Extension Director Submits New Plan For History Classes

Director Albert James Coe of the Alfred University Extension at Jamestown recently submitted a plan to Dean Alfred E. Whitford, whereby classes in history, political science, sociology and economics at the school may become noted through a policy of welcoming outstanding visiting lecturers in many special fields.

Urging the adoption of the plan, Mr. Coe stated "There is a saying with considerable truth in it that a prophet is without honor in his own country. Right here in this community are several individuals with much specialized knowledge and experience who could put a lot of information into fifty-five minute lectures."

WSG To Draw Up New Constitution

Margaret Hopkins '44, President of the WSG, Ruth Weitz '45 Margaret Long '45 and Theone Allen '45 are members of the Committee which is drafting a new Constitution for the Women's Student Government.

Each Council member has had the opportunity of submitting suggestions for the Constitution offered by the girls in the house she represents. All these suggestions will be considered by the committee.

The work on the document is progressing satisfactorily and the committee hopes to have it ready for ratification in the near future.

Secretary to Dean

Miss Grace Marsteiner, formerly of Eastman Kodak Company, has taken the position of secretary to Dean M. E. Holmes, beginning February 1st. She replaces Miss Alice Neiderhauser, who has resigned. Miss Neiderhauser held the position since 1936, during which time she established an excellent record.

New Training Course Opened At Ag School

A new course in refrigeration and appliance service, sponsored by the Federal War Training Program will be offered in the near future at the New York State Agricultural and Technical Institute in Alfred.

This is the first evening course in the refrigeration service to be made available to interested students and workers in the Hornell, Alfred and Wellsville areas. A large number of trained personnel is needed at the present time and this field has a bright outlook for the future.

Admission requirements for this new course are not as rigid as those for previous courses. High school students are eligible to take the work under certain conditions, and the course is open to both men and women.

A recent survey of the demand for a course in refrigeration service has shown that a considerable number of persons has already expressed a desire for this program.

Preliminary blanks for registering may be secured by writing Herman E. Sicker, Supervisor of the War Training Program, Alfred, New York. Applications should be returned as soon as possible.

Rev. Edward Gill To Address ACF Meeting Sunday

Rev. Edward P. Gill, a native of Trinidad in the British West Indies, will speak on "The Race Picture in Latin America" at ACF next Sunday.

Rev. Gill, now of Bolivar, New York, was educated in Trinidad and taught school there before coming to study at the University of Rochester. He has studied the race problems and traveled widely in the Latin American area.

The Forum is scheduled for 7:45 Sunday evening in Susan Howell Social Hall. All are cordially invited.

Nine Organizations Granted Charters

Nine campus organizations were granted charters and representation on the Student Senate last Tuesday night.

Applications of these various groups were reviewed and checked against the requirements set up in the new constitution. Each organization was allowed one representative.

The following campus groups are the ones which were accepted: Pi Alpha Pi, Sigma Chi Nu, Theta Theta Chi, Kappa Psi Upsilon, The Castle, Brookside, Klan Cottage and Annex, Roger's Annex and Independents.

Mrs. Russell Resigns Post As Counselor

Latest addition to the University's administrative staff is Miss Mary M. Coleman of Buffalo. Assuming her new duties on February 1, Miss Coleman succeeds Mrs. Ruth Whitford Russell as assistant Counselor to Prospective Students.

The new member of the "Alumni Office" staff comes with varied educational and business experience. In order to accept the position at Alfred, she has just resigned from a position as Release Writer and Unit Head in the Engineering Release Department of Curtiss-Wright's Division in Buffalo. During her two years with Curtiss Wright, Miss Coleman's responsibilities steadily increased. Selected with one other member of the Departmental staff of 140 persons, she was sent to St. Louis last summer to establish her particular line of work in the Corporation's new plant there.

Miss Coleman is no stranger in Alfred, for she is a graduate of the College of Liberal Arts, has visited here frequently, and has been an active member of the Buffalo Alumni group, of which she was President a few years ago. After earning the B. S. degree in 1924, Miss Coleman entered teaching. During the next nine years she taught mathematics and history in the high schools of Ovid, Arcade, Williamson, and Horseheads.

