

VARSITY TACKLES URSINUS SATURDAY NIGHT

Final Court Game Of Season
With Powerful Pennsylvania
Team

PURPLE QUINT PRIMED FOR HARD STRUGGLE

On Saturday evening at Academy Hall the purple and gold Varsity quint will tackle the fast five from Ursinus College in the final game of the season. The Pennsylvanians are reported to have a powerful court machine, and Alfred will be forced to show better form than has been exhibited in the last two games if victory be secured. Ursinus takes the court at Mansfield on Friday night against Coach Kichline's strong Normal College team, and the players will arrive here Saturday afternoon.

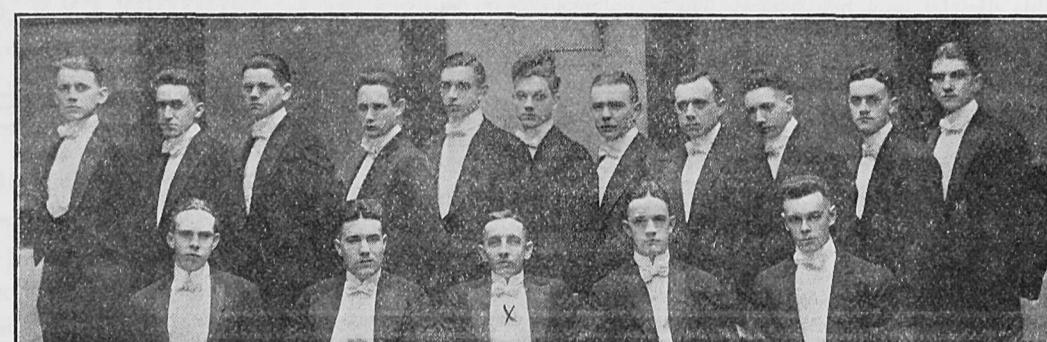

While the Varsity has passed a rather disappointing season, losing nine out of twelve games played, there is still hope of victory in the Ursinus contest. It is well known that many reasons have contributed to the ill-luck of the purple this year. With a green team on a small and strange court at Hamilton, Coach Wesbecher's men were forced to taste defeat in the opening collegiate contest by an overwhelming score at the hands of the powerful quint of Colgate. Then in quick succession, Buffalo and Thiel appeared. The former, one of the fastest collegiate teams in the east, triumphed by a 29-7 score, while Thiel won a bitter battle by a single point. Since then Alfred has had variable luck, but a majority of the games have been chalked on the wrong side of the ledger.

Banks, one of the veterans on whom purple supporters depended for the bulk of the scoring, has been incapacitated during the greater part of the year. E. Campbell was for a time ineligible, while Holley has been troubled with a bad ankle. Ford did not appear for practice until after the Christmas recess, and was absent for more than a week while attending a Ceramic convention at Columbus. B. Witter did not return to college until the second term, and had had little practice previous to that time. R. Witter, Hinchliff, Ahern, and R. Campbell are the only members of the squad who have been in condition to play in every game, with the exception of Lanphere, who started the season at center.

The fact that the team has not been a winning combination is not surprising, especially when the fact is considered that but two members of the squad are upperclassmen. Most of Alfred's basketball timber seems to lie in the freshman and sophomore classes, and the greatest fault is that the men simply lack experience. Another year, the team should exhibit signs of real form.

But there is one more game to play this season. It is at home, and the advantage is naturally with the purple. Why cannot Alfred complete the year with a victory? It can be done, and it must be done. Coach Wesbecher has been working hard every afternoon with the Varsity men in order to prime them for the final

KLAN ALPINE MEN IN THIRD ANNUAL BANQUET

Alfred's Newest Fraternity Steps Into Limelight

FINE INTER-FRATERNAL SPIRIT SHOWN

Soft lights, a dreamy waltz, a tired but satisfied crowd in full-dress wending their way out of Firemens Hall and the Third Annual Banquet and Ball of Klan Alpine Fraternity passed on into the annals of Alfred's history.

The night of March 5th will long be remembered by all who were present as one of the most enjoyable nights yet witnessed in Alfred.

