

ALFRED TROUNCES ST. LAWRENCE WITH FOUR REGULARS ABSENT FROM LINE-UP

Although handicapped by the loss of four men during the week, the Varsity track team registered its second victory in as many starts when the St. Lawrence tracksters bowed before the Saxons 73-58 at Canton last Saturday. Percy, star all-around athlete at St. Lawrence, took high scoring honors by virtue of first places in the 100 and 220 yd. dashes and broad jump. Robinson and Havens followed with thirteen and twelve points respectively.

Percy negotiated the century in 9.9 seconds and came back a little later to step off the 220 in 22.2 seconds, leaving no question as to his ability as a sprinter. Ryskind took a second in the 100, but could do no better than a third in the 220. Shappee ran a nice 440 to win in 53.1 seconds while Obourn was just nosed out for second place in the event. Robinson and Buckley took first and second in the high hurdles but Diamond came back in the lows to give the Larries a first in that event, with Robinson and Buckley taking second and third respectively.

Robinson also took a first in the shot put with a heave of 34 feet. Vance, after taking a second in the mile which was won by Warde, then stepped out to take the half mile in the fast time of 2 minutes and 1 second. Warde also captured the two mile run.

Havens showed up well in the field events, capturing the discus, tying with Carpenter in the pole vault for first place and taking the high jump with Maroney and Commons to sweep the latter event. Shappee and McFadden took second places in the broad jump and javelin respectively to complete Alfred's harvest in the field events.

With the return of Merck, Graham and Roe into shape this week, the Purple and Gold aggregation will be considerably bolstered up to present a powerful team at the Conference meet in Rochester Saturday.

Summary:

100 Yard Dash—Percy (L), first; Ryskind (A), second; Calafati (L), third. Time, 9.9 seconds.

220 Yard Dash—Percy (L), first; Calafati (L) second; Ryskind (A), third. Time, 22.2 seconds.

440 Yard Dash—Shappee (A), first; Chase (L), second; Obourn (A), third. Time, 53.1 seconds.

120 High Hurdles—Robinson (A), first; Buckley (A), second; Diamond (L), third. Time, 17.4 seconds.

Student Body Has Senate Election

Last Thursday in Assembly the student body balloted on the various class nominations for student senate offices. Only three classes made nominations due to the fact that the Seniors' undergraduate careers end at Commencement, three weeks from tomorrow.

Saxone Ward was elected as the Freshman Class representative to the senate by a large majority. William Kingsley, also of the Frosh Class, received a large number of votes, but failed to reach a majority ballot.

As the new Sophomore Class representatives, Harold Shappee and Claire Greene were the winning nominees. The former succeeds himself in the senate, having served in that group during the past year.

Sidney DeLaney and John Grantier also were re-elected to that body as representatives of the Class of 1932. Janet Reamer was the third representative. To complete the new personnel of the ruling body, Dale Lockwood '32, as the Judge of the Campus Court, automatically becomes the seventh member of the group.

Lockwood Gets Court Judgeship

Among the major elections of last week, Mervin Dale Lockwood was chosen to succeed J. Wilbur Carr as Judge of Campus Court. The alternate judgeship went to Harlon R. Reiter.

Frank Mazza '32, also succeeded the new judge as the Clerk of Court. Mazza is the third student to hold this office, the position being a comparatively new part of the court. Replacing Blawat and Reiter, the court selected Jay Ryskind '33, and Edwin Claire Green '33, as the attorneys for the coming year. The new alternate attorney is Robert Berls '33.

The new court will start to function within the next week, holding sway until the end of the present semester.

SCALP AND BLADE MAKES NOMINATIONS

The Scalp and Blade Society members deliberated at considerable length last week before making their nominations for Alfred's most outstanding athlete. Each member was permitted to make five nominations on his ballot slip. All of the nominees were members of the Senior Class.

The ballots then were handed to the members of Alfred's coaching staff for final consideration. In making their choice, the coaches must pick one of the nominees on the Scalp and Blade ballots. The winner of the award will be announced in Assembly during the Moving-up Day exercises on May 28.

The coaches intend to base their individual choices on sportsmanship, general ability, achievement and interest.

