

Varsity Ends Season With 41-32 Victory

After losing to the House of David in a charity game at the Bolivar High School gymnasium last Thursday, Alfred University quintet concluded its 1931-32 season with a decisive win over Hamilton's basketball squad at the Davis Track and Field House Saturday evening. Losing to the Bearded Stars by a score of 53-35, the Purple and Gold followed by taking the collegiate five over for a 41-32 victory.

The House of David, made up of past high school and college stars, opened the game by establishing a strong lead which they maintained with little difficulty throughout the contest. Perfect pass work and exact shooting typified the all star aggregation. Although Alfred effected many plays to secure a substantial score, the precision of the bearded basket grabbers sewed the game up in their favor.

Walters, scoring ace of the House of David, opened the scoring with a clean field goal. A pass to Young for a similar count tied the game. From this point the grey and white aggregation opened up with a powerful attack that left Alfred eleven points behind at the half. Spasmodic spurts by the Saxon squad gave them 13 points, while the Bolivar ledger showed 24.

Not content with this apparently comfortable margin, the home squad set an easy pace, disrupted only by quick breaks that netted them five baskets in so many minutes. In the twilight hours of the contest, Young secured the ball several times for as many goals. Young played a steady game throughout, aggregating a total of eighteen points for individual honors. A spectacular flurry of passes by the House of David concluded the game.

Profiting from this game and determined to end their season in victory, the Saxons faced Hamilton, Saturday night. During the initial minutes of play, both teams played conservatively finding out their opponent's strength. First blood went to the Blue and White, when Ollikainen sunk a long goal from midfield. At the tipoff, Obourn received the ball and passed to Young, who cut fast for a basket. Following this, it was nip and tuck with Alfred doing the better pass work, but missing under the basket. Near the close of the period, a fast break by Obourn for a score put Alfred in the lead. With this impetus, the Alfred machine began clicking till they had chalked up a ten point lead at half-time.

Bureau of Appts. Offers Services

The Bureau of Appointments was organized under the auspices of a small group of alumni who constituted the Twentieth Century Club of Alfred University. This Club provided the necessary funds for meeting the expenses, and were active in providing notices of vacancies to be filled.

The Bureau is now maintained by the university in an extension of its efforts to be of greatest possible service to its students and to the public.

Although no guarantee of a position is given, a large number of Alfred's graduates are grateful to the Bureau of Appointments for their positions.

Letters are sent to High Schools to discover possible vacancies, and notices are placed informing the Seniors of these possibilities.

All services rendered are free of charge and the Bureau extends its services to those who are already teaching and wish to better their position, as well as to the beginning teacher.

To Entertain at Soldier's Home

The American Legion of Alfred under the leadership of Professor Fritjof E. Hildebrand is sponsoring an entertainment for the World War veterans in the Soldiers' Home at Bath. Professor Hildebrand, president of the Legion Post in Alfred has organized a group of students who will go to Bath Friday afternoon, March the eleventh.

There will be an exhibition of wrestling on the mat by members of the wrestling team. Warde and Vezzoli, Felli and Muller and Grantier and Graham will wrestle in the three matches.

Helen and Virginia Smathers are on the program for several vocal duets of popular songs.

Seniors and Sophs Lead in Co-ed Court Games

Monday evening the first games in the final series of the girls' interclass league were played, giving a victory to the Sophs and to the Seniors.

The Frosh-Soph game, in which the Sophs beat the Frosh 20-14, was a fast and intensely interesting game. Every member of both teams was on her toes and getting in on every play. At the half the Sophs sent in an entirely new combination, which worked practically as well as the first.

The Juniors lost to the Seniors in an equally interesting tilt, by a score of 24-10. The Seniors worked together a little better than the Juniors, who had not had as much practice as their opponents. However, both teams exhibited some fine basketball.

Last Wednesday evening, the Sophs and the Seniors each scored a second victory. Since both teams have each won two games now, the Soph-Senior game, to be played Wednesday, March 9th, will decide the winner of the tournament.

The Seniors beat the Frosh 17 to 16 in a game that was so close that up until the final whistle, it was rather doubtful which team would win. At the end of the first half the score was 11-7 in favor of the Frosh. In the second half the Seniors put in VanDyne their guard pivot-man, and the others on the team went out determined to win. Throughout the third quarter neither team was able to make much headway, but in the final quarter both teams scored. Captain Gillespie of the Frosh team accounted for fourteen of their sixteen points. Gladys Heard did the greater part of the scoring for the Seniors.

In no less interesting game the Juniors were beaten 20-9. Although the score was not as close as in the Frosh-Senior game, the Juniors were by no means outclassed. The Sophs had to play their best to keep ahead, for until the second half they had only a four point margin.

