

NOTED PIANIST GIVES MUSICAL RECITAL AT ALUMNI HALL

Marguerite Volavy, noted Bohemian pianist, will make a personal appearance at Alfred University, tonight, to give a recital in Alumni Hall at 8:15 o'clock. The University Ceramic Guild is sponsoring the recital.

Miss Volavy is the former protegee of Anton Door, regarded by many musicians as one of the few masters. She was born in Bruenn, Moravia, and at an early age was described as a prodigy of the piano. When 16 years old she carried off first prize at the Vienna conservatory. Later studies were made under the tutelage of Eduard Schuett and Theodor Leschetzky.

After her debut in Vienna Miss Volavy toured in concerts through Austria, Italy, France, Germany and Russia. By special command she has played before the late Queen Mary of Hanover, the late Queen Carmen Sylvia of Roumania, the Grand Duchess of Mecklenbourg-Strelitz, the Duke of Cumberland and the Grand Duke of Michaelowitsch of Russia.

On the advice of Anatol Tchaikowsky, brother to the great Russian composer, Marguerite Volavy was engaged as soloist by Wasilij Safonoff for the Imperial Russian Symphony Society and with Safonoff and his orchestra won great triumph in Russian cities, especially St. Petersburg.

Miss Volavy made a brief tour of the south with her celebrated countryman, Kocian, but her first New York appearance was made as soloist with the Russian Symphony Orchestra, under Modest Altschuler, when she played a piano concerto by Serge Bortkiewicz never before heard in this country. On this occasion she created such a furore that she was engaged to appear again with the Russian Symphony Society playing the piano part in Scriabine's fire poem.

DR. ROSS CONDUCTS GEOLOGY TRIP

More than twenty students of Geology studied the moraine and fossils in the territory lying between Alfred and Rochester on a trip to Rochester, conducted by Professor Ross. The five cars made numerous stops along the way so that the geologic aspects of the respective sections might be inspected at first hand by the students.

While in Rochester, the party stopped at the University Campus to go through and study the interesting exhibits on display in the museum of geology and biology. Going to Highland Park from there, the party enjoyed an ample luncheon prepared by Mrs. Ross.

In the afternoon, many of the high points of Rochester were driven to so that all could study the traces of old Lake Warren. In reaching these places several cars strayed losing much time so that the inspection of the gorge, the highlight of the itinerary, had to be postponed. Professor and Mrs. Ross and several students expect to follow this with a trip to New York this week as representatives of Alfred to the meeting of the American Geologic Society.

Chime Clock Presented To Pres. and Mrs. Davis

The faculty and administrative staff of Alfred University entertained in honor of President and Mrs. Boothe C. Davis on the eve of their retirement from the executive role, but not from the hearts and memories of Alfredians. The entertainment took the form of a banquet at the Social Hall last Monday evening; and the event came as a complete surprise to the guests of honor. Dean Dora K. Degen had invited President and Mrs. Davis to have dinner at her home that evening; during the course of a brief ride before the dinner, they found themselves at the Social Hall and surrounded by members of the staff.

It is estimated that a hundred and thirteen persons attended the banquet, which was held in the regular dining room. Following the dinner the group re-assembled on the upper floor and listened to several sea-chanteys sung by the Male Glee Club. Dean J. Nelson Norwood then presented to President and Mrs. Davis an electric chime clock as a farewell gift from his faculty and co-workers; the singing of the Alma Mater brought the gathering to a close.

ALFRED IN CERAMICS RECEIVES RENOWN

The awards in the second annual Robineau Memorial Ceramic Exhibition which opened in Syracuse, Monday, May 1st, were announced on the preceding Saturday. Once again Alfred received recognition in that the first prize for the four best pieces of pottery went to Arthur E. Baggs, a former resident of Alfred an alumnus of the Ceramic College, and at present head of the Ceramic Art Department at Ohio State University, and Miss Marion L. Fosdick and Professor Charles Harder of the staff of the Ceramic College received honorable mentions.

There were two prizes of $50 each, awarded for the best piece or group of pottery, and for the best example of ceramic sculpture. The award of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Syracuse Museum of Fine Arts for ceramic sculpture was given to Waylande Gregory of Cranbrook Foundation, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, for his "Head of a Girl with an Olive". Honorable mention in the same field went to Russell Barnett Aiken of Cleveland, Ohio; Diane Hamilton de Cause of the Los Angeles Pottery, Los Angeles, Calif.; Edris Eckhardt, Cleveland, O.; Miguel Juarez of Hull House, Chicago, Illinois.

The first prize in pottery presented by the Onondago Pottery of Syracuse went to Mr. Baggs for his group of four pieces. Honorable mentions were made of the work of William Henschell of Cincinnati, O.; Marion Fosdick and Charles Harder of the New York State College of Ceramics; Viktor Schrekengost of the Cleveland School of Art, Cleveland, O.; Maija Grotell, Henry Street Settlement, New York City.

It will be remarked how wide-spread is Alfred's influence in Ceramics when the reader realizes that the ceramic instructors in the two settlement houses, members of which were recognized are Alfred graduates: Mrs. Myrtle Merritt French at Hull House, and Miss Ruth Canfield at Henry Street.

Those persons from Alfred who are exhibiting in this display this year are: Dr. Charles F. Binns, Miss Marion L. Fosdick, Professor Charles Harder, Miss Clara K. Nelson, Mary Brown Allen, Maxine Armstrong, Dorothy Hallock, Jane Hawk, Martha Gustafsson, Theola Kilburn, Helen Smathers, Wilma Smith and Emil Zschiegner.

The exhibition is a national one this year; at the first showing it was merely a state affair, but was so popular and so well recognized that the entries this year included potters from Mexico to Maine. At the reception and preview for exhibitors held on Monday evening last, Dr. Charles F. Binns, the honorary chairman of the jury, delivered a short address.

DEDICATION PROGRAM OF CERAMIC BUILDING BEING PLANNED

The program for the dedication of the new Ceramics building, to be held on Monday, June 12th, of Commencement Week, is under careful consideration by President Davis and Dean Holmes and will be completed within the next few weeks. It will be remembered that one of the unique features of this program is the expectation of the presence of Governor Herbert Lehman; thus far, there has been no indication that the state's executive will not be present.

The principal addresses of the ceremony will be given by the Governor and by Mr. A. B. Blininger, the chief ceramist of the Homer Loughlin Plant at East Liverpool, Ohio. Mr. Blininger is one of the most prominent men in the ceramic profession of America. There will be other speakers whose identity is not yet disclosed.

The dedication ceremonies will take place in front of the new building; a platform will be erected there from which the speakers will give their addresses. Invitations are being sent out to alumni and ceramists, and a large attendance from both groups, as well as from nearby towns is expected. The American Ceramic Society Journal will carry notices of the event which is of great interest to men of the industry as well as to the friends and sons of Alfred.

A luncheon for invited guests may be served in the dining room of the reconstructed Brick, and the new building of ceramics will be open to inspection all that afternoon. There is a possibility here that the laboratories may be in use as at the time of the open house during the Saint Patrick celebration.

DR. HOSTETTER ADDRESSES CERAMIC COLLEGE GROUP

Wednesday evening, March 26th, Dr. John C. Hostetter, director of development and research in the Corning Glass Works, gave a very clear and interesting address on the History of the Development of Glass, before a large audience drawn from all departments of the Ceramic College. Dr. Hostetter accompanied his talk with slides, thus pictorially tracing the development of glass production; he also showed a movie of the present-day glass manufacture and the machines and equipment by which a half million glass bulbs can be produced in one day.

"The American Dream" Subject of Assembly Talk

"The American Dream," was the subject of the speaker, The Reverend Mr. Wicker, in the Assembly, Thursday.

It was a dream of a new order of things for the common people, and it began to take shape on the boats before the colonists landed at Jamestown. It took the form of government of, by, and for the people.

The speaker likened this dream to Old Man River, which, fed by many rivulets, flows slowly and peacefully for a while, then in flood time, flows swiftly overcoming obstacles. The obstacles in the path of our dream have been the vested interests and the conservation which has grown up along the Eastern seaboard and gradually spread westward.

In former times the pioneers to the western frontier were in a large measure responsible for the success of the dream, but today, with the passing of the physical frontier, the pioneer has gone too.

There is a new frontier opening up. It is not a geographical frontier, but an economic one—a frontier of opinion. A new kind of pioneer, just as fearless and as brave, is needed!

"So may you enlarge upon the dream and bring from the rainbow's end more of its gold," were the closing words of the speaker.

ORATORICAL CONTEST HELD AT ALFRED

William Nicholson, Buffalo Seneca Vocational High School, and Miss Edith Benjamin, Angelica High School, were the first place winners in Alfred University's 25 Annual Oratorical contest for western and central New York state high schools here in conjunction with the Annual Track and Field meet, Friday.

Nicholson's subject was an original oration, "A Mother's Day Tribute". Miss Benjamin placed first with "Cinderella Dyes Them Black". Both orators showed themselves of high quality with a fluence of speech and correctness of grammar that won them first place. Their subjects also were clever.

Miss Carol Babcock, Hornell, was second and Miss Janette Case, Bolivar, third in the girls' division. Miss Babcock's address was entitled, "The Show Must Go On". "Yellow Butterflies" was Miss Case's topic. Donald De Serio, Hornell, took second and Robert Corry, Angelica, was third in the boys' division. "Whether World" was Mr. De Serio's topic and "Ropes" Mr. Corry's.

The girls' contest began at 4:00 P. M., with President Davis presiding. Seven girls participated as follows: Edith Corbet, Bath—"Message to Garcia" Carol Babcock, Hornell—"Yellow Butterflies" Edith Benjamin, Angelica—"Cinderella Dyes Them Black" Una Wells, Wellsville—"Art of Optimism" Thelma Gormley, Belfast—"Gladys Goes in for Baseball" Jeanette Case, Bolivar—"The Show Must Go On" Pauline Rise, Naples—"The Soul of a Violin"

The boys' contest began at 7:00 P. M., with Prof. Conroe presiding. The following seven boys competed: William McDonald, Wellsville—"The Eloquence of Daniel O'Connell" Joe Paffie, Bolivar—"Ropes" Philip Shepard, Belfast—"Revaluation of the Gold Ounce" William Nicholson, Buffalo—"A Mother's Day Tribute" Chester White, Bath—"Prospects of Permanent World Peace" Donald De Serio, Hornell—"Whither, World" Robert Corey, Angelica—"Ropes" The judges were Prof. Burditt, Prof. Weaver and Mrs. Cortelyou. The contestants were marked the same as the girls.

COUNCIL REVISES RUSHING RULES AT MEETING

In an effort to better rushing conditions for next year's pledging season, the Men's Interfraternity Council made drastic changes in the men's rushing and pledging rules for next year. Three major changes were installed in the new program: A shorter season, no rush parties, and the use of the preferential bidding system.

After much discussion on various changes, the rules committee, in charge of Richard Lawrence, drew up a finished plan which was accepted by the entire council with a few minor changes. All favored a shorter season such that limiting the period to four weeks from the opening of school was accepted and passed. It is hoped that this will relieve the members of the various fraternities from the long strain of an extended period.

Realizing that Freshmen should join fraternities for the men in them and not for rush parties, this old form was eliminated. In their place, the Council voted to have open house on the four Friday nights of rushing season with each fraternity allowed to entertain one quarter of the eligible men to be drawn by lot.

Prohibition of Freshmen from fraternity houses except at specified time was thoroughly discussed. It was finally decided that no Freshmen would be allowed in the various houses at any time except for the Friday open house and for dinner on Monday and Wednesday evening. On these evenings, five men may be invited for dinner and entertained until nine o'clock.

In spite of the fact that no schools the size of Alfred use the preferential system of bidding, the Council decided to give it a try as no disadvantages seemed probable. The advantage of making the Freshmen decide as an individual without knowledge of the number of bids he has received was sufficient recommendation.

For greater detail of any parts of these changes, next year's handbook may be consulted. This will go to press soon and be ready for all for next year.

AG SCHOOL SPONSORS STOCK JUDGING

Little Valley High School in Class A and Caledonia High School in Class B were the winning teams among 41 western and central New York schools that participated in the 20th Annual Stock Judging contest of the New York State School of Agriculture with Alfred University's 25th Annual Inter-scholastics. Hundreds of farmers witnessed the event.

Class A included 24 schools that have full time departments in agriculture instruction. Seventeen schools were listed in Class B, which division includes those schools that have only part time instruction. Horseheads took second in Class A and Friendship second in Class B. Silver loving cups were presented to first place winners in each classification, while felt banners went to second place winners.

