In accordance with the policy of the Fiat Lux to have each of the six associate editors produce one issue during the year, the paper this week is being edited by John Reed Spicer.

More Fraternities

Last year one third of the members of the student body were members of fraternities or sororities. This group held nine tenths of the recognized offices on the campus. Does anyone suppose that only one third of our students are capable of doing anything? Is it not more logical to believe that this great majority of fraternity office holders is due to what we term fraternity politics? In proportion to the size of our student body we have very few fraternities and sororities at Alfred. Wouldn't it be worth while to consider the formation of perhaps two or three more fraternities and one or two more sororities? With a greater number of such organizations on the campus no one or two could dominate campus politics and all contestants for office would have a fairer chance in elections. Certainly there are enough students in Alfred now in the non-fraternity group who would make good fraternity and sorority material. Power would be divided further and greater democracy attained if, in addition to the creation of more fraternities and sororities, the non-fraternity group were to be organized into a more workable body.

COURT CONVICTS FOUR ON VARIOUS CHARGES

At its usual Tuesday night meeting the Campus Court had only four cases to consider, and in all the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

James Sproul, who had failed to tip his cap to an upperclassman, was found guilty and fined fifty cents.

Kenneth Robinson was found guilty of not tipping his cap to upperclassmen and failed to report at the next session of the court. His excuse for non-appearance mitigated the charges and he was merely fined fifty cents.

Samuel Kaplan and Paul Lefkowitz were brought up on a joint charge of cutting assembly, found guilty, fined, and made to wear a placard with the words "I Love To Attend Assembly," for two days.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Despite the crowded condition of the calendar for the rest of the year, various alterations have been made by the Student Life Committee. At the request of the Wee Playhouse, Thursday, April 18, the date assigned to the Footlight Club for four one-act plays, has been transferred to the Wee Playhouse for the presentation of "Sun-up". The Footlight Club plays will be given Monday, May 6.

Three new dates have been placed on the calendar: Thursday, March 21—Frosh-Junior and Soph-Senior parties. Thursday, March 21—Sigma Chi Nu Pledge Party.

DELTA SIG HOLDS ST. PATRICK PARTY

"She was just sailor's sweetheart" was the keynote of the hop aboard the S.S. Delta Sig last Saturday evening. The gobs showed no partiality in their choice of sweethearts for every nationality was represented there.

The conversion of a fraternity house into a cruiser was effectively done from the canteen, to the poop-deck. The numerous flags, streamers and confetti added local color while it seemed as though the members of Ted Van Order's orchestra must have had suppressed desires to be sailors judging from the way they entered into the spirit of the affair.

Prof. and Mrs. P. M. Potter, Miss Hunt, Prof. M. E. Drake, Prof. E. E. Star and Coach McLane were the chaperones and the commanding officers.

CERAMIC NOTES

Prof. Marion Fosdick and Clarice Thomas returned Thursday from a week's trip to the Onondaga Factory at Syracuse where they studied the commercial processes of making and decorating dinner-ware. They also went as representatives to study the type of design being used now, and just how far they are modernizing designs.

The trip was exceedingly successful, and the Ceramic classes will be instructed upon this material.

Open House Plan

Rumor has it that the attitude of the Student Body toward the open house plan suggested by the Student Life Committee last fall is more favorable than it was at that time. Some students have expressed the hope that the project would be presented again for reconsideration, but no one seems to know who should start the ball rolling. The plan was suggested originally by the Student Life Committee, and rejected by the fraternities. Does it not seem logical, then, that it should be revived, if at all, by the organizations which ended its short career? This might be done by the fraternities individually or perhaps collectively through the Interfraternity Council.

Late To Assembly

We wonder how it would seem to have all the students in their seats at eleven o'clock when Assembly begins. Such a state of affairs does seem attainable. Let's try. And, by the way, Professor Wingate was not so far from the point when he suggested that we either learn some college songs, or bring song-books to Assembly. Let's try that, too.

Easter Vacation

If at first you don't succeed—well, anyway we will have a longer Easter vacation next year. Meanwhile, we are grateful to the Faculty and Administration for their good intentions, and wish that we had their fortitude when it comes to denying ourselves pleasures so attractive.

College Songs

Speaking of Assembly and college songs, there seems to be considerable sentiment among the students and alumni in favor of using the "Song of the Bell" as the Alma Mater. It is distinctly Alfridian, and many think that its beauty and melody are more inspiring than "Nested Away Mid the Empire State Hills," the present Alma Mater. Wouldn't it be a worthy task for one of the honor fraternities, Phi Sigma Gamma or Phi Psi Omega, to sponsor an investigation to determine which of these songs the students and alumni prefer?

