Frost Defeat Rochester

Commercialis By 31-15

The Alfred Frost quintet emerged from the court Saturday night with an excellent victory chalked up to their credit, having defeated the Rochester Business School 31-15. The Frost team was successful in their game schedule and the team, although their practice schedule was not so fruitful, in a few weeks, played a clever brand of basketball which proves it to be an excellent season.

The entire team played fine ball. The back foursome centered their consistently on full court. Shpoler, Hinman, and Van Dusen showed promise. Davis, Co. and Flanders, secured a first string lineup, played fine basketball.

Co-eds Allowed Use of Track and Field House

Under the auspices of Miss N. Ship-

THETA THETA CHI HOLDS FALL PARTY

A holiday atmosphere seemed to cover the student tower last Thursday evening. Opening the program was the annual turkey and the gaily decorated Christmas tree, as well as the tunes emanating from Ted Sieberg's organist.

At the chaperone's dance were: Choplin and Miss M.L. Mills, Miss New-\n

With one of the best schedules and of the Alfred wrestling team has had in years, the Purple grapplers, under the tutelage of James McLean, are working out daily in the Davis Track and Field House.

The lightweight aspirant, from the 160 to the 170 class, are all seasoned men, including such veterans as Bill Finley, Bob Hambleton, and Sallies. Feil, Frost and former Rich-\n chester high school grappler, has more considerable experience and is slowing up well.

WEE PLAYHOUSE: has BI-WEEKLY MEETING

Thirty-six members and guests of the Wee Playhouse met at the home of Mrs. Upton and Clark on Wednesday evening, December 1. As is the custom, the production of A. M. Miller's "The Man in the Bowler Hat" proved most successful. The evening will be held December 17, with Dr. and Mrs. Prunier. An art play will be read and discussed as a possibility for production in February during the week of the 17th.

A banquet at Hill's Coffee Shoppe preceded the Kappa Psi Upsilon Fall Formal which was held in Temperance Hall, Thursday evening, Dec. 5. to the rhythms of the Twentieth Century(decemvirs of Curing). In the enjoyment of the guests, time was forgotten until the hour of midnight depended a farewell to festivities.

The arrival of Joe Merck and Rhee, three geese at the enter-ly themselves at the entrance of Temperance Hall, was broken in upon by perusing the University Notes for December in the Alfred Sun of 1883:

"The winter term begins December 12th."

Kappa Psi Upsilon has Seasonal Formal.
