Red Cross Blood Drive Sept. 26

Residence Life at Alfred University is hosting a Red Cross Blood Drive from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m., Tuesday, September 26 in the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center. Faculty, staff, students, and community members are invited to participate.

Appointments are appreciated but walk-ins are welcome. To schedule an appointment go to: www.redcrossblood.org or sign up for a time in person in either the Powell Campus Center on Wednesday 9/13 and or Ade Dining Hall on Friday 9/15 from 12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

Also check out the Red Cross's new system: RapidPass. It can help save time during your next blood or platelet donation. For the best donation experience, we recommend you schedule an appointment, then complete your RapidPass at www.redcrossblood.org/rap...

Intended donors are urged to drink plenty of fluids on the day of the donation, wear comfortable clothing with sleeves that are easy to roll up, eat iron-rich foods prior to donation day, and bring a list of prescription/over-the-counter medications that you are currently taking or are in your system. Students also bring a student ID.

Liz Ainslie "The Part of Sight" and Desiree Leary "Real Lookers"

6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., Friday, September 15. The exhibitions run through October 19.

Cohen Gallery

Cost: Free

Sponsored by: Cohen Gallery

The Cohen Gallery on Main Street is opening TWO exhibitions on Friday, September 15, 6-9pm.

Liz Ainslie "The Part of Sight"

The elements within Liz Ainslie's paintings function as fundamental building blocks of perception-represented and rearranged. As a poet might reorder the parts of speech, Ainslie uses the language of abstract painting as a structure upon which to develop a visual investigation of human perception. To this end, the artist has developed a vocabulary of non-objective forms that sidle up with everyday objects, bodies, architecture, and the natural world.

Equally important to Ainslie's work is her manipulation of space through the use of color theory. Each of her paintings holds a record of the color relationships developed by mixing oil paint on the palette and drawing from the memory of observed color. Ainslie uses photography as a sketchbook, capturing interactions between architecture, light with natural interventions on human spaces.

Desiree Leary "Real Lookers"

Using consumer-grade cameras, on-demand printing processes, and readymade home goods, Brooklyn-based artist Desiree Des examines the tension between the photographic image and its physical presence in space. The works presented in Real Lookers often upend viewer's expectations by throwing the ordinary legibility of snapshots and household wares into question. New perspectives are overlaid on functional objects-like plates, picture frames, and blankets-by compounding their appearances with imagery referring back to themselves. In this fashion, American life's everyday materialism is represented through the interaction of its most familiar implements and their own images-that is, between reality and its depiction.

Des often creates socially engaging contexts for her art multiples, awarding them as prizes at public events, mailing them through the post, or selling them at a low cost in retail environments of her own devisement. This ensures that almost any viewer can choose to take something home and experience it on their own terms-even (and especially) if that means the works are placed into contexts beyond the artist's original intention or control. In this way, Des hopes to encourage conversation about the role of art outside of traditional galleries and underscore how seeing a work over time changes both it and the viewer.

For this show, Des has created a self-service, honor-system, pay-as-you-wish Souvenir Shop where visitors may take home a postcard or poster and "pay" with their own artworks or other monetary and non-monetary offerings. These transactional goods will be displayed on pedestals in the gallery, and contributors are welcome to add the Real Lookers exhibition to their résumé.

Instructor's Responsibilities for Accommodating Students with Disabilities

Do you know your legal responsibilities to accommodate students approved for academic accommodations? Have you ever wondered how academic accommodations are determined or what their purpose is? Have you ever received a Letter of Accommodation from a student and wondered what it meant or how to accommodate a student?

The Center for Academic Success invites faculty and staff to attend a presentation from 12:10 p.m. - 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, September 19 in the Banner Training Room on the first floor of Howell Hall entitled: "Instructor's Responsibilities for Accommodating Students with Disabilities"

This presentation will provide an overview of the rights and responsibilities of students, faculty, and the Center for Academic Success in determining and implementing academic accommodations for students on campus with disabilities. By attending this presentation you should have an increased understanding of the following:

- * Your responsibilities under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act
- * The processes and procedures for requesting and determining academic accommodations
- * How to implement common academic accommodations.

Pizza will be provided for those who attend.

To ensure we have enough food and materials for everyone, please RSVP by 9/18 by clicking the following link:
