

AU equestrian team competes at Nazareth

12/07/04

PENFIELD, NY The Alfred University equestrian team competed Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Nazareth Invitational at Paterson Stables in Penfield, NY. Several AU riders earned ribbons, with junior Katie Frickland (Issaquah, WA/Skyline) placing first in novice equitation on the flat. AU finished ninth overall, with 13 teams competing. Earning second-place ribbons for AU were sophomore Ashley Conway (Middlebury, VT/Middlebury Union) in open equitation over fences; junior Danielle Lownes (Richboro, PA/Council Rock) in novice equitation over fences, and junior Janine Slanina (Titusville, PA/Pennington) in advanced walk-trot-canter. Other top riders for Alfred included freshman Lisa Landis (New City, NY/Clarkstown North), third in intermediate equitation over fences; junior Elizabeth Feinberg (Oakland, CA/Beacon), third in novice equitation over fences; freshman Mae Pennisi (Alfred Station, NY/Alfred-Almond) and sophomore Heather Stewart (Austin, TX/Westlake), third in open equitation on the flat, and sophomore Ashley Wawrzynski (Hamlin, NY/Brockport), third in advanced walk-trot-canter. Junior Jessica Howe (Rochester, NY/Greece Athena) qualified for the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) Zone II, Region 2 competition in advanced walk-trot-canter. The regional championships will be held April 2 at Cazenovia. Alfred is in action next on Saturday, Dec. 11, at St. Lawrence.