HONORARY FRATERNITIES TO SUPPORT STUDENT ATHLETIC BENEFIT CAMPAIGN

Emerge from Obscurity To Unite in Directing Activities of Suggested Program. Proceeds To Be Used For Benefit of Athletes Alone

The past week has witnessed the inauguration of a student movement on the campus, the activities of which will be directed toward the establishment of a Student Athletic Fund, to be provided and used separately from the finances of the Athletic Association. This movement has been organized and will be guided by the three honorary fraternities of Alfred, which, after an extended period of inactivity, have combined to create a new precedent among such organizations of participation in backing progressive student campaigns.

In view of the fact that the football season shows, as future seasons in other sports will, a real sacrifice on the part of the individual athletes who represent Alfred in intercollegiate sports, Phi Psi Omega and Phi Sigma Gamma in a joint meeting Thursday night, and Eta Mu Alpha at a meeting Friday adopted plans for an active benefit program for these men.

Such a program will be carried out in a manner which will give the students a fair return for money contributed, will at the same time serve to unify the entire campus toward a common goal, and will provide concrete evidence of the school spirit which supports Alfred athletics today. The initial step executing in this plan will take place at the Hallowe'en Dance, at which function the admission tickets will be combined with an attractive program, the proceeds of which will be shared by the Women's Student Government and the Student's Athletic Fund. Following this, the campaign will include such items as football programs for the home games, informal all-college tea dances, dances after basket-ball games and other similar features which will offer the student body a maximum of enjoyment for a minimum charge.

The dispensation of the money turned into this fund will be entirely free of the jurisdiction of the Athletic Association and will have for its purpose the supplying of tangible personal necessities of the individual men. When it is considered that the finan-

FOLLIES CHAIRMAN CHOSEN BY JUNIORS

Frieda Smigrod was chosen as "Junior Follies" chairman to succeed Austin Schullstrom who had resigned, at the Junior class meeting held after assembly Thursday.

Daily Chapel Talks Take Up Subjects Of Interest To All

Chaplain McLeod, in his chapel talk to the student body, during the past week, emphasized the same pertinent ideas of the present day.

In his first talk of the week on, "How to Get Rich," he suggested two ways of getting rich, by increasing one's possessions or decreasing one's desires.

"How Many Have Visited Niagara Falls," the subject of his second discussion, brought out the fact that all the glory of life is not immediate, but that most of it is distant, unseen and eternal.

Other talks of the week were "Getting Into Society," and "Continually We Search for Something New," both of which offered considerable food for thought.

Friday, the chapel service was conducted by Dean Norwood, whose topic, "It is the Set of the Sail and not the Gale, which Determines the Way You Go," proved wide in its application.

WEE PLAYHOUSE TAKES IN NEW MEMBERS; PLAY READ

Mrs. Eva Middaugh and Miss Lydia Conover entertained the Wee Playhouse, Wednesday evening, at the Brick. Miss Elsie Binns gave a short history of the organization from the time it was founded ten years ago until the present, after which Mrs. M. J. Rice read the play "A Question of Principle" by Martin Flavin. Several new members were welcomed into the organization including Chaplain and Mrs. James McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. C. Burdett and Mr. L. Beckerman.

Pep Meeting

There will be a "pep" meeting Thursday night at 7:15 at Kenyon Memorial. Freshmen attendance will be taken.

EXCURSIONS BY AIR POPULAR AT ALFRED

Alfred is not to be left behind in modernism. The Ford tri-motor plane at Hornell attracted the attention of one of the professors of A. U. to such an extent that he organized a flying excursion (not a circus) from Hornell to Alfred and return. Fourteen people set out for the "Wicked City" on Monday morning at eight o'clock. Many of those present took their unpaid tuition bills with them in hopes of—?

The expedition, however, was a failure because the admiral of the ship refused to fly while the "ceiling" was so low. The term "ceiling", new to this section of the globe means dense fog with a steady drizzle. And such was the weather that day. Not daunted by this, the flyers-to-be made arrangements with the birdman to sail from Wellsville if weather permitted.

Tuesday evening atmospheric conditions proved to be the ideal of ideals. The expedition set out again, this time determined to fly or know the reason why. The pilot, on seeing such a determined group, agreed to carry thirteen on the "Alfred by Air" trip.

Those flying included Prof. Titsworth, Prof. Drake, Prof. Starr, and Prof. Cortelyou. Rumor has it that all of the faculty who did not go would have gone, nerve permitting.

BURDICK HALL HAS UNUSUAL ASPECTS

Benglow being a typical Alfred Frosh, felt the urge of indulging in a Friday night date—so he indulged with Rosetta.

Now what to do in Alfred? The solution is to walk and when through walking, walk some more.