Her business experience began in the Buffalo department store of the William Hengerer Company. For the nine years before going to Curtiss-Wright, Miss Coleman was assistant buyer for the glove and then for the art goods departments. Her continued educational interests, however, led to evening courses at the University of Buffalo and the Albright Art Gallery. While she was teaching at Horseheads, Miss Coleman studied sociology at Elmira College.

To help orient her successor in the varied duties of the office, Mrs. Russell will continue on a part-time basis for the next several weeks. While Miss Coleman will, in addition to prospective student work, also participate in the alumni activities of the office. Mrs. Russell will continue to be Secretary of the Alumni Association until the organization meets and elects a successor.

Commenting upon this change in the personnel of his office, Mr. John Reed Spicer said, "In both scope and nature our work has changed radically since Mrs. Russell and I undertook it eight years ago. When we started in prospective student activities, we didn't even handle the distribution of catalogues; now we are responsible for publishing them. In 1936 the circulation of the Alumni News was 2,600; now it is 5,000. It has been distinctly a joint enterprise. For what proportion of the growth Mrs. Russell has been responsible, I doubt if even she knows, and I am sure she doesn't care. I am certain only that many of the more creditable things that have been done and much of the present character of the office would not have been possible without Mrs. Russell's hearty cooperation. I am pleased that we have been able to get Miss Coleman, and I have great confidence in her, but neither she nor I hope for anything better than that she can fill Mrs. Russell's shoes."

Social Hall Closed

Social Hall will be closed this week until Friday, according to Dean Dora K. Degen. This is due to the absence of Mrs. Ray W. Wingate, hostess.

Plans Nearing Completion For CCC Campaign

Plans for the launching of the Campus Community Chest on Lincoln's Birthday, February 12 are rapidly being completed.

On Thursday, February 10, the Boy Scouts of Troop 19 will distribute leaflets giving information regarding the Chest to the homes of the community. Ceramic Art students are preparing posters which will be displayed on the campus and in the town. The local branch of the Red Cross Organization will also cooperate in the campaign.

Mr. B. F. Crump has been designated by Mayor C. C. Potter to head the community solicitation. Faculty solicitation will be directed by Dr. Murray J. Rice and Acting Co-Director T. A. Parish.

Student committees are being set up by the student members of the Executive Committee: Margaret Lord '44, Isobel Dobson '45, John Busch '44, Robert Meyer '44 and Sheryl Wilbur of the Ag-Tech Institute.

A complete list of solicitors will be announced next week.

Raymond Smith Ex-'42 Earns Navy Wings

According to a news release made by the Office of Public Relations of the U. S. Naval Air Training Center, Pensacola, Fla., Raymond C. Smith, Jr. ex '42, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Smith of Pelham, won his Navy "Wings of Gold" and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve two weeks ago following completion of the prescribed flight training course at the Naval Training Center, Pensacola, Fla., the "Annapolis of the Air."

Having been designated a Naval Aviator, Lt. Smith will go on active duty at one of the Navy's air operational training centers before being assigned to a combat zone.

Prior to entering the Naval Service Smith attended Alfred University for two years.

Ceramists Organize At Buffalo Meeting

An organization known as the Up State New York Section of the American Ceramic Society was inaugurated at a meeting called in Buffalo last week by Dean M. E. Holmes.

There are about 125 members of the American Ceramic Society in Up-State New York, many of whom can never go to the national convention. This new organization will bring to their own communities meetings in which they can participate.

While this organization has no official connection with the Ceramic College of Alfred University, it does center around the College as a nucleus. For this reason and other reasons it is of considerable local interest. It will have important influence in attracting students to Alfred. It will give our students opportunities to meet other ceramists socially and professionally. Some of the meetings will promote the interests of this institution, the American Ceramic Society and its members.

In addition to Dean Holmes, Dr. S. R. Scholes, Prof Charles Amberg, Prof Charles Harder, Prof John McMahon, Prof. Robert Campbell and Miss Alice Flannigan attended the meeting.

ERC, ASTP Trainees Begin New Semester; Three Terms Taught

Forty-four First, Second Termers Make Honor Ratings

Approximately the same number of ERC and ASTP students as have been previously stationed at Alfred are enrolled in the Army Specialized Training Program classes which have just resumed work after a week's recess. This semester all three terms of the Specialized Training Program are being taught instead of only two as during past terms.