Howard Bonhoff of Little Valley was first and Gerald Paine of Caledonia, second in individual scoring for all classes. Both obtained the highest number of points as individual members of their teams for judging. The cups presented to the first teams must be won three years to give permanent possession and the meet this year gives the winning schools their first legs on the trophies. The banners are given each year for permanent possession.

Professor W. T. Crandall of the department of animal husbandry in the New York State College of Agriculture at Cornell University was judge.

Loyalty Medals

Have you ever heard it said, after the awarding of loyalty medals, that there were many others just as worthy of being the person to receive this highest award to be won by a student in Alfred? And then have you wondered why this practice should be continual if it seemed unfair to so many other students of almost equal ability and endeavor? If so, you will be interested in one viewpoint of the perennial discussion.

We grant that every year there are four or five people whose achievements make them so outstanding that they are the most likely to be awarded this medal and are so nominated by the Fiat Lux. Granting this, you ask us why each one of these should not receive recognition. In answer, we ask you to look to one of the lesser of these individuals and compare him with some others and you will find this second group to be discriminated against. Therefore, it is clear that, no matter how many you include for recognition, there will always be some marginal students to whom apparently this limitation is unfair. Then, why have any medal or recognition at all if no group can be selected without seeming partiality?

If you look at the present Freshmen class or look back at the times when Freshmen enter this college, you will see a mass of humanity with apparently no potentiality for bettering Alfred. What is it that develops them into Alfred boosters and workers? In sports, it is the incentive of a varsity letter, and recognition of their ability by the crowd; in studies it is the marks and honorary societies that spurs them on. Yet there are some who could achieve these honors with ease and then, if the loyalty medal were omitted, would have nothing to strive for by putting forth their best effort. If the loyalty medal spurs these individuals on to further effort, is not its continued existence justified? It cannot be justified as being fair to all, yet on this basis it can be justified and those who just miss out have the reward of having accomplished and learned more than they might otherwise have.

ALUMNI NEWS

The Buffalo group of the Alfred Alumni Association held their Annual Alumni banquet, Saturday evening, May 6th, at the Avenue Chateau on Delaware Avenue. President and Mrs. B. C. Davis, Dr. J. Wesley Miller, Director of Department of Finance, and Mrs. Margaret Emerson Larkin, Assistant Alumni Secretary, attended for the dinner. President Davis and Dr. Miller made short speeches, which were warmly received by the group.

On this Saturday, Dr. Miller and President Davis are planning to attend a similar banquet to be held by the Chicago group of the Alfred Alumni Association.

A recent letter from Rudolph D. Elia, of the class of '30, and now a student in the Chicago Medical School, says he has been made associate editor of his college paper and a pledge in the "Twelve Ribs" fraternity. He writes that the World's Fair grounds and buildings are in keeping with the immense undertaking to be put on exhibition in Chicago, this summer.

Word has been received of the death of Charles Coit of Bradford, Pa. He was the father of Miss Margrieta Coit, who graduated with the class of 1931.

Samuel Pilato, A. U. '33, spent a few days renewing old friends in Alfred last week.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Two outstanding film hits of the year have been secured for this week's program of Alfred Cooperative Pictures in Alumni Hall. Zwei Menschen with a theme similar to that of the "White Sister" will be shown twice Thursday night, while "The Conquerors" with Ann Harding and Richard Dix, an epic of pioneer west, will be shown Saturday night.

"Zwei Menschen" is a German production. It is done in the German language and yet it is said that little difficulty is to be found by those persons not having studied German. English titles and little conversation help greatly. The film, however, on the basis of its entertainment value alone through pantomime deserves a large audience. Its setting is in the Alps.

This plot of heroic proportions is ideally presented in the acting of Charlotte Susa and Gustav Froelich, whose work ranks with the best the screen has to offer. Their performance is remarkable in the lack of histrionic melodramatics. Acting inwardly, they express their pent-up emotions through their eyes and faces rather than through dialogue and violent gesture. It is a delight to those whose knowledge of German is extremely limited to be able to understand and to be thrilled by their gripping portrayals.

Historical value, clean romance, comedy, action, intermingled with every-day tragedies of life make "The Conqueror" one of filmdom's most understanding pictures.