Benglow strolled the campus paths, inspecting with rapture the stately college buildings—especially Burdick Hall. Benglow was particularly proud of his rooming-place. His fond eyes were caressing the old building from top to bottom when—plo! Rosetta was in his arms.

Benglow murmured to himself, "Oh, this is so sudden." Searching the horizon for a just cause of this sudden falling, Benglow's eyes encountered a disturbing picture—what? His roommates in a startling degree of nudity were making a rather striking silhouette against a blare of electric light.

VARSITY SHOWS FIGHTING FOOTBALL; SUPERIORITY OVER OPPONENTS EVIDENT

PHI SIGMA GAMMA ELECTS SECRETARY

At a meeting of Phi Sigma Gamma held last Tuesday, Dorothy Hallock was elected secretary of the organization to replace Ortense Potter, who was unable to return to Alfred this year because of illness. Plans were drawn up for backing the student campaign for a material support of Alfred's athletes.

Coach E. A. Heers Explains Football Game in Assembly

In the absence of "Fighting Joe" Hanley at the assembly last Thursday, Coach Heers arose to the occasion and gave an interesting speech on football, bringing to the attention of his audience the salient points of the game. He explained the positions and plays of the offensive and defensive, rules for tackling, passing and other moves. "Watch the fellows other than the one with the ball," said the Coach, "Each man on the team has his own play to make which is as important as the play made by the man carrying the ball." The Coach's speech aptly proceeded the home game of the following day.

RETURNING ALUMNI GATHER AT HOME- COMING BANQUET

Thirty-five of Alfred's ex-sons and daughters were united at the Alumni Banquet at Hills last Saturday evening. Most of the classes from 1900 to the present were well represented and prior to these were Mr. J. J. Merrill '84, and Dean Dora K. Degen '98. After dinner all those not attending sorority or fraternity functions adjourned to the community house for a few hours of pleasant reminiscing. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sutton, recently returned from China, where Mrs. Sutton is a medical missionary and Mr. Sutton a professor of Chemistry, related their experiences. An interesting talk was also given by an Ag School graduate of his sojourn in Peru. The other alumni recounted their experiences since they have been out in the world.

MacFadden, Staiman and Servatius Score Touchdowns, Backed By Good Offensive Line; Strong Purple Defense Halts Juniata Progress

Displaying one of the best brands of football that has been seen on Merrill Field for some time, the Purple gave Juniata a decisive beating Friday, crossing the goal line three times to win by a score of 21-0. The invaders threatened the locals' goal twice in the first few minutes when two passes were grounded behind the line. The Purple recovered from the surprise and started a march down the field where MacFadden skirted right end for the first score of the game. Staiman counted the extra point when he plunged over the line from the two yard mark.

The second score came as the result of an intercepted pass on Juniata's 37 yard line. Six plays took the ball to the ten yard line and Staiman swept his left end for a touchdown. Servatius booted the ball between the uprights from placement.

Servatius scored the last touchdown after MacFadden had returned a punt 40 yards to the ten yard line.

The locals outclassed their opponents in every phase of the game, the line charging fast and leading interference for the backs who made substantial gains through tackle and around the ends. Fenner as an interfering back made many long runs possible and Perrone playing his first full game at end was one of the outstanding men on the line, breaking through consistently to throw the man with the ball for a loss. Andrews starred for the visitors.

THE GAME

Alfred won the toss and elected to receive. Laporte kicked off to Kickham who returned the ball to his own forty yard line. Staiman broke through right tackle and registered a first down on Juniata's 47 yard line. MacFadden was thrown for a four yard loss, Fenner failed to gain and Servatius punted out of bounds on Juniata's 40 yard line. Petty hit left tackle for nine yards. Andrews crashed the line for a first down on Alfred's 46 yard line. Andrews, Petty, and Harley carried the ball to the 25 yard line where the Alfred defense stiffened. Juniata

Homecoming Day Awakens Memories, Reminiscences

Homecoming! What a thrill it inspires in the "old grads" to come back again to their Alma Mater, back to old friends that seem but little changed. There are new faces and new buildings, but the traditions that have been Alfred's for so long maintain a welcome for their sons and daughters in the world.

So they return to shake hands with old time classmates, to reminisce. Yet there comes a feeling of regret at seeing the changes in their friends and watching the husky football heroes of their time sitting in the stands with young matrons aglow with coed remembrances. This tinge of sadness lasts for but a moment until the rush of many greetings makes the past the present once more.

No, the 1929 Homecoming is a thing gone by. To the students it meant a football game, parties, fun; to the alumni it was a step into the past, the re-living of undergraduate days. It is over, but its passing brings a hope for the future, its football victory prophesys the same for the year to come, and plans are already a-fot for a successful 1930 reunion.

Newcomer To Alfred Seems Appreciative of Campus

There is a newcomer on the campus whom all have probably heard about, but do not fully appreciate. In fact, she seems to be somewhat of a mythical character.

