

Hornell sixth-graders produce documentaries featuring Alfred University art and design students 3/01/18

ALFRED, NY A series of documentary films, produced by sixth-graders in Hornell Intermediate School and featuring 10 students in Alfred University's School of Art and Design, will be screened Saturday, March 3, at 1 p.m. at the Spotlight Theater, Main Street, Hornell.

The 10 documentary pieces were filmed on location at the School of Art and Design and edited by the Hornell sixth-graders for their computer technology class. Approximately 40 Hornell students participated in the project.

Saturday's screening of the documentaries is free and open to the public.