The Other Fellow's Side

If we could see the other fellow's side of it—if we knew how it seems to the fellow underneath when he is getting his nose rubbed into the wrestling mat; or how the coach feels when he sees only a dozen men appear for football practice; or how the editor of the Fiat enjoys writing head-lines at two in the morning; or how a lot of other things—perhaps we wouldn't say and do just as we would have before we gained that appreciation.

The fact that we don't see the other fellow's side of it is proven by some of the opinions which are submitted for publication in the Fiat. Perhaps you think some of the ones printed are a bit rabid now and then. If so, you ought to read some of those which go into the waste basket.

As they come in, we might say to many of them, "That was the most unkindest cut of all." Yet they keep on coming, and glad we are, that they do. But they would be more just—and more effective—if we would try to see the other fellow's side of it.

SOPHS VICTORS IN UNDERCLASS TILTS

Sophomores made short order of the Freshmen in the interclass meets Friday night at the Davis Field House. The second year men floored the Fosh 28 to 8 in wrestling and then bowled them over 27 to 16 in the first game of the series in basketball.

The Sophs put a strong combination on the mat. Being Varsity grapplers, they won six matches and lost two. Gallup, Atwood, Sadler, Staiman, Lane, and Flint of the class of '31, were members of the Varsity to win. Grantier who won one match for the Frosh, was on the regular team. In the unlimited class, two new men appeared and provided some classy going.

The Sophs ran rings around the Frosh in basketball. Led by the same combination that comprised Coach Hanson's Fighting Frosh, last year, completely outclassed the losers. Wenger, Steele and Webster lead the scoring spree while Lockwood, Vance and Chubb registered four apiece for the Frosh.

INTRA-MURAL BALL SERIES NEARS END

The battle in league A, of the Intra-Mural Basketball Tourney, with the exception of one game, is over. This lone game, on which rests the outcome of the league battle is to be waged between two equally strong aggregations who, at the time of this writing, are tied for first place. They are Kappa Psi, which has won three games and lost none, and Theta Nu, with the same standing. The victor in this tilt is to meet the so-far-unbeatable Aggies, who have quite easily clinched the championship in League B without, as yet, having taken the short end of a score.

The existing tie in League A, necessitates the extension of the date for the play-off of the championship game.

Summary:

LEAGUE B

LOCKER EQUIPMENT INSTALLED AT GYM

No longer will the appearance of the campus be mutilated by poor athletes who have to drag their paraphernalia along with them when they are inclined toward gymnastics. No longer will the girls be overcome with confusion at the remarks which are handed about the Post Office steps when she passes on her way to gym, for, at last, the long-looked-for gym equipment has come to the service of the students, both male and female, in the form of lockers which are being assigned to the boys now and to the girls on Friday. Indeed, no longer will the phrase "before and after" be applicable to our athletes, for the showers which are now completed will make the student as presentable when he comes out as he was when he went in.

WRESTLERS CLOSE DIFFICULT SEASON WITH FAIR RECORD

Alfred's Varsity wrestlers produced a husky but inexperienced line-up this year against some of the strongest opposition in the east. The only result was that the smoke of battle yielded but two victories and five defeats.

The grapplers opened their season by journeying to Rochester Mechanics and unexpectedly losing by a 24-14 score. Mechanics had developed considerably since last year and easily took Alfred's measure in a return meet by a 22-10 score.

The next home meet with Brooklyn Poly revived wrest-spirits as the Purple ran up a 20½-10½ tally. Every body thought that Alfred had taken off to a poor start when Williams then fell as an easy victim to a 24-8 onslaught. But Springfield and Brown, the two strongest outfits in New England, found Alfred an easy mark by one-sided scores. Some consolation for these defeats may be taken from the fact that five of the eight Alfredians were either new-comers to the squad or were on their first trip as matmen.

A weakened Syracuse team then faced the weary Purple at the track and field house. Uncaptained and lacking its full strength, the Varsity went down in a glorious defeat to the range 16-11. The Purple's chance for victory was great, but the absence of D'Elia, Hambel, and Bryant spelled certain disaster.

The only loss to next year's Varsity will be through the graduation of Dean Fredericks, Alfred's high scorer for the season. While his loss will be keenly felt, there are two or three contenders with some experience who can fill his place next year.

At present, meets are being arranged with Rochester Mechanics, Yale, Brooklyn Poly, Pennsylvania, Rutgers, and Temple, the majority of which are in the Purple's class. Then with an experienced Varsity and a moderate schedule the season of 1930 should prove successful from all viewpoints.

