

"Who's Who?" Two Seniors at Alfred University, That's Who

3/29/99

Alfred, NY -- Two Alfred University seniors will be included in the 1999 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The two are both engineering students, although in different schools. Michelle L. Korwin of Cassadaga, a graduate of Cassadaga Valley High School, is a student in the New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University, School of Ceramic Engineering and Materials Science. Her field is glass engineering science. She is the daughter of Roger and Kathleen Korwin of Cassadaga. Jennifer R. McLaughlin of Hammondsport, a graduate of Hammondsport Central School, is enrolled in the College of Engineering and Professional Studies. Her major is electrical engineering. She is the daughter of Susan McLaughlin of Hammondsport. Students are included in the volume on the basis of academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. The two will join an elite group of students chosen from some 1,900 institutions of higher education in 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several other nations. The annual directory has honored outstanding students since it was first published in 1934.