SOPHOMORES CHOSE HISERODT, PRESIDENT FOR COMING YEAR

The Sophomore Class chose its officers for the coming year last Tuesday with Marie Hiserodt taking office as the new president. Walter Merck became vice president. The secretariate went to Ruby Robinson, and Regal Perry was selected as the new treasurer.

It is customary for each class to have a woman assume the presidency during its Junior year. A male student heads the Kanakadea staff during that year, and on all other years, male students hold the class presidencies.

The plans for next year's Junior Class activities will get under way at once. At the same time the Sophomores will continue their underclass rivalry with the Freshmen until Moving-up Day.

DR. SAUNDERS NAMED AS DEDICATEE OF YEAR BOOK AT CLASS BANQUET

TO EDIT KANAKADEA

Raymond Frahm '33
Editor-in-Chief of Kanakadea

Frahm Elected Year Book Editor

The Sophomore Class elected its Kanakadea heads for next year last Tuesday evening, selecting Raymond Frahm as the editor-in-chief and Van Rensselaer Ostrander as business manager. This election followed brief talks and outlines of the work involved which were given by Lewis Beyea, editor of the 1932 year book, and Robert Flint, business manager.

The remaining staff managers and editors were chosen as follows; Robert Rawley, advertising manager; William Samuelson, circulation manager; Wilma Smith, art editor and Benjamin Tower, cartoonist. The remaining staff officers will be chosen at a future date by the editor-in-chief. Contracts are being made at the present time for next year's printing, photography and engraving.

COACHES PROTEST COOK TEAM'S WIN

Several coaches, whose teams were entered in the local interscholastic track meet at Merrill Field last May 8, protested against the participation of schools in the preparatory athletic class. "The Cook Academy boys are older and more experienced than mine, and it isn't fair to my team to try to compete against a prep school outfit," were the comments of one high school mentor after the meet.

It is highly probable that in the future only high school teams will be invited to Alfred's interscholastic events. It is believed also the Buffalo, Rochester and Schenectady entries will be eliminated as well, leaving only small school teams in the running.

DR. KARAPETOFF GIVES PIANO RECITAL IN HOWELL SOCIAL HALL

About 150 people crowded into the new Social Hall to witness a piano recital by Dr. Karapetoff of Cornell. The pianist, a noted musician and scientist, delighted his audience with selections accompanied by explanations of the various movements which were presented.

Dr. Karapetoff first presented Chopin's valse and nocturnes, and then introduced some of Debussy's most famous selections. As an anti-climax, he gave a very exact rendition of Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," following with Beethoven's "Sonata Pathetique". Probably his best number of the evening was the finale of the first opera of the "Niebelanger Trilogy" by Wagner.

He studied at the Imperial Conservatory in Petrograd, mastering both the piano and cello.

One hundred Junior Class members and guests gathered at the Parish House last Thursday evening for the traditional Kanakadea banquet and to witness its presentation in an outstanding class event. Speeches were made, songs were rendered, and the banquet drew to a close at 9:30 P. M. as one of the class's most successful functions.

Dr. Murray J. Rice, serving as toastmaster for the affair, humorously introduced Professor Seidlin as the first speaker of the evening. Annette Clifford, president of the class, spoke next, giving emphasis to the banquet as a class function. Lewis Beyea, editor of the year book, spoke briefly and thanked his fellow classmates for their co-operation in making possible the publication of the book.

Robert Flint, business manager, touched briefly upon the financial details of the annual. The Invocation was given by Chaplain James C. McLeod.

The climax of the banquet occurred when Doctor Paul C. Saunders was presented with a special copy of the book, bearing his name as the Dedicatee. Dr. Saunders, although considerably surprised, expressed his gratification for the honor and stated that he wished to become personally acquainted with every member of the class. It was evident that the name of the Dedicatee had been kept in absolute secrecy, the choice of the class being announced officially for the first time. The event marked the first time as well that Dr. Saunders had received the honor from an Alfred Junior Class.