Pres. Norwood Urges Success Of CCC Drive

Mayor Clifford M. Potter and President J. Nelson Norwood have accepted the positions as Honorary Co-Chairmen of the Campus-Community Chest. Mayor Potter, who has heartily endorsed and cooperated with the Chest idea since its inception, could not be reached for a statement. President Norwood, in accepting the invitation said:

"I am much interested in the coming campaign for the joint Campus-Community Chest drive here which is to take place between the birthdays of our two greatest Americans, February 12 and 22. I appreciate the honor of being asked to accept with Mayor C. M. Potter, the honorary co-chairmanship.

"I am sure that faculty, students and townspeople will join heartily in this effort. No one will question the complete worthiness of the benefiting organizations, namely, The American Red Cross, the National War Fund, the Boy Scouts of America, and the Campfire Girls. The sum asked for these four is $3,200, which, plus the $100 for unexpected emergency calls, makes up the total requirement of $3,300.

"I urge the people of the Alfred community and campus to make sure that this drive succeeds. Alfred has always done its patriotic duty. It surely will not fail at this time when need is so great."

St. Valentine Dance Promises Surprises

February 14 is St. Valentine's Day. And February 12 is the day of the big all-campus Valentine's Dance, sponsored by Kappa Psi, and chocked full of the spirit of the occasion. Prizes and special events are in the offing, and to climax the evening will be the variety show of variety shows—laughs, skills, tricks to amuse you, scare you, and dumfounded you.

Of course, all the attractions haven't completely planned yet. And, naturally, there are some that are strictly "military" secrets. But we happen to know, from authoritative sources, that a certain Meissner-Large duo has been practising on some sweet love songs. In fact, we hear tell that there will be a whole medley of music to remind us of the patron saint of cupid and his victims. Mix this with a little fun, a little tomfoolery, and oodles of appropriate ornaments, and you have the Valentine's Dance.

The time, 9:00 till 12:00. The place, South Hall gym. The date, February 12. I'll be there. Will you?

Of the new first term reservists approximately one third have had previous college work amounting to at least one summer semester. These men will remain in the ERC until the term ending just after their eighteenth birthday when they will be inducted into the Army and sent to basic training camps.

With the exception of a few first term men who were sent to other schools to complete their training, all of last semester's first and second term trainees who successfully passed all examinations have returned to complete their second and third term work at Alfred.

A total of forty-four trainees, both ERC and ASTP, completed their previous courses with honor marks, and have had their names placed on the honor roll. This honor roll corresponds very closely with the regular University Dean's list and is published at the end of each term.

Following are the names of those who have maintained honor standings:

Leo Adler, Robert N. Brigham, Daniel L. Neill, Arthur M. Rothman, William A. Schmit, Nathan M. Simon, Dan E. Antenen, Eugene V. Avery, John W. Cappel, Dale A. Carlson, Paul D. Edwards, William A. Huber, Walter John, William Koontz, Edwin R. Humiston.

Henry A. Larson, Hugh D. Stuart, John D. Walker, Lawrence J. Ebert, William A. Paulson, Walter Probert, John W. Schreiber, Henry W. Albert, Morris J. Coff, Robert W. Crawford, Isidore Fleischer, Edward Gottfried, Charles W. Herrick, Arris M. Johnson, Amrom Kodess.

A Lack Of Definition

Last Thursday night "partisan" and "bystander" became two of the most frequently used words in student vocabularies as the much favored bull session and collegiate lab topic—shall we get married now or after the war—stepped into second place for a few hours to allow further discussion of the unanswered and even unasked questions which resulted from the IRC roundtable forum. On into the early hours of the morning the partisans took their stands on the discussion and its implications until a minority of bystanders, becoming partisans in an effort to secure conditions conducive to sleep, forced the group to disband.

Perhaps the outstanding conclusion reached during some of these post forum sessions is that most of us as partisans don't really know where we stand on most of the current issues, whether they have to do with the world in general, with activities at Alfred, or with our personal lives. It is clear that we cannot sit down someplace and let someone else do all of our thinking, and our talking, and our acting for us. But it is also clear that few issues are well enough defined to allow us to choose sides in a grammar school fashion and pitch in and fight.

