Don't be fooled by tricky SPAM!

Dear Campus Community,

As you have likely noticed the number of Spoofing/SPAM emails that ask you for your network username and password and/or with malware attachments have become increasingly sophisticated over the last several months. Some of the more sophisticated tactics include:

- * Posing to have been sent from the ITS Helpdesk
- * The appearance of being sent by a University employee (and even the University President)
- * Using University branded images and logos
- * Using IT/Helpdesk language

Any email (or email that links to a Web form) that asks for your username and password and/or contains an unknown attachment should be treated with extreme caution. ITS will never ask directly through email for your username and password. And there is only one notable, but extraordinarily rare occurrence when we will ask you to input your username and password into a Web form...during computer deployment, only once, every three years.

The best tactic to avoid being tricked by these emails is to STOP, and immediately contact the ITS Helpdesk either through a phone call (607.871.2222) or forwarding the suspect email to Helpdesk@alfred.edu. We can directly assist you in verifying that the email is fraudulent. Be extraordinarily suspicious of any email that asks for authentication credentials or ANY protected private information. Always verify the authenticity of such requests by contacting the ITS Helpdesk.

Singing in a choir has been proven to lift depression. Join AU Chorus today

Singing in a choir has been shown to help with depression and anxiety. (If you don't believe me I'd be glad to send you some articles). Help relieve the stress of school by joining the AU Chorus. University Chorus is a 2 credit course satisfying 1/2 of the "Arts" general education requirement. The group meets on Monday evenings from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. when students are joined by members of the faculty and community and on Wednesday from 5:20 p.m. - 6:50 p.m. which is just for students. No previous choral/singing experience is necessary. The University Chorus will perform with a Chinese Orchestra (yes, we'll sing in Chinese!) in November and a seasonal concert in December. We will also be working on the "Theresa Mass" by Haydn for performance in March with small orchestra, so a two semester commitment is not required, but preferred. (It also satisfies the whole "Arts" (C) credit. For more information, contact Professor Luanne Crosby fclarke@alfred.edu.

AU Peer Education Program

Are you a student interested in promoting health and well-being to your peers?

If so, the Peer Education program may be a right fit for you!

Peer Educators are students that encourage other students to consider the behaviors, attitudes, and actions that guide their lives. Peer Educators are student volunteers who promote health and wellness alongside the supervision of the Health & Wellness Coordinator. Peer Educators are concerned about people their own age and are willing to take a stand about issues that affect young people.

AU has two types of Peer Educators:

Wellness Reps: Assist with health and wellness related programming focused on alcohol and substance abuse prevention, sexual health, fitness, nutrition and mental health promotion. Wellness Reps are trained to work alongside the Health & Wellness Coordinator to provide programming in the Residence Halls, in the classroom, and with campus-wide events.

Sexual Assault Prevention Peer Educators: Assist in the development and implementation of programs and initiatives that promote healthy relationships, positive communication, bystander intervention and consent. Sexual Assault Prevention Peer Educators are trained to provide programming in the Residence Halls, in the class room, and with campus-wide events.

Peer Educators have the chance to:

- Assume a leadership role
- Make a positive difference in the lives of friends and peers
- Build their resume
- Receive professional training
- Freedom to create model prevention programs

If you are interested in becoming a peer educator or want more information please visit: <https://my.alfred.edu/wel...> You can also contact Amanda Khodorkovskaya at khodorkovskaya@alfred.edu

Training to become a Wellness Rep will take place on September 9 and training to become a Sexual Assault Peer Educator will take place on September 10.

Article for Parents E-Newsletter

The Office of Parent Programs will be creating and sending out an E-Newsletter to parents; my hope is to have the first edition go out around the end of September; first of October. I will be adding important dates, calendar of monthly events and any news happening around campus. If you'd like to submit an article or important date for an event taking place between October 1 and December 15 or any updates from opening, reminders to parents, etc., please submit them to me no later than September 22 via email at dunganbj@alfred.edu. I'm looking to have a very exciting, full newsletter to share with parents that will include reminders and information about what is taking place (or has taken place that highlights student groups or individuals) here on campus. Please contact me if you have any questions. Thank you in advance for your participation.

"Take the Leading Role!" Performing Arts & Leadership Conference

Come join WLA graduate Elisabeth Estep and the JLC for a day of learning, leading, and free food at the Take the Leading Role Performing Arts & Leadership Conference!

What is it?

A day devoted to learning about how skills commonly used in the performing arts (dance, theater, and music) can be utilized to further hone your leadership skills and advance your future career path--even if that career path is not in the performing arts! The conference will consist of three main parts: attendees will participate in three workshop sessions in the disciplines listed above and learn how these disciplines can be used to further develop leadership skills; they will sit in on a panel discussion of individuals who will speak to how they utilize performing arts skills in their current, non-performing arts careers; and attendees will receive a free catered dinner with additional networking opportunities. Workshop leaders and panel members will include AU faculty/staff, AU alumni, and other performing artists from across the country.

What kind of workshops will be offered?

Workshops will include:

- Using Theater Techniques for Public Speaking
- Leadership Personality Typing & Dance
- The Psychology of Music & How to Take Advantage of Its Benefits
- Improving Leadership with Improv

...and many more!

Why should you attend?

- A free catered dinner is included!
- It's a great resume/CV builder!
- You'll be able to meet other AU students, faculty, and staff members who share your interest in the performing arts
- Learn and network with musicians, dancers, and actors from our region and across the country

How do I register?

Attendees may register on the day of the conference from 12:30 p.m. on in Olin. For additional information, questions, or concerns, please contact Elisabeth Estep (EME3@alfred.edu). RSVP-ing via AU Connect is recommended.

We look forward to seeing you there!
