New Student Arrival on Thursday

On Thursday, our new students and their families are arriving to campus, all heading for the Joyce & Walton Health & Wellness Center to check in. Please be prepared for longer lines at the traffic light and parking congestion as we welcome our new students, particularly between 7:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.

If you are on campus, wander around and say hello to the families dropping off their sons and daughters at their residence halls. It's wonderful to see the energy as our RAs, orientation guides, and football players all help families unpack their cars and welcome the new students.
