

AU men's lacrosse defeats Utica College

4/19/03

UTICA The Alfred University men's lacrosse team got past conference opponent Utica College by a 12-8 score Saturday afternoon. The Saxons (4-7, 2-4 Empire 8) fell behind early, but exploded in the second quarter, scoring seven goals and allowing none. This five-goal advantage at halftime was enough to seal the victory. Scoring for AU was done by committee, with junior attack Trevor Archer (Penn Yan/Penn Yan), junior attack David Vail (Mt. Lakes, N.J./Mt. Lakes), senior midfielder Steve Douglas (Horseheads/Horseheads) and freshman attack Brad Frey (Cornwall, VT/Middlebury) each scoring two goals. Archer and Douglas added two assists and one assist, respectively. In goal, sophomore Nicholas Hohman (Gibsonia, Pa./Pine Richland) went the distance, making 16 saves to help the Saxons to victory. For Utica, Matt Donaldson had a game-high three goals and added two assists. Nate Jobson chipped in with two goals and two assists. The next game for Alfred will be next Saturday, April 26, when they host Elmira College at 1 p.m. on Merrill Field.--30--
