

Alfred women's lacrosse finishes season with win over Bengals

4/29/03

BUFFALO Alfred's women's lacrosse team recorded their fourth win of the season, defeating the Buffalo State Bengals, 8-5, Tuesday. The Saxons (4-11, 0-7 Empire 8) used a strong second half to pull off the victory and put an end to their seven-game losing streak. Junior attacker Chris Sanford (Bowdoinham, Maine/Mt. Ararat) led the Saxons with four goals, bringing her team-leading total up to 46 for the season. Senior attacker Katie Sedgwick (Manlius/Fayetteville-Manlius) also chipped in with two goals. Junior attacker Kelly Farrell (Meriden, N.H./Kimball Union Academy) and senior midfielder Kimberly Fank (Farmingville/Sachem) rounded out the Alfred scoring with one goal apiece. Junior goalkeeper Jessica Dunster played the entire game, recording 14 saves in the victory. Stefanie Hineman led the Bengals with three goals and Elvira Coniglione added two others. Nikole Flannery made seven saves on 15 chances, playing the full 60 minutes.