Gwendolyn, for that is her name, is the newly acquired friend of one of the coeds. Each Thursday afternoon Gwendolyn may be seen headed toward Almond with a group of friends, usually to return before darkness approaches.

It is a generally accepted fact for which there is quite sufficient evidence that Gwendolyn belongs to the era of horseless carriages, yet this is no reason to receive the impression she is antique. To the contrary, she is quite a speedy girl, with graceful lines, sound chassis, large glistening eyes which may be even seen on a real dark night,—in fact, to sum up all her traits she has what Clara Bow calls 'IT'.

For those who should seek her address, her favorite parking place seems to be under a tree near Theta Chi. In case some have become unduly concerned as to this lady's conduct, it might be explained the Gwendolyn is an Essex Coach, any jealousy she may have inspired is entirely unfounded.

Students' Athletic Fund

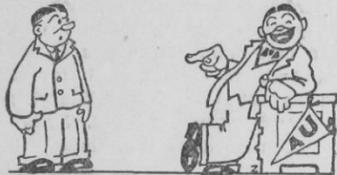

As "great oaks from little acorns grow", so the three honorary fraternities look forward to a future in which the Students' Athletic Fund will be a powerful factor in the progress of Alfred's athletics, utilizing the energies of the student body for the worthwhile cause of responding to the needs of the athletes themselves and not to the impersonal deficits of the Athletic Association at large.

When it becomes as apparent as it is today that a crisis in athletics approaches, it is evident that something should be done. School spirit has lately been at the highest pitch it has reached for many years; the students are ready, yes, anxious to give the hard-working athletes their support—yet, thus far, the mere voicing of sentiment has been their medium of expression. Here is an objective for which to strive, and a practical way to achieve it—who shall take upon their shoulders the responsibility of making an actuality of the idea?

Phi Psi Omega, an honorary fraternity recognizing prominent men in various activities, Phi Sigma Gamma doing the same for women, and Eta Mu Alpha, honorary scholastic fraternity, have been in the background of student affairs for many years, ready for such an emergency. Now the opportunity for real service has arisen, and the three have banded together to institute a campaign which they hope will become a permanent tradition of student support, and which, to become this, must be backed voluntarily and individually by every student. There ought to be a 100% enlistment in this program which aims to help supply athletes with a training table and to give them their individual awards—and, should the Fund be large enough to answer numerous other needs of the situation.

Programs, if only for the sake of remembrance should be appreciated by all attending the Hallowe'en Dance, football enthusiasts, as we all are, seek programs at the home games and Inter-scholastic Day; tea dances on Friday afternoons when games are out of town would end up a week's work with a good time in an inexpensive fashion, and post-basketball dances should provide everyone with the means to celebrating a quintet victory. Does not a campaign based upon such items seem worth your while, student body?

The Student Athletic Fund has been introduced to supply the personal essentials in Alfred's Athletics, to give the tangible support of the students in sports, and to further the best in the progressive aims and ideals on the campus. It cannot be expected that its attainments the first year will be startlingly great, but it can be successful in a small way which will breed the potentialities of increasing returns in the future. The finest and most representative of Alfred's students are willing to back it with real work—are you loyal enough to be ready to enjoy yourself in the ways they offer in order to further the cause?

Speaking of airplanes, refer to the Air Tour of Alfred and then try to answer these.

Who resembles Paul Revere in descending on fraternities, sororities, and individuals at midnight, long after formal sleeping hours? Why did the pilot land on one wheel when before this trip he had made perfect "three point" landings?

It might be well to note that the skipper of the Ford was good looking. We believe this because, whereas there were only two representatives of the fairer variety on the first expedition, there were four on the second.

in the past year that the athletes have had to buy their own letters and numerals, and pay in part for their board at the training table in addition to other expenditures, this is evident, that the prevention of such personal financial sacrifice on the part of Alfred athletes is a worthy aim of this student benefit campaign.

With the emergence of these honorary groups into an atmosphere of active work for Alfred, it is hoped that the student body as a whole will lend its energies to the carrying on of the plans for the Alfred Students' Athletic Fund.

Harriers Bow To Cornell Outfit

The Cornell Hill and Dalers avenged last year's beating by routing the Alfred Harriers by a perfect score of 45-15, finishing five men before a Purple runner scored. At the three mile point, however, Alfred was holding a strategic position with Hughes, Vance and Graham, dogging the Cornell pace-setters, Captain Levering and Ramsey followed in seventh and eight places by Zschiegner and Flint.

Shortly after the passing of this mark, Hughes and Graham were forced out by exhaustion and the Alfred line finished with Vance leading, Zschiegner, Razey, Flint and Warde in their respective positions. Other Alfred competitors were Burdick, Thompson, and Galizio, who completed the distance in the order named.