The guests at the occasion included President and Mrs. B. C. Davis, Dean Degen, Dr. Binns, Dr. Norwood, Dr. and Mrs. Paul C. Saunders, Registrar and Mrs. Titsworth, Mrs. J. Seidlin, Dean and Mrs. Conroe, Professor Ellis, Mrs. M. J. Rice, Mrs. J. C. McLeod, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, Professor and Mrs. Potter, Professor and Mrs. Buchanan, Miss Hewitt, Margrieta Coit '31, Mary Brown Allen '31, James McFadden '31, and Paul Webster '31.

The members of the banquet committee were, Robert C. Nobbs, chairman, Lois Acker, Isabelle Moore and Lewis R. Beyea.

Klan Alpine Holds Annual Spring Formal

On Saturday, May 16, Klan Alpine held its annual spring formal dance at the Hotel Sherwood in Hornell. A banquet, served at 6:30 P. The chaperones included Mother King, Professor and Mrs. C. R. Amberg, Doctor and Mrs. P. C. Saunders, Doctor and Mrs. Seidlin, Registrar and Mrs. W. A. Titsworth, Dean Conroe, and Professor B. Crandall. Among the alumni who returned for the dance were Robert Bassett, St. Clair Danforth, John Thomson, Ernest Clement, William Duke, John McConnell, Daniel Gridley and Lawrence Callahan.

Mrs. Cortelyou Writes Article On Make-up

In the April edition of "The Scholastic" there appears an article by Ethaline Hartge Cortelyou '32, of Alfred University on "Make-up". This article which covers one and a half magazine pages deals with the use of, and equipment in, make-up for high school theatrical groups.

Accompanying the article is a photograph of the make-up room in Alumni Hall; at the tables, being made up for a production, one is able to distinguish four members of the Foot-light Club.

Mrs. Cortelyou's article is lucid and well outlined. It should prove of unestimable worth to high school groups.

Poem

We are blind until we see
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making, if
It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilds goes?
In vain we build the work, unless
The-builder also grows.
—Edwin Markham.

EIGHT CONTEST PRIZES GO TO COLLEGE GRADS

Winston-Salem, N. C., May 18—(Camel Contest) Six of the major prizes in the Camel cigarette contest, awards in which were announced today, were won by college graduates, although a tabulation shows that only eight of the thirty-eight prize winners were listed as having attended college.

Second prize of $10,000 went to Mrs. Walter Sweet, Brooklyn Navy Yard, who graduated from Radcliffe College in 1920. Julius M. Nolte of Duluth, Minn., winner of the third prize of $5,000, is a Yale man, and member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Four of the five winners of $1,000 prizes were listed as college graduates. Albert B. Franklin, 3rd, of Cambridge, Mass., is now a graduate student at Harvard; Frederick E. Robinson of Coronada Beach, Cal., graduated from Harvard; William A. Schrader of Louisville, Ky., was a Purdue man, and Dr. D. H. Soper of Iowa City, is an instructor in dentistry at the University of Iowa.

Frank Cartwright of Washington, D. C., winner of one of the $500 prizes, graduated from Cornell, and Dr. Clifton B. Leech of Providence, R. I., winner of a $100 prize, graduated from Boston University.

A total of 955,228 answers were received in the contest, which was announced in an eight-day newspaper advertising campaign in which 1713 dailies, 2139 weeklies and 426 college and financial newspapers were used. The only other announcement of the contest was on the Camel Pleasure Hour broadcasting network and consisted merely of an invitation to read the contest details in the newspapers.

Sharkey, the winner of the first prize of $25,000, is married, and is a milk route foreman at the South Boston Plant of H. P. Hood & Sons, Inc., milk distributors, and lives at 101 Train Street, Dorchester, Mass. He wears overalls at his work, and is slender, of medium height, and has deep-set blue eyes.

Born in County Tipperary, Ireland, he came to the United States alone at the age of sixteen. Landing at Ellis Island in New York, he went at once to Boston, where he did odd jobs. Eight years ago he got a job with the Hood Company delivering milk.

Blue and white are the college colors of forty-three institutions of higher learning in the United States.

Co-eds at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., spend more money per smoker for cigarettes, tobacco, and the like than do men students, a recent survey showed.