Wee Playhouse

The Wee Playhouse met at Social Hall last Tuesday night. Hostesses for the meeting were: Mrs. Nease and Mrs. Bennett. About forty members were present. Refreshments were served near the close of the evening.

Two plays were read, with different members taking the parts of the characters. These plays were "Never The Twain," and "The Last Man In".

The Wee Playhouse hopes to put on a public production sometime in the Spring. Plans are now being made to this end.

Smoking Questionnaire Points to Student Decision

Due to much discussion regarding the smoking problem, the Women Student Government sent out the following questionnaire:

1. Do you consider your daughter capable of deciding for herself the question of smoking?

2. Since smoking for women has been accepted by a great many colleges, do you think it would be detrimental to Alfred to modify or retract the rule against smoking?

3. Do you think it would be better not to have a rule than to have one which is continually being broken?

4. Since college is a preparation for social adjustment in the future, do you think that students should meet and decide this problem for themselves?

One hundred and forty letters were sent out, and there were 77 replies. These replies answered the questions as follows:

1st question—Yes 62
No 15
2d question—Yes 42
No 30
Doubtful 3
3d question—Yes 38
No 33
Doubtful 1
4th question—Yes 31
No 34

In 1929, there were 95 replies to a questionnaire sent out by Dean Dora K. Degen. Ninety-two voted unqualifiedly against removing the rule prohibiting smoking while three voted for it.

Publisher Compliment Art Staff

Work on the 1933 Kanakadea has been progressing rapidly, and according to its editor, satisfactorily. An unusual compliment has been given the book by their printing company, Baker, Jones and Hauseur, who have acclaimed the art work as being unusually fine. The members of the staff, also, expect it to be an outstanding feature of the year book.

In the place of Michael Chous, who did not return to school this year, Jay Ryskind has been assigned to work on the Feature Section, with the assistance of Ben Towner.

Inter-Collegiate Conference Planned Here

Chaplain McLeod in his efforts to promote a spirit of broad-mindedness is now working on plans to bring an inter-collegiate conference to Alfred. On April 15-17, the members of various colleges and universities of the state will meet in Alfred to discuss the problem, "Is a College Education Essential?". The colleges invited to send delegates to participate in this open forum are: Elmira College, University of Rochester Men's College, University of Rochester Women's College, State Teacher's College, University of Buffalo, Hobart College, Wells College, Syracuse University, and Cornell University. The speakers at this conference will include Mr. Paul Harris, Jr., Mr. John Bennett and Mrs. John Bennett. Efforts are being made to secure two other speakers of wide repute for this conference.

The conference will begin with a banquet at the Social Hall on the evening of the 15th, to be followed by addresses by the leaders of the conference. Saturday will be devoted to discussions of the main topics of the conference. The meetings will continue in the evening to be followed by a dance. A young student pastor will preach at the Union Church service on Sunday.

Other colleges have conducted successful conferences of this nature, which Alfred students have attended. The conference to be held here in April is Alfred's first experiment in such a project and it will take the united co-operation of the entire campus to make it a success. There will be large open meetings which all of the students are invited to attend.

The student committee in charge of the conference is as follows: Misses Lois Brown, Annette Clifford, Gladys Heard, Marie Heiserodt, Messers Samuelson, Beyea, Monks, Merck and Green.

Frosh Meeting

The Freshmen class held a meeting in Kenyon Hall on Wednesday night. During the procedure of the meeting the reply from the Student Senate, concerning Freshman Rules was read and discussed. It was proposed to do away with Freshman Rules by Easter Vacation, which would be the maximum time limit or by Semester vacation the minimum time limit. Before a final decision can be made this will be brought before a vote of the student body.

Frosh Trounce Genesee With 25-7 Score

Showing Varsity calibre, the Alfred Frosh put up a terrific fight against the Hornell Elks only to be nosed out in the final minutes of play by a score of 21-30 at the Hornell Armory, Tuesday night. Continuing this unparalleled spirit, they went on the Davis Gymnasium, Saturday evening, to severely trounce Genesee Wesleyan by a 25-7 score. In both encounters, Hanson, Alfred scoring guard, played a stellar game in blocking goals and cutting for baskets.

