

(Pease) Wasekuk 07 helps create Home Life installation

5/07/15

There will be an opening reception of “Home Life,” an installation by Angela Pease Waseskuk, Dimitria Klein, and Chance Greaves, from 5-7 p.m. Saturday, May 9, at the Charles City (Iowa) Arts Center. Angela is a member of the AU Class of 2007.

Admission is free and open to the public. “Home Life” will be on display through Saturday, June 20, 2015.

Angela is the foundations coordinator and an adjunct instructor of art at the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls.

The Charles City Arts Center, located in the historic Carnegie Library, 301 N. Jackson St., is open 1 to 7 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday and 1 to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

For information email charlescityarts@gmail.com.