DEAN OF WOMEN TELLS GIRLS NOT TO WORK IN 1931

New York, May 18—Virginia C. Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard College, and one of the foremost woman educators in the country, says that girls graduating from college in this year of depression should not seek jobs unless they are forced to earn their living.

"If the girl graduating this June has a family that can possibly support her for a while longer, or a kind aunt to help her, or a little money in the bank, then she should not try to get a position in times like these," Dean Gildersleeve declares in Physical Culture magazine.

Instead of attempting to compete for jobs that are none too numerous, the graduate should get technical or professional training that will enable her in the long run to do high grade work, the dean says. She is especially opposed to the entrance of wealthy college graduates into such activities as ordinary office work.

"A few years ago," she says, "a silly custom grew up among girls of the rich set, of studying stenography and taking posts as clerks in offices, even though they had no special taste for the jobs. At the present moment this would be even more foolish for such affluent workers."

A college girl in dire straits, she declares, should take up any honest work she can "in order to keep off the breadline".

"No kind of honest work, well done, will ever disgrace anyone," she avers, "even though it be dishwashing and the girl's ambition is to sing in grand opera."

Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, chairman of the Experimental College of the University of Wisconsin and former president of Amherst, declares in Physical Culture that if the young men who are graduated this June emerge "intellectually lifeless" they might better have "spent the years in digging ditches than in going to college." Says he to the college graduate:

"What have you been doing with your mind? Is that mind an eager, living, venturing energy going forth on its own initiative? Or have you come to deal with your mind as a sort of bucket to be filled by the inert results of other men's thinking?"

Any co-ed at Michigan, who is found wearing a fraternity pin, is liable to a fine of $50 or six days in jail.

Fifteen of the twenty-eight fraternities at Columbia University seceded from the Interfraternity Council and formed an association of their own.

Carpetbaggers?

A student's right to hold an undergraduate office depends mostly upon his desire to give his best efforts in discharging the duties of that office. As is generally the case in Alfred, many candidates regard extra-curricular activities as sources of social prestige or political achievement. They look to possible positions as a means of gaining approval from their particular class or clique or as an avenue of receiving a slap on the back from their elders. A righteous soul would demand that such persons must either renounce his responsibilities in abdication or reconsider his position and obligations.

On the other hand we hope that the new campus elects and future candidates will go further than the usual acceptance, and will attempt progress and development during their regimes in the various organizations. Personal honors, credit and prestige are valueless in this case if they do not go hand in hand with achievement.

Fraternity Politics

Continuing our lessons in definitions, we next come to the word, "politics". The previously mentioned dictionary described the word as "political affairs in a party sense; party intrigues." Hence, we beg to inform many of our kind readers that fraternity politics most probably means the science of dealing with government in accordance with fraternity policies or sentiments.

In practically all phases of life, as we are told, one encounters the "survival of the fittest" and all that sort of thing. If any one student intends to await an extra-curricular office with clasped hands, then let him try it and find out for himself just how far he will go. A candidate must have support or resort to "stuffing" the ballot box.

But is fraternity politics, after all, such a bad state of affairs? Practically every college enjoys the same situation whether it sanctions fraternities or not. No man can deny the fact that in a large group cliques will form according to the needs, interests or ambitions of the gregarious man. Thus it is the way of life—groups form, and may the best man win!

Fraternity politics work for the good of the school provided that the winning faction supports the most capable of the eligible candidates. It goes without question that many officeholders gain control not through hard work in competition for the office, but from personality, appearance, popularity and strong political support. To these, we suggest a career of conscientious labor through a sense of duty.

One most frequently hears the complaint of "fraternity politics" from a defeated faction. We beg that they will realize that they are as fully involved in the system as are their opponents. If the situation must exist in its present form, its only redeeming feature lies in supporting the best possible candidates for the new offices.

The 1932 Kanakadea

As it was stated in the Foreword of the book, the 1932 Kanakadea fulfilled its purpose in recording the events of the past year—that "acquaintances, associations and activities may not be dimmed by the lapse of passing years." In this respect a college annual becomes one of detail, and the new year book qualifies in near-perfect style as a permanent record.