TRACK SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED FOR CURRENT SEASON

One of the surprising features of the Spring track schedule is that it does not include the annual Little Ten Conference meet. The explanation for its absence strongly hints that, since Alfred has won the affair with ridiculous ease ever since it was inaugurated, there seems to be no further need for its continuation.

The following is a tentative arrangement of the schedule as planned: April 19 Buffalo Y at Alfred April 26, 27 Penn Relays at Philadelphia, Pa. May 7 Hamilton at Clinton May 14 Rochester at Rochester Date pending Middle Atlantics at Haverford, Pa.

THE PIG IN THE BRICK FINALLY IS EXPOSED

Many are the rumors which have floated around the campus about the famous "pig in the Brick," and varied are the tales which have been told to bear up these rumors. Something which will be of interest to present students is the following extract from the Alfred Sun of June 11th, 1925.

"One student has been indefinitely suspended for aiding in putting a pig in the Brick, which involved climbing the fire escape and breaking into the building, after hearing the President of the University declare that such conduct could not be tolerated."

All of which goes to prove that former students must have been ready to take rather heavy consequences to pay for a little fun.

VARSITY "A" CLUB TO SPONSOR TWO INTER-SCHOLASTIC PLAYERS

At its meeting after assembly Thursday morning, the Varsity "A" Club voted to extend an invitation to Howard Barton of Salamanca, and Albert Fredericks of Elmira, two prominent southern tier high school athletes, to be their guests during the coming basketball tournament.

At the meeting the following men were elected to membership:

Anthony Galizio, Frank Steele, Nicholas Latronica, John Gallup, James Sadler, James Sanchez, Kenneth Laine, and Harold Carpenter.

COACH E. A. HEERS SELECTS AN ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

Coach E. A. Heers has made an all-opponent selection for the basketball team of the past season. Kelly of St. Thomas and Curran of Niagara were selected for forwards. Kinkaid of Rochester got the appointment to center. Metz of Rochester and Jetter of Buffalo were named as guards.

In selecting an all-conference opponent team, Coach Heers named the same combination except Leader of Hobart replaced Kelly at forward.

SPORT LIGHTS

By Gym

Many wonder just why an admission fee will be charged the students this week end at the Interscholastic Tournament. It's true that the athletic fee is large, but it is doubtful whether it will cover the expenses of the tournament. This leaves the students with his choice of either paying his way or of submitting to a special assessment in the next month or two.

It looks as though the Class of 1932 can't score in inter class athletics unless it wins either by a forfeit or nothing short of a miracle. Two track meets and a tug of war still offer three opportunities for a come-back, but Gym just thinks that it's a case of "no can do".

One noticeable feature of Alfred's athletic activities which has greatly developed in the past few years is the art or practice of boozing the referee. Just how much it benefits the crowd, the team, or the sport is merely a matter of conjecture or, worse yet, a waste of breath.

St. Patrick should well be proud of the party given as a celebration of his feast here at the house Saturday night. It was just a sailor's night off duty.

Delta Sig extends congratulations to the Kappa Psi Basketball Team for the excellent brand of ball they exhibited Wednesday night.

Art Foti journeyed to Rochester over the week-end. Well all the dope on hand seems favorable and certainly not one of the fellows blame Art a bit.

Burdick Hall

On March 15, Saltzman was warmly congratulated on his birthday by the boys. We feel sorry for his boil.

The hall has been quite quiet the past week due to the fact that John Keats is having a sojourn in the Infirmary.

Capt. Bauer states that he and his eight oarsmen are now in fine trim. The captain asserts that we challenge any other eight man crew to a two mile race on the Kanakadea. We hope some will take advantage of this challenge while the Kanakadea still contains water. See the captain or Manager Dunbar for further particulars.

ALUMNI NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin H. Pond of Olean, announce the birth of a daughter, Marilyn Williams, on March 13, 1929. Mrs. Pond was formerly Edith Jones, class of '26, and a member of Sigma Chi Nu sorority. Mr. Pond was a member of Kappa Psi Upsilon fraternity, and the class of '25.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trowbridge of New York City have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jean Trowbridge, A. U. '27 to Leslie McConnell, A. U. '25 of Niagara Falls.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goodrich of Easton, Pa., March 6, a daughter, Ruth Audrey. Mrs. Goodrich will be remembered as Miss Margaret Glaspy, who graduated from the University in 1922.

Lester Bacon, A. U. '10, has recently become principal of Split Rock high school, comprising a district just outside of Syracuse. Mrs. Lester Spier, Alfred '26, also teaches there. Mr. Spier, Alfred '28, is a student in the medical college, Syracuse University.

