The Escalation Workshop

WHEN: Thursday, April 6
WHERE: Nevins Theater
TIME: 6:00 PM

The Escalation Workshop through the One Love Foundation brings to light the warning signs of a violent relationship and engages participants in an honest and empowering conversation about how communities can and should respond when they see it.

The Alfred University Wellness Center and Cattaraugus Community Action have partnered to bring this free workshop to the Alfred University Community.

Goal of the workshop is to:

- *Raise awareness about dating violence.
- *To educate students about the warning signs of an abusive relationship.
- *To create a safe space for students to discuss unhealthy relationships.

For more information or to register contact: khodorkovskaya@alfred.edu

Thank you, Alfred University!!

On behalf of the Enrollment Management Division, I would like to extend our sincere appreciation to the entire campus community for your participation in the Accepted Student Days. Families were amazed at the sense of "family" and "community" they felt during their time here at Alfred University. Whether it was current students, faculty, and staff that prospective students and their families met during these important events, it was certainly noticed. Thank you for assisting in recruiting our entering class!

Young Professionals group organizing in Alfred area

We would like to invite you to a fun evening that will include networking, food and introduction for the Allegany County Young Professional Group (ACYPG). This event is to take place Thursday, April 13th 2017 at 6:30pm, held at the Wellsville Country Club. We are looking forward to you joining us at the opening reception. The ACYPG is the premier focus group that will serve Allegany County's next generation of leaders professionally, socially and developmentally.

We are excited to offer a voice specifically to our generation. We see the need for development and improvement within our county and its young professionals (YPs). Our mission is to source our generation and its creativity, aspirations and ingenuity to develop Allegany County into a place the next generation enjoys living in. We would love for you to join us!

Please register for the event at: <https://docs.google.com/f...>

We welcome you sharing this invite with your co-workers, friends and employers.

We look forward to seeing you in April.

Artist Talk: Head of Steam Inspiration & Iteration

April 3-7, 2017, Lecture on April 6th at 5:00 in BMH 106, Room C

The Institute for Electronic Arts at the School of Art and Design of the New York State College of Ceramics. Talk in Binns-Merrill Hall 106, Room C.

Sponsored by: The Institute for Electronic Arts, the Division of Expanded Media, and the Career Development Center

More than two decades have found Chad Latz living multiple iterations of his life as a creative professional. In a presentation and discussion with students, Chad offers insights as he shares intimate stories of his journey as an artist, essential survival skills, the luck, misfortune, will, inspiration and revelations that have offered him his most valuable successes and learnings on his path to growing a creative career and maintaining momentum.

Chad's presentation, Head of Steam: Inspiration & Iteration, will be held in Binns-Merrill Hall room 106, "Room C," on Thursday, April 6th at 5:00 pm. In addition to his presentation, Chad will also be working on an artist book and speaking informally with students about careers in design and art in the professional space.

Visiting Artist Demonstration: Joanna Powell

April 6 & 7, 2017
9am-12pm, 1-4pm both days

Flex Space, 1st Floor McGee Pavilion

Free

Sponsored by: The Alfred Clay Collective

The Alfred Clay Collective welcomes spring visiting artist Joanna Powell.

Artist Statement:

My current work focuses on the question of beauty. What I find beautiful tends to be awkward and irregular and at times the opposite of what is considered the social norm of beauty. This challenge of beauty comes from growing up in a culture where my identity of what it is to be a woman has been shaped by a male lens. My work allows me a place of asylum, a fictional culture where everything and everyone is ok to exist. Through the arrangement of objects I set up a situation or narrative where the viewer can forget about an objects function and call attention to its possibilities as pure matter with its own intentions. I want to encourage questions about what is happening with the objects and the narrative being peculiar and unclear welcomes this conversation. The paintings and objects have become married into installations, re-contextualizing them to function as three-dimensional paintings. My work lives in this twilight zone between painting and sculpture. I am continually searching for this sensation of something coming into focus. The objects I create are colloquialisms of my own making that reference ancient and current civilization. I believe an object can anchor the values of a culture acting as an artifact of its time. I question beauty with the artifacts I create.

Dave Frank: one of the great jazz pianists of our time!!

Dave Frank is a superb jazz pianist who is also a world-famous music educator in improvisation. He is the author of the best-selling Hal Leonard book and video series, "Joy of Improv" and "Breakthrough to Improv." From 1987 to 2004, he served as an Associate Professor of piano at the Berklee College of Music in Boston. He, then, moved to New York and formed the Dave Frank School of Jazz in NYC, which provides music education to folks all over the world. He will also be running a workshop for any musicians who want to learn to improvise-Wednesday, 4/12 at 8 PM in Miller Theatre. On Thursday, the 13th, Dave will present a Bergren Forum, "15 Elements for the Advanced Jazz Pianist - Analysis of a Solo Jazz Piano Performance" in Howell Hall 12:10-1 PM. To wrap up his visit he will give a solo piano performance on Thursday, April 13th at 7:30 PM in the Miller Theatre. Admission to all of these events is free!

This residency is made possible by The Alfred University Honors Program and The David and Elizabeth Miller Performing Arts Fund.