In former years the Kanakadea was but a mere pamphlet in comparison with the large and expensive volumes that later took form. During the past three years the student body saw its annual reach a high point in development, size and arrangement. The undergraduates found as well that the problem of financing such an extensive enterprise became very perplexing and took more than a year to be settled. The present volume, however, was condensed and simplified somewhat with a view toward eliminating the overwhelming cost of the book. In being able to finance its year book, the Class of '32 deserves our heartiest congratulations for their success in promoting the edition of athletic programs, Kanakadea dances, Follies and concessions at the athletic field as methods of defraying year book expenses.

We hope that future Junior Class books will follow this example now that it has been set. Over-emphasis is a tendency and a temptation that is difficult to avoid, and the "bigger and better" policy is not always the best plan to follow.

ALFRED PREPARES FOR CONFERENCE MEET THIS WEEK

Rochester will be the scene of the grand finale of Varsity track this Saturday, when Rochester, Hamilton, St. Lawrence, and Alfred meet to settle the cinder path supremacy in the Fifth Annual New York State Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track championship. Last year was the first time since the Conference was started, that the Saxon squad did not run off with the team honors, when they lost out to Hamilton by sixteen points. Hamilton will be a strong contender again this year, although Alfred's prospects are much brighter since their lopsided victory over Rochester and the decisive beating they handed St. Lawrence.

The sprints will be a hot battle between Percy of St. Lawrence, Greenberg of Rochester and Ryskind of Alfred. Robinson and Buckley should go well in the hurdles. Merck and Obourn should turn in good performances in the 440, while Vance is likely to shatter the two minute mark for the half mile set by Zschiegner in 1929. Warde will have a hard opponent in the mile and two mile in the person of Pritchard of Hamilton, who has been turning in record performances in those events this year. Havens turned in a nice mark in the discus against St. Lawrence and looks like a possible winner in that event. Havens will also probably show in the pole vault and high jump along with Maroney, Common, and Carpenter. Flint and Robinson have been going well in the weights, while Shappee in the broad jump and McFadden in the javelin are sure point winners in their respective events. If Graham recovers from the illness which kept him out of the St. Lawrence meet, he should add a bit to the Saxon score in the sprints.

The team will put in a week of hard work under the tutelage of Coaches McLane and Galloway to point for the last victory which will give Alfred an undefeated season in track for 1931.

Rochester Sports Writer Comments On Alfred Teams

It has long been a mystery to athletic fans in this state as to how Alfred repeatedly is able to put a winner on the field in nearly every track event. Strange as it may seem, the Saxons have lost but one home meet in the past nine years and have dropped only two dual meets away from home in the past seven seasons.

To add to their record, the Syracuse Post Standard credited the Saxons in 1929 as having "the best small college track team in the East" with only eight men in the line-up on trips. The sports editor of the Rochester "Campus" submits the following observations as the solution to the mystery:

Alfred certainly takes its track seriously. The Southern Tier leg-pumpers pointed for the Varsity meet all year, even going so far as to come to Rochester to witness the Hamilton-Rochester indoor meet. According to the testimony of Alfred's prettiest waitress, the men work out before breakfast, let it rain, snow, thunder or otherwise cut up atmospherically, in addition to practising in the afternoon.

We suspect that a great share of the Alfred trackmen's inspiration comes from co-eds, who cheer shrilly and enthusiastically and expose their nether extremities to various degrees as they form a majority of the grandstand gallery. But after all, the Alfred men probably must train for walking up and down those big, silent, lovely hills of the region in some manner; and track solves that problem.

Dean Everett Lord of Boston University estimates the value of a college education at $65,000.

COOK ACADEMY BEATS FRESHMEN TRACKSTERS, 67-41

Alfred's yearling track aggregation went down to a 67-41 defeat at the hands of Cook Academy at Montour Falls last Saturday. The Saxon green-lidders threatened the Interscholastic champions on the cinder paths, but were outscored 34-13 in the field events.