Playing against three former Alfred captains, the Frosh opened up with a conservative game. The Elks failing to penetrate the sterling defense of the Frosh, resorted to long shots by Fenner and Larson. Past masters at set shots, these two forwards soon gave the buck-tooth squad five points, while the Saxon ledger remained blank. Then, Whaley starting a play passed to the fast cutting Hanson for a score. Receiving the tipoff, the yearlings repeated the play for a second score. A fast dribble by Fenner gave the Hornell squad a three point lead. But, Alfred again worked a play through the Elk defense with Hanson sinking the basket. A long shot by Larson returned the three point lead. Hanson followed with his fourth score while a foul by Java tied the count. This close play continued for the remainder of the half. The excellent playing and consistent scoring of Fenner gave the home team a 17-18 lead at half-time.

Opening the second half, the Frosh rallied and set out to check the set shots of their opponents to cut down the lead. This quarter was all Frosh as they blocked the Elks best attempts to score and then Whaley, Goodrich and Hanson secured a basket apiece and foul apiece. Closing the quarter, Jeffery and Larson sank two baskets to give the Hornell aggregation a one point lead. The ending of this quarter marked the last score of the Frosh, while the scoring efforts of the Elks enabled them to sew the game up in the closing minutes. As the final whistle blew, the score sheet gave the Elks a 30-21 victory.

Opening the Genesee game, the Frosh seemed stale, while the Genesee efforts were little better. The Frosh would work the ball up under the basket to fail at this crucial moment. Genesee never even got near the basket, depending on long shots followed up to garner their points. By half-time, the Frosh had scored five points from baskets by Hanson and Button and a foul shot by Java. The seminarians led by one point, due to baskets by Wilkerson and Brewer and two foul shots.

Klan House Scene of Easter Party

An attractive decorative scheme was carried out by the use of various colored balloons hung in an array and from streamers which arched the ceilings of the rooms. Toward the end of the evening the popping of the balloons punctuated the dance rhythm and couples became entangled in the flying streamers.

Prof. and Mrs. Boraas and Chaplain and Mrs. McLeod were guest of the fraternity, while the chaperones were: Prof. and Mrs. Saunders, Prof. and Mrs. Harder, Prof. and Mrs. Seidlin and Prof. Crandall. The committee in charge of arrangements were: Art. Gaiser, chairman; Bud Dewey, Ed. King, and Chuck Burdick.

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER

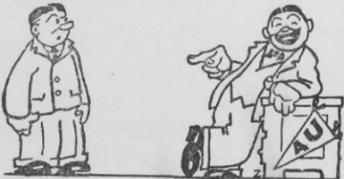

Mr. Harry M. Harding, United States Commissioner of Enforcement of Prohibition of Buffalo, New York, will be the speaker in assembly, Thursday, March 10th.

During the last few weeks, the campus has heard a great deal about Frosh agitation for the abolishment of many yearling regulations and the curtailment of numerous upperclass privileges. There is also in the offing, rumor that Campus Court is having its most effective teeth pulled. What does it all mean? Are we favored with a Freshman group whose magnanimity is so overwhelming that they wish to bring about lasting changes,—“blessings”—for all future generations, or are the upperclassmen playing fish to a group of clever, work-evading fourth classmen? The Freshman spokesmen assert that they find it nauseating to tip their hats to upperclassmen who have in many instances, given their best to Alfred on athletic field or playing court. They also proclaim that such “foolish” traditions as holding doors for women and other superiors are passed. Are they indeed?

Perhaps this is an offshot of that general radical tendency so current in present day society, business, and government, best expressed by the idea of reckless disregard for tried and proven tradition, wholesale indictment of law and order and a lack of responsibility to or respect for established authority. This is but an attempt at explanation. We do not claim ability to diagnose the disease which has implanted itself beneath the green Frosh hat and behind the genial smile of the typical Frosh of yester-year. It further occurs to the writer that had our brother-upperclassmen shown the way more clearly, forcibly and outspokenly of late, this situation might have been avoided. Mayhaps, the present trend is all we should expect when upperclassmen generally allow their places of leadership and direction to fall into the hands of a few, who find themselves overwhelmed or else inadequate to the task. If the above surmise be true it is up to Juniors and Seniors to prove themselves and by their example and mettle, cope with and right the present disagreeableness.

Nineteen thirty-one and thirty-two bade fair to be an outstanding year in Alfred's history. September brought a very promising group of new men and women to the Campus. It was with great joy and a deep sense of pride that we older Alfredians welcomed these vigorous recruits, inbued as they seemed to be with the traditions of the group to which they owe common allegiance. The privilege and the duty of upperclassman and woman is to so mould the Freshmen that they in time will take their places as Campus leaders, whom their Alma Mater delighteth to honor. Let the Freshmen be strong in their fight for the right as their Saxon ancestors before them, thinking ever of obligations, first, as loyal supporters of their college in all of its projects, and second, of their class which demands a fidelity best expressed by good works, not by wanton disregard of custom, tradition and convention.

