

Alfred University counselor reflects on her first year on the job

6/28/18

Elena Yee

ALFRED, NY Elena Yee, a counselor in Alfred University's Wellness Center, has had an article published on the website of the American Counseling Association in which she reflects on her first year on the job at Alfred.

The article, titled "A New Job...One Year Later," was posted June 22 on the ACA Member Blogs. In the piece, Yee talks about her experiences during the last year, after she came to Alfred University from Rhode Island College following completion of her graduate studies. Read the entire article here.

Yee earned a master's degree in clinical mental health counseling from Rhode Island College in 2017. She interned for two years (2015-17) at Bryant University's Counseling Center, and has worked in higher education in student affairs for fourteen years.

She was director of intercultural programs at Westmont College in Santa Monica, CA, from 2000-11. She served as director of the Student Multicultural Activities Office and Balfour United Center at Providence College, from 2011-14 before beginning her graduate studies at Rhode Island College.