

Former Alfred University Trustee Dionne 'Dee' Levine passes

6/16/17

Former Alfred University Trustee Dionne "Dee" Michaels Levine died June 11, 2017, on Reunion Weekend 2017. She had been scheduled to attend, as she had every Reunion since 2003, but health problems prevented her being in Alfred with her classmates and friends.

Dee had been a long-time supporter of Alfred University and was an alumni-elected trustee from 1999-2002. She was the Class of 1954 correspondent for The Alfred Magazine, and was a member of the Heritage Circle. She was awarded the Lillian Nevins Award, the highest honor bestowed by the Alfred University Alumni Association, in 2004. Her son, Evan Goldstein, graduated from Alfred in 1978 with a B.A. in political science.

Dee was a resident of Center Moriches, N.Y.
