

Equestrian team places sixth in both shows at AU Invitational

11/01/04

ANGELICA, NY -- The equestrian team competed in two shows at the AU Invitational Saturday and Sunday, placing sixth of 12 teams each day. On Saturday, AU got first-place finishes from junior Anna Lund (Andover, NY/Wellsville) in open equitation over fences and sophomore Lindsay Travis (Hinsdale, NY/Hinsdale) in advanced walk-trot-canter. Pacing second for AU were juniors Danielle Lownes (Richboro, PA/Council Rock) and Meghan Mocio (Suffern, NY/Immaculate Heart) in novice equitation on the flat. Other top riders for AU Saturday were: juniors Elizabeth Feinberg (Oakland, CA/Beacon) and Lianna Girshman (Conway, MA/Frontier Regional), third in novice equitation over fences; junior Katie Frickland (Issaquah, WA/Skyline), third in novice equitation on the flat; sophomore Ashley Wawrzynski (Hamlin, NY/Brockport), third in advanced walk-trot-canter; and junior Bethany Cohen (Saratoga Springs, NY/Saratoga), third in walk-trot. On Sunday, AU got first-place finishes from Lownes in novice equitation on the flat, Wawrzynski in advanced walk-trot-canter, and senior Melissa Lorah (Moravia, NY/Moravia) in walk-trot. Lund took second place in open equitation over fences and open equitation on the flat. Frickland took second place in novice equitation on the flat. Other top riders for AU included freshman Lisa Landis (New City, NY/Clarkstown North), third in intermediate equitation over fences; Feinberg, third in novice equitation over fences and novice equitation on the flat; Mocio, third in novice equitation on the flat; and Cohen, third in walk-trot. Alfred is in action next on Nov. 20 at Cazenovia.