

Alfred University women's soccer team fails to score against Ithaca

9/23/03

ITHACA The Alfred University women's soccer team never got things started in a 6-0 loss to conference rival Ithaca this afternoon. This loss marks the fourth consecutive game that the Lady Saxons (1-5-1, 0-2-1 Empire 8) have failed to produce a score and keeps their overall total goals for the season at five. Leading the scoring for the Bombers was Karla Spence who had two goals and an assist and Michelle Graziadei who had a goal and an assist. Also getting in on the action was Becca Berry, Jaclyn Brisson, and Courtney Allaghi who each had a goal. Recording assists for Ithaca were Amy Pare, Christine Dorney, and Lindsay Ehrenkrantz. The Lady Saxons split time in goal today between freshman Rebecca Pociask (Henniker, NH/John Stark Regional) who had one save and sophomore Brianna Paquette (West Burke, VT/St. Johnsbury Academy) who recorded five saves. Alfred plays next on Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 4 pm on the road against Wells College.
