Alfred Ceramic Art Museum Exhibitions

hereafter: Kelcy Chase Folsom; 2015 -2018
Robert Chapman Turner Teaching Fellow
Holding the Line: Ceramic Sculpture Stanley Rosen
Minyao: Art of the Everyday
a Selection of Chinese Folk Pottery

October 19, 2017 - January 1, 2018
Opening Reception: 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., Thursday, October 19

Alfred Ceramic Art Museum

Cost: free

Sponsored by: Alfred Ceramic Art Museum

Three new exhibitions are opening simultaneously on October 19, 2017.

Holding the Line, ceramic sculptor Stanley Rosen's (MFA Alfred '56) retrospective is revelatory. Rosen has long been a quiet visionary. His little known work from the late 1950's, 1960's and 70's will astonish.

Concurrent with the Rosen exhibition the Museum is celebrating the break out career of Kelsey Chase Folsom. His thoughtful, poetic and often challenging work will be on view in the exhibition hereafter. The Museum will also feature Minyao (peoples' pottery): The Art of the Everyday. Supported by a grant from the Asian Cultural Council-Rockefeller Foundation, the collection of work on view is the result of a concerted effort to honor and preserve a powerful, disappearing ceramic language of the Chinese people.

Museum hours are 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday; 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Thursday; 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Exhibit at the Cohen Gallery: Residue

Residue: Caroline Hayes Charuk, Terry James Conrad, Ron Lambert, and SV Randall exhibit at the Cohen Gallery

Nov 3- Dec 8, Opening Reception 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., Friday, November 3

Cohen Gallery

Cost: free

The Cohen Gallery presents the work of Caroline Hayes Charuk, Terry James Conrad, Ron Lambert, and SV Randall in "Residue," opening November 3, 6-9pm.

As humans we leave a trail behind us- a record of our personal histories. Some of these marks are egregious like the oil spills in the oceans, others are poetic like the subtly scuffed paint surrounding a well-used door knob. The artists in this exhibition are using residue as a tool for making their art. By making objects to create stains, mimic stains, or employ stains for creative reflection, these four artists reflect how residue can create a metaphor for life's experience.

Faculty Members Needed for Committees

Currently, we have two open committees on campus. We have Support Staff and ATS represented, however, we need faculty members to join our committees. These two committees are, Employee Benefits and Employee Recognition.

The Employee Recognition Committee is charged with:

- *Developing years of service awards
- *Developing different types of recognition other than years of service
- *Developing specific list of milestone rewards
- *Making recommendations on Retiree gifts
- *Combining faculty/staff service awards

The Employee Benefits committee is charged with:

- *Reviewing and evaluating the university's fringe-benefit policy and offerings, and to make recommendations for possible changes. In this context, fringe benefits are considered to be compensation-related and affect both faculty and staff.
- *Reviewing current paid time off structures and make it more consistent across the board for statutory/non-statutory and hourly/exempt.
- *Implementing a paid time off gifting policy/plan for the University
- *Reviewing costs of current benefit plans

Please email Kayleigh Misner, HR Generalist, if you are interested in joining either of these committees. misner@alfred.edu

#100kThankYous

This is a nation wide initiative in which the goal is to collect 100,000 Thank you cards for our military during this season of thanks! Cards can be handmade or store bought and can be dropped off at residence life or the box of books library on main street. The deadline for card collecting is November 17th that way soldiers can receive them before thanksgiving. Let our troops know you care by making them a thank you card! You can make as many cards as you want.

The 100K thank yous initiative is hosted by tykellyandchuck.com. More information about this challenge can be found there. You can also email me at Mtr5@alfred.edu for more information. Thanks in advance for your support!

November is Here!

It's Movember and the Wellness Center is focusing on men's mental health.

For all the men out there, we encourage you to grow a moustache to generate conversation around the often stigmatized subject of men's mental health.

For those who do grow a moustache this Movember, you have the chance to be rewarded by entering the Moustache Competition to be held at 4:30 p.m., Thursday, November 30 in the Kenyon/Allen Room. Prizes will be awarded to the "best moustache," "the most creative moustache" and "the fullest moustache". Light refreshments will be served (the kind that won't get stuck in your moustache)!

Can't grow a moustache? There are other ways to support this awareness campaign like taking the "Move for Movember Challenge" or by showing your support by wearing a Movember pin or bracelet (available at the Wellness Center).

For more information, please visit: movember.com
