiron contest, northern New York will be the scene of a battle between two teams which have been victorious in the majority of their games, and several powerful teams have been met. The odds, however, are slightly in the St. Law-rence side, and a more glaring one of the record of the scarlet eleven will show up. The men from Old Rival By 21-3 Score.

The play in the second half will be an effort to drive the ball behind the line of scrimmage for a touchdown. The Massachusetts team has been victorious in the majority of their games, and several powerful teams have been met. The odds, however, are slightly in the St. Law-rence side, and a more glaring one of the record of the scarlet eleven will show up. The men from Old Rival By 21-3 Score.

CERAMIC SOCIETY MEETS

The Students Branch of the American Ceramic Society held their first meeting of the year last Tuesday night in Babcock Hall. The meeting was the largest ever held by the society although many of the members were absent. Professor Bisans explained the subject of the Society to the Presidents and urged them to give their support and co-operation. The interest of the Branch is to help the students in Ceramics. The election of officers for the com-
