

Peter Finlay, retired Alfred University biology professor, passes away

3/27/18

ALFRED, NY Peter Finlay, retired professor of biology at Alfred University, passed away Saturday, March 24. He was 93.

Finlay was a professor of biology in Alfred University's College of Liberal Arts & Sciences for 34 years until his retirement in 1990. During this time at AU, he taught a variety of courses including biology, general zoology, cytology and embryology, as well as introductory courses. He was also very active in the Environmental Studies program at Alfred University

Finlay received his bachelor's degree in biology from Williams College, his master's degree from the University of Vermont, and a Ph.D. from Syracuse University.

A complete obituary is forthcoming.