Flint of Cook garnered the individual high scoring mark for the day with a tally of 17 points, being closely followed by his team mate, Fritts, who netted a total of 15 markers. Clark led the college tracksters in scoring with 12 points by virtue of a first place in the pole vault, a second in the century and high jump and a third in the broad jump.

Alfred's distance runners completely shut out the prepsters with TenBroeck, Wessels, Tolbert and Patterson doing most of the scoring. The Saxons swept through the half mile run for all three places, and all four of them rain a dead heat for first place in the mile.

Clark's pole vaulting was another feature of the day when he topped the bar at 11 feet 7 inches. This performance shows excellent promise of future Varsity material, and safeguards one of the events for the next three years.

Fritts of Cook, who starred here on the last two Fridays in the interscholastics and Frosh tennis match, turned in a remarkable performance by tossing the javelin 172 feet 7 inches, the discus 114 feet 8 inches and the shot 46 feet 10 inches.

Henning received a bit of luck in the quarter mile when McKusick, interscholastic champ, failed to appear. He then coasted into a first place in 56.4 seconds.

Summary:
100 Yard Dash—Allen (C), first; Clark (A), second; Ginter (C), third. Time, 10.3 seconds.
220 Yard Dash—Allen (C), first; Henning (A), second; Foster (C), third. Time, 23.4 seconds.
440 Yard Dash—Henning (A), first; Ginter (C), second; Foster (C), third. Time, 56.4 seconds.
880 Yard Run—Wessels (A), and TenBroeck (A), tied for first; Tolbert (A), third. Time, 2 minutes 14.2 seconds.

One Mile Run—TenBroeck (A), Wessels (A), Tolbert (A), and Patterson (A), tied for first. Time, 5 minutes 6 seconds.

220 Yard Low Hurdles—Flint (C), first; Spencer (C), second; Curley (A), third. Time, 26.5 seconds.

Pole Vault—Clark (A), first; Austin (C), second; Curley (A), third. Height, 11 feet 7 inches.

High Jump—Flint (C), first; Clark (A), second; Ginter (C), third. Height, 5 feet 6 inches.

Broad Jump—Austin (C), first; Ginter (C), second; Clarke (A), third. Distance, 20 feet 6 inches.

Discus Throw—Fritts (C), first; Flint (C), second; Tolbert (A), third. Distance, 172 feet 7 inches.

Shot Put—Fritts (C), first; Allen (C), second; Flint (C), third. Distance, 46 feet 10½ inches.

GIRLS' TRACK TEAMS TO MEET TOMORROW

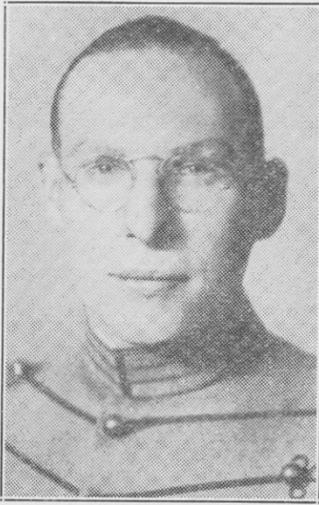

Interclass track rivalry begins tomorrow afternoon between the Juniors and Seniors at Merrill Field. The winner of the affair will be awarded points toward the girls' interclass athletic trophy.

The Juniors at the present writing are favored to cop tomorrow's laurels with a strong line-up in the running events. Miriam VanDuyne '32, college dash champion, should repeat her first place triumphs in both the 50 and 100 yard sprints. Betty Rogers and Gardiner also appear to have the competition in the distance event well under control, and the former should stand a good chance of taking five points in the hurdles.

The Frosh-Soph meet will probably be held on Moving-up Day.

According to The Tech, Cornell University gives credit in a course in whooping cough prevention; North Carolina State has a course for janitors; and at California, a course tells how to see Europe properly.

James C. Birdsall ex-'32, who attended Alfred University during his Freshman year, was elected recently to the editorship of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute college paper. While in Alfred, Mr. Birdsall was an active member of the A. U. C. A. and a reporter on the staff of the Fiat Lux.

