Further Guidance for Entering Time Missed Due to Weather Mar 15th

I failed to leave instructions for any person who worked from home or "telecommuted" on Wednesday March 15 due to the weather. If you worked from home on that day please enter the time worked exactly as if you worked here on the campus and put a comment in the comment section that you were "Telecommuting due to the weather." This way you will be properly paid and we will have a record of your work for that day. If you telecommuted you do not use Vacation, Personal Day or Floating Holiday to account for that time.

ORGAN RECITAL

On Sunday, March 26, there will be a free organ recital on the Rosebush pipe organ in the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church. The organ recital is in memory of Margaret "Peggy" Wingate Rase, a lifetime resident of Alfred and the wife of AU Professor Emeritus Daniel Rase. All are invited to attend.

The recitalist will be Dr. Judy Congdon. The program which starts at 3 pm will include Prelude and Fugue in C major by J. S. Bach, a Chorale Partita by Johann Pachelbel, Two Antiphons by Marcel Dupre, Trumpet Tune in C major by David Johnson, Three Hymn Preludes by Craig Phillips, and the Allegro from Symphony Op. 42, No. 6 by Charles Marie Widor.

Congdon is Professor of Organ at Houghton College, Houghton, New York. She holds music degrees from Wheaton College, the University of Colorado, the Musikhochschule in Frankfurt, Germany where she was a Fulbright Scholar, and the Eastman School of Music. She has performed organ recitals in the US, as well as in Germany, Italy, and Russia, and has recorded 4 CD albums.

While the concert is free and open to all, the Rase family is encouraging donations to the Organ Restoration Fund. A basket will be available for those interested in contributing in Peggy's memory. Peggy's father, Dr. Ray Wingate, was professor of organ at Alfred University as well AU's first carillonneur. The Wingate Foundation started by Danny and Peggy funds the annual summer carillon recital series on the Davis Memorial Carillon at Alfred University.

Peer Review Board Recruitment

We are currently recruiting students to serve on our Peer Review and University Conduct boards. Our system is designed to hold students accountable for the Student Code of Conduct, change problematic behavior through a structured educational process, and protect the University community. The conduct system enables the campus community to take an active role in the hearing process.

Board members need to possess strong interpersonal and communication skills, sound judgement, personal integrity, and demonstrate respect for others.

Hearings are scheduled on as-needed basis, with the majority of them being held on Thursdays from 6 to 8 pm.

Serving depends on your schedule and availability.

If you are interested, please contact studentconduct@alfred.edu or x2132 and information about our next training will be provided.

Workshop with Sound Designer/Composer Adam Salberg

Workshop with visiting sound designer / composer Adam Salberg March 28 + 31

Sound designer, Adam Salberg is a composer and multi-disciplinary artist based in Brooklyn, NY. He has worked with off Broadway and regional theatres. His design credits include: The Woodsman (New World Stages), The 24 Hour Plays on Broadway, All the Fine Boys, Some of the Things Inside, and The Rocky Horror Show (Yale). Adam is a graduate of Fordham University, and a member of the Theatrical Sound Designers and Composers Association. He is currently collaborating with students and faculty on the Performing Arts production of As You Like It. During his residency at Alfred, he will be hosting a two part workshop on sound design for the performing arts. This workshop is open to all interested students and faculty.

March 28 5:30pm-6:30pm:

What is Sound Design? What is the role of a sound designer in a production? Examining a text, discussing basic theory, and exploring how sound design interacts with the other elements of a show.

March 31 3:30pm-4:30pm:

Tools of the trade. How does sound travel in space? What equipment do we have at our disposal to implement the sound design, and how do we design systems to create the most effective environment for the audience.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

A Day's Work

March 1 - April 1

Closing Reception: April 1, 6-8pm

Location: Cohen Gallery

Cost: Free

Rebekah Modrak (Class of '92) and Nick Tobier present "A Day's Work" at the Cohen Gallery, March 1-April 1, 2017. The joint show features distinct but related bodies of work that serve to challenge viewers' social expectations. "A Day's Work" opens March 1, 6-8pm, with a closing reception on April 1 at 6-8pm.

Rebekah's installation, Re Made Co., is a multimedia artistic intervention satirizing the brand narrative of Best Made Co., a New York City-based company that sells painted axes and a range of "outdoor" consumer products using calculated and false associations with manual labor. Evolving since its launch in July 2013, Re Made Co. works across genres, including Fluxus art whose distribution channels circumvent and subvert the gallery system; critical design that challenges the values of design practice; and activist art or "culture jamming" that attempts to introduce a critical discourse into passive consumption.

Re Made Co. at Cohen Gallery will create a storefront space on Main Street in Alfred with both the products and the critique of luxury consumer culture that seeks to appropriate the work of labor.

Nick will conduct performances in the gallery and in the community during the month of March. He will present, "Marvelous Guests," which lends new working conditions and meanings to several trades by inviting professionals to conduct their business in unusual locations. As a guest. Each encounter will produce its own forms of communication on location. We see the relationship between guest and host as dynamic, and not without friction as each adjusts to the other. Both artists taught at the School of Art Design at Alfred University before joining the faculty at the Stamps School of Art & Design at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, where they currently live and work.
