EQUATION OF FIAT LUX
We turn now for a moment to a bit of recent history. In September the Fiat Lux entered upon its eleventh year as Alfred University's student newspaper. For many years its name has been synonymous with excellence and innovation in college journalism. In the fall of 1923, the first issue was published, marking the beginning of a new era for campus journalism.

The first issue of the Fiat Lux appeared on September 19, 1923. The editorials were written by some of the brightest minds of the time, including future journalists and scholars. The content ranged from campus news to national events, providing a snapshot of the world as it was at the time.

Evolving from a small publication, the Fiat Lux grew in size and influence, reflecting the changing times and the evolving needs of the student body. By the thirties, it became a key source of information and opinion on campus, covering topics such as sports, entertainment, and academic events.

During World War II, the Fiat Lux continued to thrive, adapting to the needs of a war-ravaged world. It became a forum for discussing the impact of the war on the campus and on the country as a whole. The Fiat Lux also played a role in the post-war reconstruction, providing hope and inspiration for a new generation.

In the decades that followed, the Fiat Lux continued to evolve, reflecting the changing values and priorities of the student body. It became a key player in the democratization of the news, giving students a voice and a platform to express their ideas and concerns.

Today, the Fiat Lux is a testament to the enduring spirit of journalism and the power of the written word. It continues to evolve and adapt to the changing times, providing a rich and textured record of the history of Alfred University and the world around it.

EVAH. N. Y., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1923

VARSLY WALKS ROUGHSHOD OVER BISON
Purple and Gold Defeat Windy City Aggregation On Home Field

FEW CASUALTIES

In the first home game of the season, Pratley, Oct. 19, Alfred defeated Brown College, a team of the University of Buffalo by a score of 16-4. This second successive year that the Purple and Gold has held the Buffalo club.

Using a playing attack, offensively, the Alfred team did not agree to the victory, the playing being done on the field. Donald Clark, a member of the class of 1914, was president, the student body, having authorized the publication of the Sheffield Daily News. Under the direction of the student body, the publication was continued.

From 1874 to 1877, the students published a weekly under the name of "The Alfred Student," which was also the name of the college's literary society, the Phi Delta Phi. During this period, the literary society conducted an annual contest of essays. The winning essays were published in the college's literary society's annual, "The Alfredian." The first issue of the literary society's annual, "The Alfredian," was published in 1877.

On October 23, 1923, the first issue of the Fiat Lux was published. The Fiat Lux was a student newspaper that was published weekly, except during the summer months. The Fiat Lux was one of the first student newspapers in the country and was widely respected for its quality and professionalism.

The Fiat Lux was founded by students in 1923, with the goal of providing a forum for the expression of student opinions and ideas. The Fiat Lux was a forum for the expression of student opinions and ideas, and it served as a source of information and entertainment for the student body.

The Fiat Lux was a strong and influential publication during its time, and it continues to be remembered as a key player in the history of student journalism and the evolution of the college newspaper. the wee small hours of early morning, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group of forty contestants. These were divided into four divisions, each group working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was the Junior Class' entertainment given by the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the guests, until the last belated strag-gler had arrived, theesses were the wee hours of early morning, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.

One of the most enjoyable events
to take place in Alfred in a long time was
the Junior Class' entertainment given by
the Theta Gamma Fraternity at their Frat House.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th.

It was an informal affair, and there
were about seventeen guests. After the reception committee received the
guests, until the last belated strag-
gler had arrived, theesses were
the wee hours of early morn-
ing, and card playing, refreshments
were provided into four divisions, each group
of forty contestants. These were di-
vided into four divisions, each group
working in a different ring. In all,
six rings were judged.
CROSS COUNTRY BEINGS ALF. TO THE FROD IN BIG MEETS

Having any unloaded for mistakes.