CAMPUS TIDBITS

Dick Regan dropped a quarter in the Post Office and Grantier sprained his wrist in the scuffle.

“Vee” Weston arrived at a class on time Wednesday.

Al Titsworth broke his neck in a game of Badminton early last evening at Nat Kahn's, but ran cheerfully from the room whistling “Naughty Marietta”.

Sammy Pilato refused an offer to play left tackle on the Alfred eleven next fall. He's holding out for right tackle.

Bill Brown cracked another joke late in the week.

“Gertie” O'Connell is making a rope ladder with her spare time. She claims it will only be a few years before spare time will be used as a breakfast food!

ALUMNI

Raymond Brown, Alfred, 1891, died December 2nd, in Granville, N. Y., where for 33 years he had been the principal and superintendent of the Granville schools. It was through his efforts in this direction that the small school system was built up to one of prominence in the state. Mr. Brown was born in Springfield, Penn., and was educated at the New York State Teacher's College and later graduated from Alfred in 1891.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Morris Stuart announce the birth of a son, Elmer Morris, Jr., born on Feb. 2nd. Mrs. Stuart, before her marriage was, Miss Helen Ellis, '29.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

During the past week Chaplain McLeod has discussed the following points in chapel:

Monday—The illustration of the fact that “The Heroism is Remembered and The Hero Forgotten,” was taken from “A Parable of Safed the Sage”.

Tuesday and Wednesday—What is the meaning of life? This is a question which everyone desires to have answered. Although there are many prominent men who take the viewpoint that life has no meaning, a great number of people believe that there is a definite meaning to life and wish to solve the problem it presents. As a proof of the fact that life does have a meaning we have the statement that the inanimate world is a vast and ingenious mechanism. This vast and ingenious mechanism invariably implies a creative mind and a coherent purpose.

The complicated mechanism of the universe and the existence of the creative mind behind the development of the world-process disclose that the purpose of the world mechanism is the development of a human race dominated more and more by the combination of kindness and intelligence. On this statement is based the theory of the meaning of life of those who believe that life has a meaning and that human beings are capable of discovering it.

Thursday—Dr. D. Leigh Colvin, President of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, the assembly speaker for last week, spoke during chapel period.

Friday—Chaplain McLeod read an article concerning the Lindbergh baby, which pointed out that the whole incident becomes a challenge to those who are impatient with this present era of crime.

He also read a most unusual last will and testament of a lawyer, who left to posterity all the beauties of life and nature.

VEZZOLI ELECTED C'PT OF MAT SQUAD

With the close of the wrestling season, an election was held last Tuesday at which Dante Vezzoli was elected captain of the varsity wrestling team for the 1932-33 season.

Captain-elect Vezzoli has been out for this sport for the past three years and has been a member of the varsity team the past two seasons.

DR. COLVIN ASSEMBLY SPEAKER

The constitutional elements of the prohibition law, making it an almost unrepealable measure, were stressed in last Thursday's assembly by the Hon. Dr. D. Fay Colvin.

Dr. Colvin has had long experience with constitutional acts and law making, having been a candidate at various times for mayor of New York City, United States Senator and Vice President of the United States.

The Juniata: “A good memory is much more important to a blind individual than to a normal person,” says Joem F. Haffly '35, “for he can not easily refer back to reference books.” Haffly is one of two remarkably endowed blind transfers to the university.

EDITION TO BE SUBSCRIPTION

Heretofore, the KANAKADEA staffs have had printed a number of books, orders for many of which had not been taken, with the hope of selling all the books when they arrived.

Consequently the staffs had more books printed than were sold. As a result they lost much money on those left over.

This year the KANAKADEA staff is going to avoid such a possible deficit. We believe that if a person wants and will buy a book at all, he is able to order it before the book is printed, as easily as afterward.

The case would be different, if the one edition of the book were to be sold over a long period of time, but there is only one demand for one edition of the KANAKADEA, and so we can not afford to order extra copies.

Therefore the yearbooks must be ordered now, because the number printed will be the number ordered.

SENATE'S DECISION ON FROSH RULES

On Tuesday night, the Student Senate held a meeting in order to discuss the problem of freshman rules, which according to the popular sentiment on the campus, the Frosh class wish to abolish completely, thereby destroying Alfred traditions which have existed unhampered for many years. The president of the freshman class was invited to be present as a representative of the class to the Senate and in that position to enlighten the student body as to the attitude of the frosh class as regards rules and regulations.