As the town clock was striking six, the reception line formed in the reception room of Firemens Hall and the guests were made acquainted with each other, with the members, and with the Alumni of the Fraternity. In a few minutes everyone was seated in the spacious dining room and Mrs. Post, one of the best of Alfred's caterers, and her corps of helpers, came into their own. The tables were tastefully decorated in green and white, while long streamers of the same colors, suspended over them, extended from end to end of the room. From each corner and from each side similar streamers ran to and from the three chandeliers in the center of the hall. Large vases of white carnations, placed in the center of each table added a homelike atmosphere which surrounded the congenial diners and helped to put everyone at his ease.

At the end of the banquet, the toastmaster, President Plank, introduced the first toast-maker David Robison '21, who represented the Fraternity. In his toast the speaker welcomed the guests and paid a fitting tribute to Mrs. King, the Klan Mother, who has been with the Klan sixteen years.

The next speaker, Miss Cynthia Hovey, extended to the Klansmen the appreciation of the guests and warned the men that Mother King was not to be monopolized by them alone.

"Mother King mothers the girls as well as you fellows" said Miss Hovey, "and we have a share in her as well as you."

Charles Stamm represented the Eta Phi Gamma, Oliver Ferry represented

the Delta Sigma Phi, and N. Contee Searles represented the Theta Gamma Fraternity. In response to the toastmaster these guests expressed their appreciation of this beginning of a new and better inter-fraternal spirit.

Prof. W. A. Titsworth, Prof. Joseph Seidlin, and Dean Paul E. Titsworth also added fitting and able toasts for the occasion.

When the banquet was concluded, the Klansmen and their guests ascended the stairs to the dance hall where Lake's Orchestra was waiting eagerly to start the "ball" rolling.

Many exclamations of delight and admiration came from the guests when they beheld the decorations. Everywhere the royal colors of Old A. U. were to be seen, while in the background the Lincoln green and russet grey, the Klan colors, gleamed through the maze of woven streamers and festoons of purple and gold, a fitting symbol of the ties which bind the Klan to its Alma Mater and the Klansmen to their Klan. A roof of gold and purple streamers canopied the whole hall, while a lattice-work of the same material covered the sides and joined the network of the roof, giving the whole a cozy and pleasing effect.

The stage, too, came in for its share of decoration. Long bars of purple and gold extended from the ceiling of the stage to the floor and a fence of streamers which joined these bars prevented the orchestra from escaping in any direction. Below the footlights a large and beautiful Alfred banner greeted the eye of all as they entered the ball room and welcomed each guest as he made his ingress.

From the ridgepole of the gaily colored roof of streamers red, white, and blue balloons swung down in well-planned rows which set off the other decorations successfully and artistically. But why was that big basket of balloons hanging suspended from the center of the room? Everyone want-

ALFRED "SONGSTERS" PREPARING FOR LONG TRIP

Glee Club Will Invade York State And Jersey

TO APPEAR AT NEW YORK BANQUET

The sixteen men composing the Alfred College Glee Club have been finally chosen by competition from the student body for their superior singing ability and the blending quality of their voices, and on March 12th will leave Alfred on a two weeks' trip to eastern New York and New Jersey.

The trip will this year include the annual banquet of the New York alumni of Alfred University. This year the banquet will be held March 19th, at the Park Avenue Hotel. Lawrence Abbott, who was an intimate friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, will speak on "Reminiscences of Theodore Roosevelt." Pres. Boothe C. Davis, Dean P. E. Titsworth and Prof. Charles Binns will attend the banquet and are scheduled to speak.

The Glee Club will give concerts enroute to New York, at the following places: Addison, Painted Post, Oxford, Chester, Spring Valley, Great Kills, Staten Island, Atlantic Highlands and Lakewood, N. J.

The members of the Club are: Teal, Stamm, Barron, Conroe, Childs, Crofoot, Place, Ed Dougherty, Camenga, R. Dougherty, Davis, Burt, Volk, Jordan, Wingate, Colson. Prof. Ray W. Wingate is director and manager of the Club.

