THE "Birthday of the Infanta" and "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife" Are Much Enjoyed

FRESHMEN GIVE TWO UNUSUAL PLAYS CREDIBLY

"The Birthday of the Infanta" and "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," were presented in this week's entertainment given at Firemens Hall, Saturday evening.

The footlights were hissed at the opening of "The Birthday of the Infanta" while the audience applauded the splendid acting and reading of the entire play. The music by the band was given here. The music by the band was a most pleasing feature of the entertainment, and proved a most creditable performance.

The casts of both "The Birthday of the Infanta," and "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," were well chosen and the players did their utmost to please their audience. The music was rendered by the second class orchestra, under the direction of Frank W. Gibson.

The casts of both "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," and "The Birthday of the Infanta," were together on the stage, and included seniors, sophomores, juniors, and freshmen. The music was rendered by the second class orchestra under the direction of Frank W. Gibson.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

E. Campbell '24 was elected 1923 Interscholastic Track Manager at the last meeting of the Athletic Council. Other business included the awarding of track letters and numerals. It was voted that minor A's be given to track men winning at least one point and that minor A's be given to those winning both.

BRICK NOTES

Miss Lois Bryson spent Monday on a business trip to Alfred and returned to Hornell late Monday night.

STAY!

There are hundreds of reasons why every student should stay for Commencement and the final scenes of 1922's college career. Why should you be sorry if you leave early, so STAY.

Every student should stay for Commencement time. Until an Alfred student returns home to a deserted campus. You will always know his Alma Mater.

The University has recently pur- chased Monday evening by the Fresh- men of Rochester Theological Semi- nary, after which the very successful and the gay crowd of dancers made the night's end. The excellent music by Merriman's eight-piece or- chestra was one of the most successful exercises of the year.

A party of V. M. members from the college co-operated with Secretary S. L. Lester of Wellsville in con- ducting a few days here visiting his par- ents. Saturday.

Many Alumni at Summer School

More alumni of Alfred University are expected to attend this summer SESSION than have ever before gather- ed for the six weeks' course. Dr. Thitrow, director of summer school, has heard from many graduates, who intend to return to summer school. All students of the summer school are being attracted by the in- vitation of Mrs. Ada B. Seidlin on the campus.

If you don't believe in co-operation, just observe what happens when one wheel comes off.
