

Alfred University alumna to present at Environmental Studies Speaker Series

10/30/17

ALFRED, NY Seth Kellogg, a 1994 graduate of Alfred University, will speak at next week's Environmental Studies Speakers Series, scheduled for 12:20 p.m. Friday (Nov. 10) in Room Lecture Hall, Science Center, on the Alfred University campus.

Kellogg, senior geologist at Roux Associates, Inc., in Berkeley Heights, NJ, will deliver a presentation titled "PFAS An Overview of the Evolving State of the Scientific and Regulatory Landscape."

Roux Associates is an environmental consulting and management firm providing a broad range of consulting, engineering, and project management services to solve complex environmental problems.

Kellogg earned a bachelor's degree in geology from Alfred University in 1994. She earned her master's degree in hydrogeology from Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis in 2003.