Jeff Whetstone Visiting Artist Lecture

February 22, 4pm

Nevins Theater

Cost: Free

Sponsored by: The Division of Drawing, Painting and Photography

The Division of Drawing, Painting and Photography is pleased to present visiting artist Jeff Whetstone.

Jeff Whetstone's photographs and films imagine rural America through lenses of anthropology and mythology. Whetstone's Post-Pleistocene photographs illuminate the depths of wild caves in Alabama and Tennessee, where layers of human markings reveal millennia of cultural evolution. His ongoing New Wilderness project portrays a human-centric American wilderness and questions how our cultural connection to the mythology of the wild is revealed in contemporary times. Whetstone's work interrogates the stereotypes of rural people--ignorance, poverty, and self-destruction--and explores the complicated bond between people and the landscape.

Whetstone's work has been exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions, including the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University, Karyn Lovegrove in Los Angeles and Higher Pictures and Wallspace in New York. In 2007 he received a Guggenheim Fellowship his work New Wilderness and his work has been reviewed in the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, The New Yorker, New York Magazine, and Art News, among others. Whetstone is represented by Julie Saul in New York and is currently a Professor of Visual Arts at Princeton University.

Soulful Sit-downs

Soulful Sit-downs is a series of student-led conversations intended to address some of life's biggest questions and, ultimately, connect us as human beings. This is NOT group therapy, nor is it a formal lecture. This is a chance to have deeper conversations with your peers on topics such as gratitude, purpose, vulnerability and love. Soulful Sit-downs provides a safe space to exchange ideas and carry on conversations free from judgement.

Come and listen or contribute to the conversation yourself!

Refreshments will be provided.

When: Mondays 7:30-8:30 pm

Where: Herrick Library Room 106

Feel free to contact one of our facilitators if you have any questions!

Faculty Research Mentor Award 2016-17

The Office of the Provost continues to acknowledge and reward faculty who are outstanding mentors for undergraduate research and scholarly activity. The Faculty Research Mentor Award recognizes those individuals who are outstanding mentors to students engaged in research or scholarly activity and are actively engaged themselves in advancing scholarship in their field.

Up to one award will be offered in each of the following categories this academic year: physical/life and mathematical sciences, undergraduate engineering, social sciences, humanities, visual and performing arts, and professional studies.

Students or faculty wishing to nominate a faculty member for this award should send a nomination letter to argus@alfred.edu by Monday Feb. 27; self-nominations will not be considered.

A more detailed announcement, including the required contents for the recommendation letter, is available on the Office of the Provost website.

If you have questions, email Frederic Beaudry (beaudry@alfred.edu), and if you have an outstanding faculty research mentor, nominate them today!