Alfred's Cross Country team of '23 will be one of the largest factors in establishing an envied position for Alfred among all A colleges. During the past week Coach For-

P. T. magazine has received entries blanks from the National Amateur Athletic Union of the United States urging that Alfied send a team to compete in the National A. A. C. championship Cross Country Meet to be held in Philadelphia, Nov. 29, 1924. The course to be run is the National Senior course at Fairmount Park.

This indeed, is one of the highest honors which Alfred could hope to receive.

In addition to this letter "Don" received one from the Secretary of National Inter-Collegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America, stating that body feel that the team should be represented at the National track meet this spring as well as in the Championship Cross meet at

New York next fall.

The Coach feels that nothing could be better than that Alfred's team have the opportunity offered by the Nat. ional Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association of America in extending the invitation of any sort or that more thoroughly fit a man or woman for any sort of future life. Each of these characteristics must be in the student who is to attend these meets, and yet, in your analysis of your own assets it is essential that you carefully consider each and where necessary repair your own deficiencies.

In your course, and in order to present a great demand for Co-operation.

Football teams, tennis teams, basketball teams all in their turn and according to their need upon you must come into the picture so that you may benefit to the fullest extent. Student government is powerless unless backed by the students and sustained by student respects. Various organizations on the campus need the athletes who cannot exist without assistance. Always there are those few who say, "I have nothing to do." This is not true.

The "let-George-do-it" attitude not only denies the student's enthusiasm, selfishness or laziness but fails completely to add anything to the college and prevents those few from getting the best from their college course.

Honesty is more than the mere conforming to statute regulations. It embodies these rare qualities of good fellowship, most liberal manner. Be honest with yourself for by so doing you will serve with satisfaction not only your team but your own personal interests. Any form of cheating will, of course, be severely punished.

Although it can boast the smallest enrollment of any of its competitive teams that compare favorably with those of much bigger schools. This ful backing the team receives, both from the students and alumni. Nature damped and the remainder of the song and cheers completed the procession of the day. In the case that Alfred won the remaining races of the season, and the Coach feels that the team is fitted for that run, would the student body feel that the team should be sent to Philadelphia at the general expense of the college? Nothing could be more to Alfred but the time and effort of the students and the students of the meet.

The success of a mass meeting is very often judged by the amount of enthusiasm and spirit shown by the students and the efficiency of the Mass meeting. Each of these characteristics must be in the student who is to attend these meets, and yet, in your analysis of

your own assets it is essential that you

carefully consider each and where

necessary repair your own deficiencies.

Co-operation, Honesty, Punctuality,

Equity, sports a character, which on the other hand could be selected that more effectively define requisites for efficient college, a morality of the entire change in the organization of any sort or that more thoroughly

fit a man or woman for any sort of

future life. Each of these characteristics must be in the student who is to

attend these meets, and yet, in your analysis of

your own assets it is essential that you

carefully consider each and where

necessary repair your own deficiencies.

Co-operation, Honesty, Punctuality,

Equity, sports a character, which on
FROSH ELEVEN TRAMPLES ON BOLIVAR TEAM

On Thursday, October 18, the Alfred University Freshmen played the Hornell Freshmen and established the fact that they were the best team on the field to a 34-4 victory in a game characterized by good kicking and clever cover work of all kinds.

To a casual observer the fine team work evident throughout the game was probably overshadowed by the individual playing of a few of them. Bowles's kicking and passing caused great comment and he will undoubtedly be a key man for the Freshmen should they come to. "Mike" Fritz, at right end, also starred for the team, making large gains on the flank.

Reinbeck, by his force attack on the line and Butterfield, made substantial gains for the players, while "Red" Finn held off the team and played well.

Nor was Bolivar without her stars. Brigham, full back, displayed exceptional ability at kicking, passing and carrying the ball, while McKee also starred for the Frosh making sensational as well as its serious ones.

The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have not been scored against and have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.

The game had its humorous situations as well as its serious ones. The officials, being all Varsity men, hoped that they will continue the good showing they have exhibited some excellent backfield work.