SPORT LIGHTS

It looks as though Hamilton is trying to repeat its conference championship victory of last year. Pritchard turned in a 4:32 mile last week as well as a less than ten-minute two mile performance. The Blue also boasts of a good pole vaulter and sprinter. As was the case last year, second and third places probably will decide who wins the meet.

Although official word was not received at "press time," Alfred's Varsity tennis team defeated Mansfield at Mansfield last Saturday by a 4-3 score. Incidentally, this feat marks the Saxon's first Varsity tennis victory in five years! Hats off to the racquetees!

We would like to see the girls get together in a Frosh-Soph track meet. Fleischhauer and Taylor, both rusty Sophs, would make a strong bid for high scorer, while the Frosh track material is not very well known as yet.

An interesting sidelight was brought to our attention when it was learned that the Sophs and Juniors scored 85 of the Saxons' 96 points against Rochester. Imagine what it will be like when Hughes '32, and Razyey '33, don their uniforms!

FROSH RACQUET WEILDERS BEST COOK ACADEMY

The Alfred Frosh tennis team stepped out last Friday and won over Cook Academy by the score of 4-1. The yearlings, playing on their own courts, showed plenty of snap and speed. Although the visitors displayed a fine brand of tennis the outcome of the match was never in doubt.

Holstein started things by winning his first set 6-0 and went on to take the second set 6-4 from Bassett. "Red" played heads-up tennis and showed great promise for the future. VanHorn then proceeded to take his first set 6-3. In the second set, Knapp, with a burst of speed took five games to VanHorn's one. At this point VanHorn turned the tide and took six straight games to win the match 7-5. Fritts, Cook star, defeated Rinzler in straight sets 6-4, 6-2.

In the double matches, the Frosh took both matches. Rinzler and Holstein played well together and won 6-4, 6-2. Rinzler apparently found himself in this match and displayed a nice game. VanHorn and Jacquiss finished things off by taking their match 6-3, 6-4 from Fritts and Currello.

CAMPUS COMMENTS

"Albie" Boothe, star athlete, has been elected captain of Yale's basketball team for the coming season. He is also captain-elect of football, and many prophets expect him to receive the same honor in baseball this spring.

The salary of the Yale coach of football is $9,000 per year, according to a recent statement of the Yale Alumni weekly.

BOOKS WORTH READING

Boners

By Those Who Made Them

Boners—or, as they used to be called, Howlers—are schoolroom errors. This little collection is highly entertaining, for it has been carefully sifted to contain those juvenile slips which are amusing because in their unintended error they often come paradoxically near larger truth.

But it is not desirable to be ponderous about so pleasant a little book. Open it at random, you will find almost anywhere some sprinkle of salt:

In Christianity a man can have only one wife. This is called Monotony.

Contralto is a low sort of music that only ladies sing.

Pope wrote mostly in heroic couplets.

Martin Luther died a horrible death. He was excommunicated by a bull.

Henry VIII had a abscess on his knee, which made walking difficult.

False doctrine means giving people the wrong medicine.

The wife of a duke is a ducky.

LXXX means love and kisses.

Si And I At The Circus

I conclude you know everything about Wall Street. Well, Si and I once took stock in a circus sideshow for ten cents a ticket. We entered the big tent between halves and strolled about.

In front of the bearded lady's platform was a big announcement proclaiming the fact that his wife had had twins and he would be absent from the performance. Then in stepped the legless Maxine and twisted her ankle which caused the fire eater to burn up. But what amazed us was the magician that pulled eggs from pockets and so on. Si bought a book of directions for his rooster.

Then we invested in prize boxes. Si got the neatest chemise I have ever seen. I didn't find anything in mine and told the guy so. He said I was lucky I didn't get a nipple and bottle. That joke cost me two bits. I haven't laughed yet as I want my money's worth.

Next we viewed the half-man, half-woman freak. I inquired how it got that way and it said its father was a Columbia researcher and experimenter.

Finally we came to a dark booth. Above the doorway was a red and white sign bearing the letters E-X-I-T. We had never heard of that freak so we went in. Still, it's a queer Scotch town where one can't get tight.

Not-so-dum as Dun-by-Gum.

The first reference to football tells that King Edward II of England placed a ban on the game in 1314, because it created too much noise.