A thrilling kaleidoscope of the progress of invention provides an interesting and colorful accompaniment to the intensely dramatic theme.

This pageant of science and imaginative skill shows the introduction of the writing machine, the telephone, the submarine, the electric light, phonograph, trolley car, elevated railroad, wireless, the coming of the first railway train through the west and other great milestones of advancing civilization.

All of these are secondary to the major theme of "The Conquerors," which splashes on a vast canvas the dramatic story of the nation's second battalion of pioneers: the men and women who followed the scouts and trappers into the West to build the commercial frontier.

An unusual program of short reels has been arranged. Bing Crosby will be featured in one Thursday night, another reeler features impersonation of several stars. Saturday night, three shorts are included, one regarding Mother's Day, another dealing with "Strange Birds" and a comedy, "Hokum Hotel".

When students of Minnesota University needed smoke for one of their theatricals they obtained a smoke bomb from the National Guard. The smoke drove everyone from the theatre, and it was later discovered that one bomb would screen a 45 acre field. Properties committee of the Footlight Club, or rather Theta Alpha Phi, please note.

A Frosh at Ashbury College mistook the president of that institution for a classmate and slapping him on the back so that his teeth rattled, said, "I'll be seeing you". Undoubtedly he did.

Fordham's new grid coach "Sleepy Jim" Crowley, is noted for his quick fire humor. During practice at Fordham the other day, a substitute back took the ball on a play, raced through the opposing line, dashed past the secondary, and tore down the field, although no one bothered chasing him. As he approached the distant goal posts with unflagging speed Crowley yelled out, "Close the gates!"

Students of the University of Georgia were confronted with the following ultimatum: Either they were to cut down on the number of baths they took or else they would be charged for every one over a stated number.

During a recent fire which destroyed a 90 year old building at Bethany College the students formed a circle and prevented firemen from saving the building, singing, "Keep The Home Fires Burning". Perhaps we weren't up on our etiquette at the Brick conflagration.

GRANGER"

"WELL, it's like this. Back in the old days, when men wore high hats and frock coats, they had plenty of time to think things out, and they had sense, too. They used to sit down on a log and take the time to whittle their tobacco from a plug, to be sure of having a cool smoke.

"In those days, a man named Wellman, right here in Quincy, Ill., made about the best tobacco you could get. He knew how to keep the flavor fine and mellow.

"Well, sir, the people who make this Granger Rough Cut acquired Mr. Wellman's method, and they must have known how the old boys used to whittle their tobacco to make it smoke cool. Yes, sir, this Granger is the real stuff. The same mellowness and fine flavor that Wellman used to hand out to his friends. And it's whittled into big shaggy flakes all ready for the pipe. 'Rough Cut' they call it—'cut rough to smoke cool' is the best way I can describe it.

"Regardless of price, Granger is about the best pipe tobacco I ever smoked. That's why I smoke it, and that's why they call it America's Pipe Tobacco, sir."

Now we wanted to sell Granger for 10¢. It was just a question of how to do it for the price. So we pack Granger in a sensible foil pouch instead of an expensive package, knowing that a man can't smoke the package. We give smokers this good

GRANGER tobacco in a common-sense pouch for 10¢.

GRANGER has not been on sale very long, but it has grown to be a popular smoke. And there is this much about it—we have yet to know of a man who started to smoke it, who didn't keep on. Folks seem to like it.

SALAMANCA SCORES 38 POINTS TO WIN INTERSCHOLASTICS

BRADFORD TAKES SECOND WITH 27 1-2 POINTS; CANISTEO TRAILS IN THIRD PLACE

Salamanca High School with 38 points won Alfred University's 25th Annual Interscholastic Track and Field meet here Friday, before a crowd of 2,000 fans. Bradford with 27½ and Canisteo with 22½ points were second and third respectively in the competition of 20 western and central New York high schools. Hornell High School finished fifth with 13¼ points.

Perhaps the feature event of the day was the mile run. It was won by S. Dyviniak of Depew, who easily led the field of some 50 runners by a half lap to come within three seconds of the carnival record established by a Jamestown athlete in 1930. Dyviniak's time was 4:47 and had he been pressed probably would have lowered the mark. No records in any of the events were broken, however.