SENATE NOTES

The eighteenth regular meeting of the Student Senate was called to order March 2, 1921, by the President. A motion was carried to postpone the Third Assembly Dance, scheduled for March 12th, until next term. The Wee Playhouse plays were changed from March 17th to March 12th. The Freshmen girls were granted permission to go without their caps to the Ag Junior play, March 3d, and to the Eta Phi Gamma banquet, March 10th.

WEE PLAYHOUSE IN FIRST PUBLIC PRO- DUCTION

Little Theatre A Marvel of Its Kind

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS ON SAT- URDAY EVENING, MARCH 12

At the Wee Playhouse all is now in readiness for the initial performance in the new theatre. The three charming short plays which have been chosen for this event—Dunsany's "The Tents of the Arabs," the 47 Workshop's "Three Pils in a Bottle," and Labiche's "Spelling" the translations of Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, will be given on Saturday, March 12, at 8:30 P. M. The seating capacity of the little auditorium is however only about 150 and on this account the management has made arrangements to repeat its first bill in a matinee production on Monday, March 14 at 4 o'clock. Seats for both of these performances will go on sale at Ellis' drug store on Thursday at noon and will also be sold at the theatre for a half hour before the beginning of the plays. The prices are 50 and 75 cents. In common with the 47 Workshop at Harvard and many other small theatres the Wee Playhouse will observe the custom of closing its doors at the beginning of each act at all performances and of reopening them only at the conclusion of the act. This practice is necessitated by the dimensions of the theatre and all patrons are urged to be present promptly at the beginning of the program so as to secure places before the curtain rises. Everything possible has been done to make this little playhouse an attractive and pleasant home for the drama. The comfort of the spectators has not been overlooked and such things as the cloak room in the miniature lobby where wraps may be checked free of charge will, it is hoped, be appreciated by patrons. The production of the plays and their settings have been very carefully worked out in all details and it is expected that a good audience will see the results of this care on Saturday and Monday.

1922 KANAKADEA SOON TO APPEAR

ROYCROFTERS HARD AT WORK

The 1922 Kanakadea, the result of extended effort and vigor by the Junior class, is now nearing final stages. Up at East Aurora, N. Y., the Roycroft Print Shops have been busy for some time at this work. Just how soon it will appear has not been definitely stated, but the fact remains that at some time before exams, the Juniors will quietly sally forth for the annual publication banquet. It is said that the 1922 Kanakadea is, in many ways, a marked departure from the usual type. Some new devices have been instituted which are sure to bring forth a year book of real merit. The advent is eagerly awaited by students and faculty alike.

AG JUNIOR PLAY A BIG SUCCESS

"The Neighbors" Meets With Great Approval

WELL TRAINED AND SELECTED CAST

The Juniors of Agricultural Schoolably presented a clever comedy called "The Neighbors" last Thursday at Firemens Hall. The entertainment was planned for the benefit of the 1922 Kanakadea, and proved to be a big success in every way. The matinee was not so well attended as the evening performance, due to the numbers of students busy in afternoon classes and labs.

"The Neighbors," a one-act play by Zona Gale, depicted a succession of humorous and human scenes in the kitchen of Mis' Dianthy Abel. Mary Prentice took the part of Mis' Abel with much ease and poise, and Helen Chaffee had a good character part as Grandma. Mis' Elmira Moran, Mis' Trot and Ezra, who as neighbors "happened in" to talk with Mis' Abel, were well taken by Martha Tilden, Genevieve Button and Duane Anderson, respectively. The women folks, after some gossiping, planned a shower for a little orphan boy who was expected to come that evening to live with his aunt, Mis' Carry Elsworth. After the neighbors had collected a large amount of clothing and food supplies, Mis' Elsworth came in to announce that the boy could not come. The shower was not held, but the neighborhood had felt again the sacrificing spirit so common among simple, good hearted "folks." A romantic touch was added to the final scene when Peter, an awkward lad, well taken by Leland Rosier, overcame his bashfulness toward Inez, Mis' Abel's daughter, played by Lillian Martin.

All the parts were well chosen by Miss Bleiman, who coached the play. She also deserves the major part of praise for developing the production so successfully in a short time.

