

Diverse music groups take Alfred University stage for D.O.G. Fest

3/26/15

D.O.G. (Diversity of Genres) Fest will take place on Friday, April 17, at Alfred University's Health and Wellness Center, adjacent to McLane Center on Main Street. The event, which will feature a variety of musical acts, will begin at 8 p.m.; doors open at 7 p.m.

Featured acts include Brooklyn-based American indie-dance band Rubblebucket; Huey Mack, an American hip-hop artist from Morgantown, WV; and singer Zella Day, whose hallmark is her folk/country background.

Admission to D.O.G. Fest will be $5 for AU and Alfred State students and $10 for general admission.