The frosh class submitted a petition to the Student Senate several weeks ago and though it was not totally disregarded, the frosh class was unaware of the action that the Senate had taken on the petition and were resolved to gain their ends other than by conciliatory means. The Senate however, compromised and gave to the class of '35, the abolition of black hose and at the same time the concession was made that the fifty cent fine paid at each appearance before Campus Court be abolished and that the offender pay only once and that to be at his first appearance before the Court when being tried for his first offence.

At the meeting on Tuesday night, the freshman class was given a voice, and the Student Senate showed willingness for participation in fair play by this action. The reasons given by the members of the Student Senate for the wearing of frosh caps by freshmen were numerous, including arguments that the frosh caps were worn primarily for purposes of recognition; also that the class, after coming from high school where they were the leaders and the members of the ruling class, had to be let down in some fashion and that caps such as those worn by the freshmen were the best employable methods of showing their comparative unimportance. In a word, the "cockiness" of the freshman had to be taken out of him. Also the question was discussed as to why should the freshman, who was just embarking on his educational voyage, be granted the same privileges and be on a par with those upperclass men and women who had all of the background and experience which the "green" frosh lacked. Then too—tradition—that was a soft spot and a sore one too. Would it not be depriving future classes to take away something which would afford them many amusing and pleasurable moments when reminiscing on their freshman year.

After these subjects had been discussed, with sides taken pro and con on the numerous subjects on the floor, the freshman representative was dismissed and the senate again voted on the petition submitted. The outcome of the meeting was that in addition to the items already granted to the class, it was resolved that the time limit for wearing caps be left entirely up to the student body and that a vote would be taken, thereby giving the entire campus the right to cast a ballot either for or against the question that "the wearing of caps be abolished no sooner than semester time and not later than Easter."

GLEE CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Glee Club, composed of sixteen members, meets every Monday at five o'clock in the Music Studio on Main street. At present they are working up classical numbers suitable for concert presentation, along with several popular selections, which are to be used as encores. They are working hard on their program and will, if possible, have it ready for presentation in May. The details of this plan have not been definitely decided as yet. In case the present plans do not mature, the club will have an excellent start toward a concert in the fall. The past record of this organization is an interesting one. It was started in 1915, and was continued until 1926, when it was disbanded. During those years, the club made six annual trips to New York City and New Jersey. In 1920, while on one of these trips, they broadcasted from WEAJ in New York. Later in 1925, while in Buffalo giving concerts, they broadcasted from both WSVS and WGR.

The following is a table stating how many concerts were given during the school years when the club was an active group:

In 1915-1916	18 concerts
In 1916-1917	19 concerts
In 1917-1918	5 concerts
In 1918-1919	4 concerts
In 1919-1920	15 concerts
In 1920-1921	11 concert
In 1921-1922	9 concerts
In 1922-1923	11 concerts
In 1923-1924	11 concerts
In 1924-1925	6 concerts
In 1925-1926	9 concerts

VARSITY ENDS SEASON

Opening the second half, the Saxon aggregation lost some of the spirit and speed that was apparent in their former play. This gave the upstate team the break they were waiting for and Ollikainen took advantage of it by a fast dribble followed by a one hand shot for two points. His teammate, Pritchard, imitated the play for a twin-counter. A dribble the length of the floor for a basket and foul by Dickens evened the play. But, Alfred fell into a slump again, while Hamilton set out to regain the lost points. When but a few points within their objective, Clark went back in at guard to replace Dickens. He helped revive the fight of the Saxons, which effectually stemmed the advancing Hamilton tide.

As the game neared its close the Purple and Gold let loose a barrage of baskets that destroyed Hamilton's last hopes of victory. Twice, Young passed the danger line of the Blue and White defense to sink as many baskets. Not to be outdone, Obourn shot from midfield clean through the rim for a similar counter. Ollikainen, adept in the art of one hand shots, scored on one of these spectacular shots. This, the last Hamilton basket, marked the entrance of the Purple and Gold reserves as the finish of the contest approached. In these closing minutes, Hamilton made a last effort and fought so that the play bordered on a rough and tumble. The reserves held the visitors scoreless, while DiCandia secured a final goal. The period ended giving Alfred a substantial victory and a fitting finish for their season.

FROSH WIN 25 To 7

Adessa, returned from New York, went in for Mitchell in the second half to hoist up the Frosh play. He was the final link in a smooth Frosh chain that went out to completely swamp the Geneseeans. During this period the organized play of Hanson, Whaley and Adessa gradually piled up the mounting Frosh column. The close guarding of the yearlings voided all the scoring efforts of the opponents, who were kept to a lone foul shot throughout the half. Having piled up an 18 point lead by consistent scoring. This team was sent to the showers as Coach Lobaugh put in his Reserve squad. Neither team scored till the final whistle awarded the Frosh their spectacular victory.