Before the play Miss Frances Witter rendered a piano solo and Miss Ruth Phillips sang. For about two hours following the show, Volk and Gibson furnished the inspiration for those who stayed to enjoy the dance.

The cast of the play was as follows:

Grandma	Helen Chaffee
Mis' Dianthy Abel	Mary Prentice
Ezra	Duane Anderson
Peter	Leland Rosier
Inez	Lillian Martin
Mis' Elmira Moran	Martha Tilden
Mis' Trot	Genevieve Button
Mis' Carry Elsworth	Jessie Gould

We desire to announce the marriage of Frank Blatergrau last week. The happy couple are living here at Alfred. Frank is a Federal Board student at school and is known colloquially as "Cement." We wish the happy pair all kinds of good luck. There is no question but that the union will bear up as strongly as Mr. Blatergrau's nickname.

Thursday morning Prof. Cone took charge of the chapel exercises and the surprise he gave us was in the form of an illustrated lecture by Prof. Bennehoff. The subject was a trip through Yellowstone Park, and the way he presented it was out of the ordinary. Instead of showing us the things as they came along, Prof. Bennehoff took up the formation of geysers from their origin up to the largest specimens in existence. It was the best lecture that we have heard in assembly this term and was greatly enjoyed by both student body and the faculty.

W. F. Midgeley spent the week-end at Rochester where he visited Mort Fox, who is at the Y. M. C. A. there. He says that Mort wants to be remembered to all the people at school.

The Federal Board Club is planning on a "get together" supper next week, and it is hoped that we will have Mr. Sullivan of the Rochester office down here with us. Mr. Sullivan has charge of this district, and has been here once before this year.

"Butch" Swanson explained to the student body the full meaning of the O. M. A. His definition of the Society was unique, and no one but our friend "Butch" could have handled it so well, and still impress upon the underclassmen the full meaning of the initials. "Butch" also told of some of the rules that were recently adopted, and explained that they not only applied to Frosh, but to anyone caught violating them. There was a short discussion by some of the students and remarks by Director Champlin. We wish to congratulate the O. M. A. for the efficient way they are maintaining the good conduct and morals of the students in Ag School.

KLAN ALPINE BANQUET AND BALL

ed to know this same thing but no information was forthcoming. Then the dance began. A calm, mellow light flooded the hall from the carefully screened jets and added a certain dignity to the dress suits and evening gowns which harmonized well with the decorations.

From the first notes of "Oh Boy" to the softer strains of "Au Revoir" the dance was a success. From the rollicking time of "Springtime" to the slow dreamy air of "Wyoming" Lake's Orchestra glided with the ease and grace which only real musicians can acquire.

Toward the close of the sixteenth dance, the orchestra played "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" and the bottom of the basket dropped out. The ball room was changed into a veritable fairyland. Gaily colored balloons drifted gently out of the basket and down among the dancers. The problem of the basket had been solved.

Too soon for all, the time-honored melody of "Home Sweet Home" drifted out over the hall and the Ball was ended. Silently and quietly the couples left the building. Once more the old town clock reigned supreme. It had ticked into eternity the closing moments of a long-to-be-remembered banquet and ball.

SOPH-FROSH GAMES

Both of the Sophomore basketball teams triumphed in their games against the Frosh, at the Academy last Wednesday night, the scores being 15-12 in the girl's game and 39 to 26 in the men's bout. The '24 teams played hard to win the laurels, but they were never in the lead. The Sophomores, however, had to exert all their strength and skill to keep ahead to the final whistle. Themen's quint representing '23 was formed from the Varsity squad, and showed better team work as the result of longer practice.

The Soph men's team has won two of the three games played, thus earning the underclass championship. The girls of the Soph and Frosh classes have one game each, so far. The deciding game in that series will be played soon.

These underclass contests should not be confused with the League games, from which the college Frosh emerged victorious.

game. Every student should be on hand Saturday night to cheer the men to victory. The line up which will start will include both Banks and Holley. R. Witter will probably be at center, with Ford at a forward, and B. Witter in a guard position. That is the strongest organization which Alfred has assumed this season, and the result should be effective.