The Cornell group crossed the tape with Captain Levering taking first in the remarkable fast time of 26 minutes 6.1-5 seconds, finishing 50 yards in front of Ramsey, who was second in place.

Throughout the race the Saxon Harriers showed a fighting spirit which was especially personified in Captain "Chick" Zschiegner who, after ten days detention from the team due to severe muscle strain, ran at a gritty pace the length of the course.

The Saxon's next meet is with Franklin and Marshall on the home course, where better results may be expected.

SPORT LIGHTS

By Wutz

Football followers had predicted another dull season for Alfred's football team. Their predictions sounded fine until last Friday when the Saxons mowed down Juniata and proved that there was fight and ability in every man on the Alfred squad. Juniata, the conquerors of John Hopkins and Drexel, went down to ignominious defeat. The stage is set for further victories. The fight that glimmered and died out in the Hamilton game, kept burning for an entire game Friday. That fight is here to stay.

Niagara is next in line. Coach Hecker, a new mentor at the Falls City, will lead his charges into Alfred next Friday and they will taste the bitter medicine administered by a fighting horde of Saxons. Alfred with restored confidence and a taste of victory, is on even terms with the Niagarans. Spirit and enthusiasm are high on the campus, the fighting spirit has been uncovered and the cobwebs and dust accumulated during its idleness has been swept off.

The cross-country team met a sad setback at Cornell Friday. However, Cornell is considerably stronger this year than it has been in sometime. The team there is well-balanced and capable of finishing far ahead of last year's team. The Alfred Harriers ran a fine race, with the seasoning run over, they should enter into a schedule of victories.

The Frosh atoned for the Hornell defeat when they bumped off Rochester Yearlings Saturday. This year's Saxon Frosh squad is a promise for future Saxon Varsityes of repute.

Varsity teams in football and cross-country and the Frosh Gridmen deserve a big hand. Three fighting teams—a phenomena to the present college generation. A dream come true—back it up.

Where is the pessimist who flipped his Murad into the gutter and prophesied more defeats?

LOVE

Dangerous subject, you will say
For a lad as young as I
But I know the game from A to Z,
And I'm safe from the feminine eyes.

My sophomore year I fell in love,
And donned the rose-hued glasses,
But presently found, after thought profound
That those in love are asses.
As a junior, loaded down with work,
I was cynical, snooty and wise,
But surprisingly fell, for a pair
Of,—what color were her eyes?

Grave old senior, I see the game
And on and on it goes—
Not to be fooled—but still—

Inter Fraternity Council

Last Tuesday evening, a meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Council was held at Klan Alpine house at 7:30 P. M. It was suggested that feeling on the subject of an all-fraternity banquet should be sounded. Then, if it is possible, a banquet for fraternities only will be held sometime in the near future.

VARSIITY TO TACKLE NIAGARA ON FRIDAY

Friday will see a powerful Niagara Team invade the Saxon stronghold. Coach Hecker's men dropped their first two games to Cornell and Penn State and won the third from St. John. They just nosed out St. Lawrence by a 7-6 score, while Alfred drubbed Juniata 21-0, last week. Up to date, the Heersmen have held Hamilton to a 6-6 tie, lost hard fought games to Rochester, Clarkson, and Buffalo, and handed Juniata a severe trouncing.

The Saxon team escaped unscathed from last week's fray and with the return of Delaney, who was injured in the Rochester game, should present a fit and strong combination against the highly-touted Niagara bunch. This fact, together with the knowledge that an Alfred team is most dangerous on its home field, predicts a hard time for the visitors.

Last year, Alfred suffered a 26-0 defeat at the hands of Niagara, at Niagara. Coach Heers is grooming his men, and hopes to show Niagara a brand of football such as was displayed last week against Juniata.

The starting line-up will probably be: Perrone and Robinson ends, Kickham and Lockwood tackles, Grantier and Regan guards, and Captain Armstrong center; in the backfield, Staiman, Servatius, Fenner, and MacFadden.

FROSH VICTORIOUS AT ROCHESTER, 6-0

The Frosh gridmen having realized and corrected their weak-points out in Hornell game, journeyed to Rochester, where they took Jack Wilson's U. of R. team into camp by a 6-0 score.

The contest was one bitterly contested throughout, the completion of a long forward pass from Barton to Murray deciding the game. Coach McLane's protege's kept the ball almost entirely in Rochester territory, up until the final quarter, when Rochester gave a final spurt for victory but failed in what seemed to be the start of a march down the field, due to the constant interception of their passes by Alfred's yearling team.

Campus Court

At the meeting of Campus Court a week ago one of the upperclassmen present declared that personal feeling had entered into one of the discussions regarding a freshman that had been on trial that evening. The jury cast ballots a second time and arrived at the same decision. The jury answered the upperclassman's charge by revealing that not a single word that was in any way prejudiced had been mentioned during the trial nor while a decision was being reached.
