

artSite in Wellsville will feature AU graduate students "Gone Wild"

11/13/03

Faculty and graduate students from the School of Art & Design at Alfred University will exhibit their work in three shows at artSite, 114 N. Main St., Wellsville. "Graduate Students Gone Wild," featuring the work of first-year graduate students, will be on display during a reception from 5-8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 14. The exhibition and the reception are open to the public. "Cabin Fever" will include work by 12 AU faculty members. An reception, open to the public, from 6-9 p.m. Friday, Nov. 21, will mark the opening of the exhibition. Showing their work will be Diane Cox, associate professor of sculpture; Sanam Emani, adjunct assistant professor; Cadence Giersbach, assistant professor of drawing, painting and photography; Brett Hunter, assistant professor of sculpture; Ed Luce, adjunct instructor; Mary Lum, professor of painting; Darrin Martin, visiting assistant professor of expanded media; Ted Morgan, chairperson of Freshman Foundation; Judy Ross, assistant professor of graphic design; Angie To, assistant professor of art; Kathleen Thum, visiting assistant professor; and Kathy Vajda, adjunct assistant professor. "Observations and Revelations," an installation of work by Judi Strahota, assistant professor of sculpture, will be on display Dec. 6, with a reception from 6-9 p.m.