FEDERAL BOARD MEN BANQUET

A little informal banquet of the Federal Board men of Alfred was held on the evening of March 9th in the "Students Lunch Room." Out of the twenty or more Federal Board men in attendance here, seventeen were present, not including two visitors from Rochester, Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Williams.

After a rather sumptuous repast the little party retired to a suite of rooms in the Rosebush block where business was discussed relative to the Federal Board interests here. Mr. Williams came here to place the students for the summer, and Mr. Sullivan, district supervisor, accompanied him. After matters had been arranged to the satisfaction of all, the conversation naturally drifted to the days when the boys were in France. Some rather interesting experiences came to light. Next year it is hoped that a regular banquet will be held at Alfred, and that there will be a larger number of Federal Board students to grace the festive board.

This week's edition of the Fiat Lux marks a change in the editorial staff. Due to his Ceramic work, and the many class activities in which he has been a participant, Editor Peck has deemed it fitting to transfer the editorial management of the paper to other hands. At a meeting of the Fiat board last Tuesday afternoon, he tendered his resignation to the members of the staff, and requested that a new editor be elected to office without unnecessary delay.

Mr. Peck has been a hard worker throughout the year, and has identified himself strongly in more branches of university activity than most students are aware. During the past football season, he won his Varsity letter as a guard on the purple eleven, and throughout the entire period of training, he was one of the few men on the squad who never missed a practice. It was really a big undertaking to keep the Fiat running smoothly, to maintain a creditable average in collegiate work, and to be an integral part of a football eleven. Peck did all of these things and he did them well. At the conclusion of the gridiron season, he issued one of the best copies of the Fiat that has come into existence since the inauguration of the weekly. Despite the fact that he sacrificed a week of his time to be at Meadville with an injured teammate, he carried on his Fiat work as ever.

During the winter term the Kanakadea campaign, the Junior theatricals, and many other things have interfered with his Fiat work, while collegiate tasks have spelled long hours in the ceramic laboratories. After careful consideration, and in justice to the Fiat and to himself, Mr. Peck arrived at the conclusion that his present duties should be somewhat lessened.

While he will no longer assume responsibility for the publication of the Fiat, Mr. Peck will remain on the staff as an associate editor, and will be able to contribute to these columns as often as his time permits. His experience enables him to give many helpful hints to the new editor, and he has promised to assist, in any way possible, the promotion of a bigger and better literary representation of Alfred University.

No college publication can be a perfect specimen of newspaper craft. Certain typographical and grammatical errors must be expected and tolerated. It is hoped, however, that the Fiat, under the new regime, will prove as capable and as readable an organ as it has been in times past.

Saturday night is to be a "record eve" in campus activities. The basketball game with Ursinus, the Wee Playhouse inaugural, and the Athletic Association movies, are events slated for that occasion. The game will begin promptly at six-thirty, and just an hour later the "little theatre" will display its wares. The movies at Firemens Hall are also called for eight-thirty. Down at Almond members of the Junior class will present a series of plays for Kanakadea benefit on this same evening. Yes, Alfred is going to spend a rather tumultuous Saturday night.

The Eta Phi Gamma fraternity will hold its annual banquet at the Hotel Sherwood, Hornell, on Thursday evening of this week. A large number of alumni are expected to be present for the occasion.

The Alfred Cafe, changing hands for the sixth time in four years, now introduces Mr. Andrew Dromazos of Hornell as proprietor. Mr. Dromazos has had much experience in the restaurant and candy business, and has already set out to make improvements in the "Student's Candy Shop and Lunch Room" which the Alfred Cafe will be called under the new regime. One of the added features of the new organization will be the installation of an electric piano or a victrola. This will, no doubt, be enthusiastically welcomed by the students.

Mr. Dromazos is connected with three other restaurants and candy kitchens, two being in Hornell and a third in Dansville. He has been most successful in previous business ventures, and his ready smile and courteous bearing should make many friends for him here. The business will be conducted along the same lines as before, except there will be a greater amount of fresh candies available to Alfred consumers.