We find that we can't be all Republican nor all Democrat; all pro-war or all anti-war; we decry race prejudice but we are prejudiced against some races. Even when we find that we must make a definite decision, we are confused by words which strike us emotionally rather than intellectually; we become aware that we don't know the facts but rather someone's interpretations of them; we discover that we are barred from the world by a wall of self interest that we've built up over a period of time during which we've tried playing bystander. We could benefit by some further discussions in which we can all be partisans.

Community Chest Supports Student Service Fund

One of the most important contributing agencies of the National War Fund, which our Campus Community Chest helps to support, is the World Student Service Fund.

The World Student Service Fund represents the National War Fund on our American college campuses. This organization whose motto is "of students, by students, and for students" is the only organization on many campuses that is continuing educational and relief work. Its funds are disbursed to ex-college students who are now prisoners of war in enemy prison camps. The World Student Service Fund works in cooperation with the War Prisoner's Aid of the Y. M. C. A., the United China Relief and other agencies in the National War Fund in carrying out this work.

Last year the faculty and students of the Alfred University contributed $370.30 toward the relief of their colleagues and fellow-students. Practically every other college and university in New York State also contributed to this worthy cause.

The need for contributions to the World Student Service Fund is great.

Fiat Staff Invites New Writers To Meet

Tryouts for positions on the Fiat Staff are still in progress. These tryouts consist in the filling of an editorial position.

The regular meetings of the staff will take place tonight in Physics Hall. The editorial board will meet at 7:30 and the news staff at 7:45.

All who are interested in newspaper work are invited to attend.

er than ever before. Part of the money raised in the Alfred Campus Community Chest drive from February 12 to 22 will be turned over to this relief agency. So come on, Alfredians, support the Campus Community Chest and make this the most successful campaign in Alfred's history. Who knows, maybe the money you give will be used to help one of your own fellow-students in a prison camp.

Dick says he is enjoying a twenty-day leave (with pay) before he flies his plane to San Diego, preparatory to boarding a carrier for the Pacific. To visiting Alfred "... ah!"

When asked if Alfred seemed any different to him, Ens. Richard E. He misses dropping snow balls from the top of the Rosebush Apartments, but is now dropping the real McCoy.

Zegler gave us information about other Delta Sig men: Ens. "Mike" Green '42, is a Physical Ed. instructor on the destroyer USS Erben; Pvt. ## THE SOCIAL SWING

by Genevieve Mezey

This past weekend was a comparatively quiet one for the Alfred campus and if anyone inquires why this weekend was any different from any other one, they are apt to get the reply, "Furlough". Yes, Alfred's social activity dies down considerably when the ASTP fellows get their long awaited leaves.

From three to five Saturday afternoon, the student nurses were entertained at tea by Pi Alpha. Decorations consisted of flowers and candlelight and there was a background of soft music. Refreshments were in charge of Elaine Beckstrand '44; Minnie Negro '44 was chairman of the decoration committee; the invitation committee was headed by Jean Moore '46 and music was in charge of Margaret Knight '46. Members of the faculty who poured were Mrs. George Hobart, Mrs. Clarence Mitchell, Mrs. Grace Eggleston and Mrs. Murray J. Rice.

The Castle entertained at dinner several times this past week. Jewel Karpel '47 was a guest Monday night. Eve Rhodies '47 was Tuesday night's guest and Leah Raptis '46 was a guest Thursday evening. Mrs. Dora K. Degan was the Sunday dinner guest.

Mrs. Lillian Desoe and Miss G. Storh were dinner guests at Sigma Chi last Tuesday evening.

Formal initiation services for Phil Dewey '47 and Chuck Batherick '47 took place at Kappa Psi last Sunday.

Beverly Longfritz '47, Eve Rhodies '47, and Janet Wright '47, were overnight guests at the home of Hannah Saunders '47, last Friday.

Katherine Swanson '45, Gloria Burchell '45, Margaret Lore '47, and Barbara Guillaume '47 became members of Theta Chi last Monday night when formal initiation services took place.