Salamanca in rolling up their victory margin took three first places in the 880 yard run, high jump and broad jump. Other first places were fairly evenly distributed with Dansville and Canisteo each taking two and Hornell, Bolivar, Bradford, Andover, East Aurora, Corning North Side and Depew each one initial place.

Rettburg, Forsythe Star

L. Rettburg of Salamanca and Forsythe of Dansville, each with ten points, were tied for individual scoring honors. Both will receive silver trophies of a trackman in action, although it had been planned to award only one. Gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded to first, second and third place athletes. Corning North Side received a handsome trophy for victory in the four-fifths mile relay. Salamanca High was presented with the largest and most expensive trophy for team victory.

The broad jump and pole vault went good distances before the first place winner was decided. In the broad jump, Rettburg of Salamanca on his last jump glided through the air to set a 20 feet four and one-fourth inch mark to formally clinch the meet for Salamanca. Up until the broad jump, which was the last event to be run off and even though Salamanca was in the lead by three points, the meet was in the fire between Salamanca and Bradford. In the pole vault, two men tied for first. They were Ernest Downing of Hornell and K. Zeltwanger of Canisteo at a height of 11 feet two inches.

Earl Potter was the iron man of the Bolivar team. He showed up well in the relay but the remaining members of the team failed to take advantage of the lead he established as first man. In the 220 low hurdles, after running two trials in the morning, Potter took first place.

Olean experienced a little tough luck, when Williams in the 100 yard dash—last year's victor over much stiffer competition in the same run—within a few yards of the tape started to glide in with the result that a couple of other men glided by him to cause his elimination from that event. Olean, however, did a brilliant piece of running in the relay and garnered second place, as well as a fifth in the 220 yard dash.

Wellsville placed fourth in the meet with 14¼ points. Three places in the 220, 100 and javelin, as well as a point in the relay and pole vault and ¾ point in the high jump gave them their total.

Relay Feature

In the afternoon another feature entertainment attraction of the meet was an exhibition four-fifths mile relay between the Alfred Varsity and Frosh teams. The race was won by the Varsity, which lowered the 46 2-5 seconds record of Buffalo Bennett High School established in 1932, by five seconds. Running for the Varsity were Hillwig, Wessels, Wallace and Merck. Prior, Giannasio, Hibbard and Oldfield ran for the Freshmen.

The teams entered and their scoring follows: Salamanca, 38; Bradford,

27½; Canisteo, 22½; Wellsville, 14¼; Hornell, 13¼; Perry, 11½; Dansville, 10; Andover, 9; Depew, 9; Warsaw, 8; Corning North Side, 6; East Aurora, 5½; Olean, 5; Bolivar, 5; Portville, 4; Caledonia, 3; Naples, 2; Belfast, ¾; and Wayland, 0.

JACK MILES AND BAND OF BANDS FOLLOWS FUNK SUCCESS

Jack Miles and his well known Band of Bands, follows in the footsteps of the highly successful dance put on by Larry Funk at Fisher's Fun Farm to play this spot on Sunday, May 14th.

Miles was feature trombonist for Guy Lombardo for three years before he started his own successful band, and is the only person from the United States to have played with the Royal Canadians. The sweet tempo and melody of his own band is similar to that of his mother orchestra.

With thirteen National Broadcasting artists and a popular blues singer, Miss Eleanor Sherry, Jack Miles is expected to go over as big as in the past, while playing in many eastern hotels.

MANSFIELD TOPS

TENNIS TEAM IN FIRST TILT

The Varsity Tennis Team inaugurated its season last Friday by receiving a 7-1 defeat at the hands of Mansfield State Teachers College, at Mansfield.

Captain "Happy" Rinzler took the only match for Alfred by defeating the Mansfield No. 1 man, R. Straugh, 7-1, 9-11, 6-0. This match proved the most exciting one for the spectators, because during the second set Rinzler almost had match point two or three times as the score saw-sawed back and forth, but Straugh took the second set. However, Rinzler's reserve strength and steady playing proved too much for the tired Mansfield man and he cinched the match by a final six-love set.

The Alfred team was handicapped by the absence of Joe Kuite, but Coach Cornish of Mansfield said that this year's team was the strongest one he has ever had.

However the Mansfield team will play a return match at Alfred on Thursday, May 11th, and Coach Bassett's men are out to avenge their first defeat.