While the faces of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, the former proprietors, will be missed in the community, a hearty welcome is extended to Mr. Dromazos, and there is no question but that he will find large interests in the problems of a college community.

Eleazer Barth '24, will act as trainer for the Varsity football and track men during the coming spring. Barth is pursuing a premedical course in college, and, having had previous experience in training work, has volunteered his services without expense. It is likely that rubbing tables will be placed in the field house, and at Academy Hall immediately after the Easter recess. Bruised and battered football men will be fortunate to come under the jurisdiction of Barth, as a competent trainer has long been needed here, and in days past men have been their own physicians for the most part.

Barth has shown excellent spirit in making this proposal, and his attitude is highly endorsed by Coach Wesbecher.

VARSITY LOSES AT ROCHESTER

On the Bausch and Lomb court at Rochester last Saturday evening the Varsity basketball quint lost out to the fast team of the Rochester College of Optometry by a score of 32-12. The game was hard fought throughout, but Rochester took a lead in the opening half that Alfred could not hope to overcome.

The purple five seemed somewhat dazed during the first few minutes of play, and Rochester caged several baskets from the floor before Alfred tallied a lone point from the foul line. The Rochester machinery was running smoothly, and by dint of excellent team play and accurate shooting, they kept steadily piling up the score. Alfred men presented a rather disorganized defense during the greater part of the opening period, and as a result the blue and white had many openings. The score at the end of the half was 22-4 in favor of the Rochester team.

Alfred began the final half with a determination to even things up as nearly as possible. For a few minutes it seemed that the purple would come from behind and outstrip their rivals, as three baskets were scored from the field before the Optometry men were aware of what had happened. But the temporary flash of form did not last, and Rochester scored ten times to eight by Alfred before the period was over.

For Rochester, Tombart, Robb, and Engel were the bright lights, while Hinchcliff, Witter, and Campbell were the best bets of the purple.

The line up and summary:

Alfred (12)	Rochester (32)
Hinchcliff	R. F.
E. Campbell	L. F.
Ford	Dugan
R. Witter	C.
B. Witter	Tombart
	R. G.

Field Goals: Engel 3; Dugan 5; Tombart 2; Robb 2; Wilson. R. Witter 3; E. Campbell; Hinchcliff. Foul goals: Dugan 6; E. Campbell 2.

Substitutions: R. Witter for Ford; R. Campbell for R. Witter; Ahern for B. Witter; Ford for R. Campbell.

MISS WEISEL, Y. W. C. A. SECRETARY, AGAIN VISITS ALFRED

From Thursday evening until Monday morning Miss Mary Weisel, secretary of the northeast district of the Y. W. C. A., was a welcome visitor to Alfred. During this annual visit she spent most of her time in conferences with the cabinets, committees and individual girls. The Y. W. cabinets of college and Ag School met with Miss Weisel Saturday afternoon and heard from her of the four Y. W. C. A. summer camps. College girls are workers and counselors in these camps, which are called Altamont (near Albany); Maqua, in Maine; Shadow Brook, in Connecticut; and Martha's Vineyard, on that island. Miss Weisel also made a strong appeal for a large Alfred delegation to the college Y. W. C. A. conference, which will be held at Silver Bay on Lake George, June 14 to 24th.

At a short meeting of the joint cabinets on Sunday afternoon, Miss Weisel presented the pitiable case of the European students. The cabinets voted to abandon the Robert College scholarship for this year and, instead, to make a drive for the destitute educational class throughout Europe.

The Christian Associations held a joint meeting Sunday night at Kenyon Hall, when Miss Weisel gave an interesting and inspiring address. She reviewed the work of the Y. W. and told of several leaders' conferences, held during the winter. The student Christian Associations of America, as members of the World's Christian Student Federation, are united in the drive for European relief. Most of Miss Weisel's talk dealt with this great Association activity.

The week-end spent at Alfred University, as the guest of the Y. W.'s, completes Miss Weisel's tour of the New York colleges. She will soon start from New York City on a similar trip through New England. The best wishes of Alfred's girls follow their field secretary in her wonderful work of service.
