Opening Reception: 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., Thursday, October 19

Alfred Ceramic Art Museum

Cost: free

Sponsored by: Alfred Ceramic Art Museum

Three new exhibitions are opening simultaneously on October 19, 2017.

Holding the Line, ceramic sculptor Stanley Rosen's (MFA Alfred '56) retrospective is revelatory. Rosen has long been a quiet visionary. His little known work from the late 1950's, 1960's and 70's will astonish.

Concurrent with the Rosen exhibition the Museum is celebrating the break out career of Kelsey Chase Folsom. His thoughtful, poetic and often challenging work will be on view in the exhibition hereafter. The Museum will also feature Minyao (peoples' pottery): The Art of the Everyday. Supported by a grant from the Asian Cultural Council-Rockefeller Foundation, the collection of work on view is the result of a concerted effort to honor and preserve a powerful, disappearing ceramic language of the Chinese people.

Museum hours are 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday; 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Thursday; 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

"Residue" opening at Cohen Gallery, Nov 3, 6-9pm

November 3- December 8, 2017

Opening reception 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., November 3

The Cohen Gallery presents the work of Caroline Hayes Charuk (BFA '08), Terry James Conrad (BFA '03), Ron Lambert (MFA '04), and SV Randall (BFA '10) in "Residue."

As humans we leave a trail behind us- a record of our personal histories. Some of these marks are egregious like the oil spills in the oceans, others are poetic like the subtly scuffed paint surrounding a well-used door knob. The artists in this exhibition are using residue as a tool for making their art. By making objects to create stains, mimic stains, or employ stains for creative reflection, these four artists reflect how residue can create a metaphor for life's experience.

Performing Arts seeking tricycle or scooter as prop

Have a large tricycle or two-wheel scooter you are willing to loan to the Alfred University Division of Performing Arts for an upcoming theatrical production?

Steve Crosby, professor of theater and director of an upcoming production of Eurydice, is searching for a "vintage (something from the '50s) larger tricycle or two-wheel scooter," and he's been scouring internet sites to no avail.

"We need it as soon as possible so the actor can get used to using it," said Crosby. "The production opens on Nov. 15th, so time is getting tight."

Crosby said the division will cover the costs of transporting the tricycle or scooter to and from Alfred.

Those who have something they are willing to loan are asked to contact Steve Crosby by email at fcrosby@alfred.edu or by calling him at 607-871-2566.
