

AU alumna to deliver lecture at Rochester's Memorial Art Gallery

1/27/05

Alfred University alumna Judith Olson Gregory, a member of the class of 1968, is among the artists to be featured in a lecture series, "Paper Trail: Work by Regional Artists," at the Memorial Art Gallery at the University of Rochester. Gregory's talk is scheduled for 2 p.m. March 6 in the gallery at 500 University Ave., Rochester, NY. The lecture series, which begins Feb. 6 and continues through March 27, is being held in conjunction with "The Paper Sculpture Show," featuring two-dimensional and three-dimensional work by regional artists, including Gregory. The lectures are open to the public, free of charge.