Rev. Duane Ogden of Nortonville, Kan., has recovered from a very serious attack of flu, followed by pneumonia. Mr. Ogden was graduated from Salem College in 1923 and spent the following two years in the Alfred Theological Seminary.

Rev Paul S. Burdick has resigned his pastorate of the Rockville, R. I., S. D. B. Church, and has accepted a call to the churches at Leonardsville and West Sdmeston, N. Y. He was graduated from Alfred in the class of 1912.

On Tuesday evening, Director C. F. Binns was a guest of the Fortnightly Club in Hornell. Dr. Binns read and discussed Yeats' play "The Hour Glass." The play was put on by the Wee Playhouse a few years ago, and Dr. Binns took the leading part.

The group of Alfred Alumni who attended the banquet of the University Club at Syracuse recently were the unsuspecting hosts of a bride and bridegroom of but a few hours. The newly-married couple were Mr. and Mrs. Dean M. Worden of Brookfield.

Mr. Worden entered Alfred with the class of 1917. He left to enter service during the World War and was lieutenant in the air service.

Returning to Alfred, he completed his course and was graduated in 1921. He is a member of Delta Sigma Phi.

The bride was Miss Miriam Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. Berton L. Reynolds of Malone. The announcement will be a surprise to the mother, for she is on a Caribbean cruise.

Have you noticed the sign in the window of room eleven?

Theta Kappa Nu

Congratulations '31, for the two victories scored against the Frosh Friday night.

Nice dance, ladies of the Brick!

Carr and Bottom, "rollers" extraordinary say they like their grape fruit!

Theta Nu now has two felines—a blonde and a peroxide blonde—and they know their onions!

Whitman, Whitcomb, and Webster can now eat soup without getting any "stynex" in it—they have removed their misplaced eyebrows.

Theta Kappa Nu is pleased to announce the pledging of Albert Brown '31, and Bob Hollenbeck '32.

Whitman left for Elmira Friday but realized his "error" in time and returned to dear old Alfred in a hurry.

Somebody asked Webster if any great men were ever born in Chicago and he said no, only babies.

HARDWARE

Editor, Fiat Lux—

From one of the opinions of last week's Fiat and from various remarks passed on the campus, it is evident that the co-eds are not in possession of facts concerning the giving of punishments by the Women's Student Government Council. Campus has been used as a punishment for major offences, such as breaking of both student rules and Student Life rulage. It was proved ineffective from both the girls' standpoint and the council's standpoint. Lack of outdoor exercise and lack of complete library privileges were detrimental to the co-ed. The releasing of a girl from a campus and allowing her to attend social functions, such as dances and plays, made the average campus seem non-restrictive to the girl, herself.

As last week's Fiat stated, the new policy of the Women's Student Government Council will be to replace campus by social restrictions. This means either deprival of privileges of social nature, such as dances, dates, entertainments for a certain length of time, or require a girl to be in her place of residence every night at seven o'clock for a certain period of time.

Mary Rogers, Pres. W. S. G.

To the acting editor:
By what right are the students forced to pay admission to witness the high school basketball tourney here this week?

Although most students do not know it, the local tourney is being held under the auspices of the Alfred University Athletic Association. Coach Heers states that the Athletic Governing Board approved of this. Has the Governing Board power to do this? Article III, Section 2 in its constitution states that one of the objects is to approve the schedules of all intercollegiate contests. This tourney is interscholastic and therefore neither provided for nor justified.

But the big question is: Why the admission charge to students? The students have to pay plenty on their tuition bill for the few contests played at home or in Hornell. If the tourney is being held under the auspices of the Athletic Association—and there is doubt about that—there is no constitutional right for charging admission of students. In fact it is in violation to the constitution. A portion of the laws of The Athletic Association reads as follows:

Article LLL—Membership. Section 1. Any student of Alfred University paying the dues of the association becomes a member eligible to vote in matters of business and entitled to a seasonal pass to all home games under its auspices.

In what method were the eight teams chosen for this tourney. Three of the teams are inferior to high schools in the same respective districts, counties, or leagues that were not invited. The three are Griegsville, Allegany, and Bradford. Hornell is was not at the head of its county but was close to Corning Northside in the league.

I do not condemn the tournament but if it is to be carried out, it should be done right.

H. Warner Waid.

The opinion printed in last week's issue of the Fiat regarding organization of girls' athletics has the backing of the girls of the campus and in response to this there are plans underway for a good "Hash" meeting for all those interested in the organization of girls' athletics, at which time desires and suggestions will be presented. Girls! Watch for the date of this meeting and be there with your ideas on the subject.
